FISHERY MATTERS - PICNIC - VESSEL SAVED-BIG DUCK ISLAND FOG ALARM. (FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

Grand Manan.

On the 27th inst, at St. Paul's manse, Fredericton, the wife of Rev. A. J. Mowatt, of a daughter. On the 20th inst, at Amherst, N. S., the wife of S. L. Lawson, of a daughter. GRAND MANAN, Aug. 30.-Fishing con tinues very good. Large catches of medium herring are being taken from the weirs at Seal Cove. About 30 vessels anchored at Flagg's cove on Saturday to lay over Sunday. These vessels dispose of large quantities of livers at the oil factories every Saturday. The price paid for fresh cod, hake and pollock livers is 30 cents per bucket, and dog fish livers bring 25 cents per bucket. The ell manufactured therefrom is chiefly used for tanning purposes. Very little medium oil is being put up this

Ritchie, rector of St. Luke's Church, of the same place. Very little medium oil is being put up this season. The Church of the Ascension Sunday school held their annual pionic at Campobello on the 28th inst. The pionicers were treated in royal good style by the Campobello people, who apared no pains to make the day enjoyable, it being the first pionic party from Grand Manan. Geo. R. Batson ordered a salute to be fired. Just as the Fluthing was leaving her wharf homeward bound, three guns were fired, which were heartily responded to by three rousing good cheers for the people of our sister isle. Everybody had a good time. The three masted schooner Nisbit which was wrecked on Gannet rock about two weeks ago, slid off the rock, and by strenuous efforts of Capt. Onency and crew floated high enough to tow. The steamer Flushing towed her around as far as Dark harbor last night, when a fresh easterly wind springing up they had to
