BOSTON RED SOX CLINCH WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Continued from page one. Fenway Park, Sept. 11.—Boston Red Sox are the non-essential world's series champions of 1918. They defeated the Chicago Cubs by a score of 2 to 1 in a hotly-contested game which was complete with fielding plays.

error in the third inning the National League champion from the world's series picture, the last to be shown on the baseball screen until the great war is over. Mays' underhand delivery held the Cubs helpless throughout. Thomas and Whitteman made bright fielding plays. The official box score, which follows, shows how the Cubs went down to defeat and the Red Sox became the uncrowned kings of baseball.

First Inning. First Inning—Chicago—Thomas took Flack's hopper and got his men easily at bat. Mays' underhand ball was kept closely around the batters' knees.

Second Inning. Second Inning—Chicago—Shean threw out Paskert on his bouncer near second. Merkle struck out. Pick singled into left field, hooking one of Mays' underhand balls near the handle.

Third Inning. Third Inning—Chicago—Deal filed out to Whiteman. Killifer was out. Scott to McInnis. Tyler went out by the Scott to McInnis route. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning. Fourth Inning—Chicago—Flack singled over second. Hollocher went out to McInnis unassisted. Flack going to second. Mann was hit by a pitched ball, the ball striking him on the leg and he fell to the ground. He recovered and went to first base. Mann was picked off first by a quick throw by Schang. Paskert walked and Flack stole third. Flack scored on Merkle's single to left. Paskert stopped at second. Hooper got Pick's line drive. One run, two hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning. Fifth Inning—Boston—Strunk flew out to Mann. Hollocher threw out Whiteman. McInnis beat out an infield hit which Tyler knocked down. The official score gave Tyler an error instead of McInnis a hit. Scott flew to Flack. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning. Sixth Inning—Chicago—Flack walked. Mays lost control of his submarine delivery momentarily. McInnis took Hollocher's grounder and threw to Scott forcing Flack. Mann forced Hollocher, Mays to Shean. Mann went out stealing. Schang to Shean. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning. Seventh Inning—Chicago—Mays threw out Paskert at first. Thomas robbed Merkle of a hit, going down back of the bag and making a wonderful catch, and equally wonderful throw to first. Mays tossed out Pick. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning. Eighth Inning—Chicago—Barber batted in place of Deal. Whiteman came into first and took Barber's liner off the top of the grass and made a com-

MRS. KUHRING MADE MEMBER OF G. W. V. A.

Delightful Reception Held For President of Women's Canadian Club—Welcome After Trip Overseas—Interesting Talk Given.

"Small cheer, but great welcome make a merry feast," was the motto given last evening by Mrs. H. A. Powell at the reception given by the Women's Canadian Club to their President, Mrs. G. A. Kuhring. The welcome accorded Mrs. Kuhring after her trip overseas was certainly a most enjoyable one, and it was evident that by the address of welcome made by Mrs. H. A. Powell, to which Mrs. Kuhring replied feelingly, the following delightful musical program was carried out.

The rooms of the G. W. V. A. were decorated with flags and flowers. Mrs. H. A. Powell, Mrs. Geo. McAvity and Mrs. L. P. D. Tiley, vice presidents, were on the platform. After a graceful address of welcome made by Mrs. H. A. Powell, to which Mrs. Kuhring replied feelingly, the following delightful musical program was carried out.

Piano solo, Miss Hogan. Violin solo, Miss Helen Furlong. Songs, Madam Furlong Schmidt. Accompanist, Mrs. Furlong-Coleman.

Mrs. Powell then announced Sergt. Puddy, who in a well worded speech presented to Mrs. Kuhring the pin and certificate of membership in the Great War Veterans' Association, to which, by virtue of her work in the V. A. D., and the fact of her having been overseas, Mrs. Kuhring is entitled. In accepting the pin Mrs. Kuhring said that it was so great an honor to be associated with such men and women that she could not express herself, but that she felt keenly the privileges of membership in such an association.

After this pleasing ceremony Mrs. Powell asked Mrs. Kuhring to speak. After first thanking Mrs. Powell, the executive and members of the Club, for so splendidly carrying on during her absence, Mrs. Kuhring told of the lecturers which the Club would have the privilege of hearing shortly. Dr. Beland, Madame Van der Plier, a Dutch lady who has been interested in the Belgian refugees, and P. A. McKenzie, the well known war correspondent. Mrs. Kuhring then told of the decision of the Club to form circles of sphagnum moss graders and asked Mrs. Powell to help in this work (which is greatly needed) to apply to Mrs. W. H. Shaw, convenor of this committee. She spoke of the desire of the Club to form a library for the forty soldiers to enter Riter Glad later on. Books for this purpose, it was announced, can be left at the Calvin Hall between 12 and 4 Thursday and Friday, and 10 to 12 Saturday morning. Mrs. B. Scholten is convenor of the book collecting and hopes to send away a large quantity the first of next week.

"Many members of the Club," Mrs. Kuhring went on to say, "are in sorrow, suffering the great cost of the great gain, and to them we all extend deep sympathy."

In a most pleasing way Mrs. Kuhring then told of some of the places visited in London, such as the Maple Leaf Club and the Club for Overseas Ladies to which all V. A. D.'s are members. Speaking of this led Mrs. Kuhring to tell of her meeting with Her Gracious Majesty Queen Mary when she saw the maple leaves on the V. A. D. uniform which Mrs. Kuhring wore she spoke to her and seemed so interested in hearing of the twenty-five V. A. D.'s from Canada. Her Majesty asked Mrs. Kuhring what she was doing, and on hearing that she had just returned from France spoke from her own knowledge of the hospitals over there. Mrs. Kuhring described Her Majesty as being so kind and lovely that one forgot she was a queen, except for her personal dignity and charm. She was visiting the Overseas Club in which she takes a personal interest as she does in everything connected with the soldiers or those who minister to the men. Both the King and the Queen spend every day visiting hospitals or institutions.

The National Kitchens were described and their great convenience dwelt upon as a good well cooked dinner for a family can be procured at a reasonable rate and carried home. St. John people and the good work they are doing were mentioned, among those spoken of being Mrs. MacLaren and Mrs. Yassie. A visit to the House of Parliament was told of. Mrs. Kuhring ended her splendid talk by reading Rudyard Kipling's poem "The Glory of the Garden."

At an informal reception simple war-time refreshments were served, consisting of fruit punch and wafers, and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Committees in charge of this delightful entertainment were: Hall—Miss Grace Leavitt; Refreshment—Mrs. Geo. McAvity, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. J. H. Dody assisted by a number of young ladies.

HOPEWELL HILL

The regular meeting of the Patriotic League was held at the home of the secretary, Mrs. McAlmon on Tuesday afternoon, the president, Mrs. Russell in the chair.

The meeting opened with singing the daily prayer for our soldiers. The secretary reported fifty pairs of socks shipped in August and thirty dollars expended in yarn for Christmas socks for our boys at the front.

It was decided to solicit aid on "Fair Day" for the Christmas boxes. A letter of sympathy was extended to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Callam of Cape station upon the death of their son Sergt. W. Callam, who was killed in action on August 8th.

A good programme was carried out consisting of a solo by Mrs. A. H. Peck and readings by Mrs. Robert McGorman and Mrs. L. Archibald. Mrs. Alex Rogers and Mrs. A. H. Peck were appointed a committee to arrange the programme for the next meeting.
