MINISTERS GETTING LAZY JUDGE FORBES DECLARES

Presbytery Discusses Sunday School Problem and Training of Teachers—Amend the Legislature

narterly session in St. Andrew's rch this morning. After the meetng had been opened a lengthy discussion took place over a clause in the new bill to be presented to the legislative assembly, providing for the incorporation of the church in New Brunswick. The clause was one which states that at every annual meeting and every special meeting of the congregations, a moderator shall preside and in his absence, such person as agreed upon by the congregation.

Several members of the Presbytery have objected to this clause and a resolution was drawn up as follows:

"The Presbytery is unanimously in favor of the bill as it stands, but will accept omission of the last sentence of section six." This sentence is the clause above refered to.

It was agreed that a committee be sent to the capital to represent the new bill if it is found that there is opposision took place over a clause in the few sections in the bill which affect the present system. It was stated at the meeting that only a few members of the house are opposed to the bill. It was decided that a copy of the resolution passed be sent to Ora P. King, M. P. P., who will read it to the house. The moderator, Rev. F. Baird, appointed Rev. A. A. Graham, Rev. W. W. Pelpine and Rev. Lames Rev. age passengers, who will go west this W. Rainnie and Rev. James Ross as a committee to appoint standing committees to report at the July meeting of the Presbytery.

Rev. James Ross will act as modera-a committee to appoint standing committees to report at the July meeting of the Presbytery.

Rev. James Ross will act as moderator of the Stanley, N. B. district.

Rev. Mr. McOdrum read the augmentation report. The following congregations are asking for grants: Fairville $200; St. Matthew's $200; Fort Kent $200; And Greenfield $200. The St. John Presbytery was asked for $1,650. It contributed $1,219. The requests from the different churches were considered. The requests from Fairville, Fort Kent and Greenfield were granted.

It was stated that the residents of St. James district were having two services each Sunday, while Lynfield, an adjoining district, had not had a service all winter.

Judge Forbes said that the minister who preaches at St. James should also officiate at a service at Lynfield in the evening. One clergyman objected, stating that Lynfield was nine miles away from St, James, and Judge Forbes made the startling statement that some ministers where getting too lazy, Hoknew in the past of ministers who preached in one place on Sunday morning and in the evening preached at another place miles and miles away.

Judge Forbes moved that a committee be appointed to visit this field to ascertain whether or not a minister is needed at Lynfield. The motion was seconded by Rev, Gordon Dickie and carried.

meeded at Lynfield. The motion was seconded by Rev. Gordon Dickie and carried.

Rev. Mr. McOdrum in his report on augmentation, stated that Richmond, Fredericton, Woodstock and Prince William did not send the amounts asked for by the Presbytery. Judge Forbes moved that the moderator send an official letter to these congregations, demanding an explanation for the nonappearance of the collections. The motion was seconded and carried.

Rev. J. H. Anderson read the report of the Sabbath schools. There are now in the Presbytery 70 schools, 14 of these having met with poor success. The reports from the majority of schools are encouraging. The enrollment stands the same as last year. Several of the larger schools have increased their enrollments. The Home Department has not yet reached as good a condition as it idi in 1902, but the past year has been the most successful since that time. The year 1902 saw the largest Sunday school enrollment yet, and ever since there has been a decrease in membership. One hundred and six Sunday school children have joined the church during the past year. The Sabbath school funds are increasing, and as 2 result the school rooms are being made more comfortable, which tends to increase the enrollment. The report was received.

Rev. Mr. McOdrum asked Mr. Johnston if anything was being done to train the young for Sabbath school teaching. Mr. Johnston stated that in St. David's church, this city, a class is conducted for teacher trailing and the results have been encouraging. In other places the work is also being taken up.

Secretary Foster stated that it is evident that hundreds of children Secretary Foster stated that it is evident that hundreds of children throughout the province are not attending Sunday schools. This, he thought, is a serious problem, which should not be passed without discussions.

Rev. A. A. Graham thought that too much attention could not be paid to teacher training. The teacher is the inspiration of the Sunday school and

Judge Forbes said that the most serious problem facing the church to-day is how to train the Sabbath School teachers.

Rev. J. A. McLean read the church Life and Work report. The attendance has been good at churches, and the past year has been a successful one. In some churches the services have been increased. A large number of young folks have joined the church. Several churches reported that the praise services were not successful, while others reported that the praise service was partly responsible for the success of the church.
