

MARRIAGE LAW HIS SUBJECT HIS ARGUMENTS

Rev. Dr. Flanders Preaches Strong Sermon on the Matter

Declares Action of Catholic Church is Cruel and Unjust, and Believes She is Exceeding Her Authority—Contrary to Laws of God and Man, He Says.

Monday, May 15. Preaching from the text, "What, therefore, God hath joined together let no man put asunder." Rev. Dr. Flanders, D. D., pastor of Centenary church, last evening dealt with the effect of the No Tenere decree of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, annulling all marriages of Catholics or of Catholics and Protestants, which were performed by other than Roman Catholic priests.

In his argument that the decree interfered with the law of the land, the speaker pointed out that the civil power in Canada was supreme and that clergymen in performing marriage were agents of the government.

Agents of Government. In his argument that the decree interfered with the law of the land, the speaker pointed out that the civil power in Canada was supreme and that clergymen in performing marriage were agents of the government.

Rev. Dr. Flanders also argued that the decree was a baleful menace to domestic happiness and the sacredness of the home. The danger of the union being disrupted was a grave warning against mixed marriages.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

In sewing trimmings on a hat it should for the home milliner to fasten the ends of the threads, but if you will have the ends loose, instead of drawing the ends close to the hat, and after securing the trimming, tie the two ends together, the effect will be better.

Great difficulty is often experienced when trying to remove glass supports, but this method will help to loosen them. Use a little olive oil round the stopper with a wooden instrument. The heat will cause the oil to work round the stopper and it should be easily removed.

It is a difficult matter to cut away the material under lace without cutting the lace itself. The best way to do this is to use a pair of scissors to cut the lace at the top and bottom, and then pull it away from the material.

A Bilet of beef requires a longer time for roasting than any other cut of meat. Usually half an hour to the pound is most too long a time. Pork comes out best if roasted in its own fat. It is better to use a little more fat than you think you need.

When food has accidentally been made too salty, the effect may be counteracted by adding a tablespoonful of vinegar and one of sugar. Save all the lemon hulls, drop them into the vessel in which you boil your tea, and it will lighten them wonderfully, and there will be a clean freshness about them.

See that anything stowed away for future use is tightly covered, otherwise it absorbs impurities or may taint eggs, butter and milk.

For those having asparagus ferns that do not seem to grow, try putting a spoonful of castor oil round the roots and once the plants are well established, wash well with warm water and soap and sediment will come off easily.

Black goods, especially when they become greasy, take a greasy lather. This defect can be remedied by cleaning the piece thoroughly with alcohol. The best does not injure black crepe and is especially good in use on black hats.
