SPORTING MATTERS
MERRITT AND LADY
PARTNER IN TRIPLE TIE.

The four-team tie for the lead of the six day race at the Park square rink was broken last night by the Shinkwin-O'Connor pair dropping a lap. This leaves a triple tie between Merritt and Miss Harris, Holden and Miss Libby and Gendron and Miss Shaw. Shinkwin and Miss O'Connor are on even terms with Hamilton and Miss Cornett, a lap behind the leaders. Netsey and Miss Klinger, who started the hour's grind on even terms with the Hamilton-Cornett team, dropped a lap. The Butterfield-Miller team fell behind three more laps, and young Hamilton, who was teamed with Miss Riley, lost eight laps. Shinkwin lost his lap by a fall. The other team sat once seized the opportunity of dropping him. It was a wild sprint for about 15 minutes, and then Hamilton, Merritt, Holden and Gendron secured the lap.
