NEWS FROM IRELAND.

Dublin.

The death is announced of the Rev. John Grene, S. J., of Milltown Park, Dublin. He was born in 1807, educated Dublin. He was born in 1807, educated at Stoneyhurst, and entered the Society of Jesus in his nineteenth year. For more than forty years he devoted himself to teaching in the college of the Society. Many of his first pupils have passed away in the fullness of their days. But those with whom he was brought into further intercourse in more modern times, in Belvidere College, retain vivid memories of his strong faith and zeal for the promotion of every good cause. His latter years were spent at Milltown Park.

A struggle is going on between a Rev.
Mr. Bali, of Donegal, and Mr. Byrne, of Courtfoyle. The tenant had sold every article on the land, and is quite prepared for a visit from the sheriff. It is, however, expected that the sheriff will not put in an appearance, as already the landlord's agent is looking for a settlement, which the tenant is in no hurry to make,
as he is quite delighted with the pleasure

The Brsy Town Commissioners passed a resolution at their meeting on Feb. 8, stating that in view of the grave and universal discontent existing in Ireland and the prostration of every interest in the country, the board declined to take any part in the projects intended for the celebration of her Majesty's Jubiles, and desire to place on record their opinion that it will be time enough for our countrymen to rejoice when they are permitted to exercise the right of managing the affairs of their own country.

The "authorities" here led an amusing dance lately in North Kildare. The placards announcing the Clongerey demonstration were put up, on February 5th, during the night, and the County Inspector and Resident Magistrates had their suspicions aroused by the exceptionally short notice, especially as it opened with the ominious words, "Plan of Campaign." Horsepolicemen, roused from their beds at midnight, were sent out each on a thirty miles' side there. midnight, were sent out each on a thirty miles' ride through the darkness to summon all available policemen to the meeting place, their instructions being to leave only one man in each barrack, and to ing place, their instructions being to leave only one man in each barrack, and to direct that the posters of the meeting should be torn down everywhere. The Resident Magistrate, County Inspector, and Sub-Inspectors were up all night directing operations. As fast, however, as the posters were torn off others were put up to replace them. In Newbridge the shopkeepers removed their shutters on Sunday morning, and exhibited the placards within their windows. In Nass the billstickers mounted long laders and exhibited the announcement high and dry above the policemen's reach. Two hundred policemen were massed from early morning at the meeting place, and the poor people, who had never seen such an array of bludgeon men in their quiet neighborhood before imagined that their meeting was to be suppressed. All sorts of amusing pranks were then played off on the police. Sounds of cheers from across the fields brought them at the double, and when they found nothing the same noises away in another direction brought them over fence and thorn; again they were led through a bog, and after some hours of this kind of work, they had the satisfaction of seeing the meeting begin when they were too utterly fagged out to do anything to prevent it.

On the two farms at Alderton, where evictions were abandoned, owing to the violent attitude of the people, the latter had firepiaces erected to boil water and tar to pour over the bailiffs. The windows and doors were fastened with iron bars, and, walls are erected inside the windows. Supplies of coal, wood, provisions and missiles were laid in.

The "Plan of Campaign" has achieved a splendid victory over Mr. Wm. Madden Glascott, of Alderton, near New Ross. Last August his tenants demanded a reduction of 25 per cent, on the rents then due,

The tenants then adopted the "Plan of Campaign." An attempt to evict three tenants was successfully resisted. Mr. Glascott immediately communicated with Canon Doyle, with a view to an amicable arrangement, which was effected on the following terms—the original demand of 25 per and reductive them. was effected on the following terms—the original demand of 25 per cent, reduction on all rents now due. Lord Massarene is one of those foolish Irish landlords to whom it is necessary to give a few lessons in the elementary rules of common sense and common justice. To a reasonable request for a small reduction, the answer was given that no reduction would be made in those cases in which abatements were most sorely needed. But the Irish tenants now know how to deal with irreconcilables like Lord Massarene, and on Jan. 28th the people assembled at the village of Collon, to take the first step in defensive operations, and to listen to the advice of their spiritual and political leaders. Father Taaffe was in the chair—a very considerable significance. The Irish party was represented by Mesers. Clancy, M. P., and Gill, M. P. At the fair, which was held before the meeting, the farmers disposed of their movesble stock, and Lord Massarene and his bailiffs will now be spared the trouble of seeking to obtain exorbitant rents by the process of seizing on the tenant's effects. When Lord Massarene is prepared to accept a fair rent he sarene is prepared to accept a fair rent he may apply for it. Until then he can rest in peace.

Cork.

Mr. Thomas Linehan, hon, secretary of the Kanturk National Lesgue, held a "Plan of Campaign" sale at Newmarket, on Feb. 9th. It being a fair day a great demonstration was subsequently held. Mr. Linehan declared that the Leader tenantry were the most rack-rented in Ireland, and even the Recorder of Cork attempted to interfere, but the landlord was unrelenting.

Mr. Savage, Kinsale, carried out two more evictions in the Ballinhassig district. The landlord is my Wheatley, who was represented by Mr. William Waltos, Ardbrack, Kinsale, as receiver under the Court of Chancery. The first tenant evicted was James Murphy, who has the misfortune to own one of the most rack-rented farms. Murphy has a large, helpless family, and is one of the most hard-working and industrious tenant-farmers in the district. But it was utterly impossible that he could make both ends meet in the miserable spot of bog and upland which he held as a farm. A demonstration, novel as it is extraordinary, occurred at Mitchelstown on Feb. 9th. For some days commotion prevailed among the pupils attending the schools of the Christian Brothers and the nuns of the Presentation Order, caused by the attendance at the schools of the children of an unpopular person in the district. The pupils asought to have those unwelceme children removed, which, of course, was contrary to the regulation code. On the above day the pupils gathered opposite the entrance te the convent, and a demonstration of resentment on their part to the attendance of obnoxious pupils took place. A number of 900, refused to attend the schools. The pupils gathered opposite the entrance to the convent, and a demonstration of resentment on their part to the attendance of obnoxious pupils took place. A number of 90 police were present and attempted to check the exhibition of feeling on the part of the children. Afterwards a juvenile fife and drum band, preceded by a public procession of the pupils, marched through the town cheering for

The tenants on the Brooke's estate, Killeagh, met the agent, Mr. Bayley, on February 9th, and paid their rents less thirty-five per cent., the terms which they offered three months ago, but which were then refused. The landlord since then reconsidered himself, and accepted the tenant's terms unconditionally. The tenants would have adopted the 'Plan of Campaign' if the landlord resisted.

The tenants have their farms at Griffith's valuation.
On Feb. 6th, the farmers and laborers on the estates surrounding Ballygar, assembled in the village and held a splen-did demonstration in support of the Bagot tenantry, in their demand for a reduction on their present rents. The tenants asked for an abatement of 25 per cent. to all classes of tenants, and to this demand the trustees offered a reduction to the non-judicial tenants of 20 per cent, but refused to include in this concession, the refused to include in this concession the tenants who had their rents fixed in 1882 by the Sub Commissioner. The majority of the tenants hold judicial leases, and declined to accept the compromise offered by the landlord. The result is a general refusal to pay, and the tenants are threatened with eviction. The meeting was participated in by the tenantry on the surrounding estates, as well as by the tenantry more immediately interested. The proceedings were most enthusiastic. A platform was erected in the market square, and a banner was suspended in a prominent position, bearing the inscription, "Romember Woodford." Mr. Wm. O'-Brien and Mr. John Deasy, M. P., drove over from Roscommon in the morning, and were met some distance from Ballygar by a large crowd with bands and banners. Gladstone Cautious and Expectant.

A home rule M. P. says that at present of Gladstone remains warily in the back. There is no possible move for him to make at present with advantage. He is waiting and watching for some turn of events which may give him a chance. No doubt he is secretly amused at the "round table" conferences, which can end only in one way. His return to power is not likely to be brought about by Hartington and Chamberlain. Nothing else can help him much at present, unless the ministry allows itself to be dragged into a foreign war, of which there are no visible signs.

It is of the utmost importance that some good household remedy should be kept within handy reach in case of pain and accidental injury. The most useful remedy of this kind is undoubtedly Hagyard's Yellow Oil, for internal and external use in all painful complaints.

Mr. R. C. Winlow, Toronto, writes:
"Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is a valuable medicine to all who are troubled with indigestion. I tried a bottle troubed with indigestion. I tried a bottle of it after suffering for some ten years, and the results are certainly beyond my expectations. It assists digestion wonderfully. "ONLY AFTER DEATH."

What Wonders the Microscope has done for us.

NO LONGER OBLIGED TO DIE, TO FIND OUT "WHAT'S KILLING US One of the leading scientific publications

One of the leading scientific publications states that many people are now using the microscope to discover the real cause of disease in the system, and to detect adulterations of food and medicines.

This wonderful instrument has saved many a life. A microscopical test shows, for instance, the presence of albumen, or the life of the blood, in certain derangements of the kidneys, but medicine does not tell us how far advanced the derangement is, or whether it shall prove fatal.

The microscope, however, gives us this knowledge:

ment is, or whether it shall prove fatal.

The microscope, however, gives us this knowledge:

Bright's disease, which so many people dread, was not fully known until the microscope revealed its characteristics. It greatly aids the physician, skilled in its use, in determining how far disease has advanced, and gives a fuller ides of the true structure of the kidney.

A noted German scholar recently discovered that by the aid of the microscope, the physician can tell if there is a tumor forming in the system, and if certain appearances are seen in the fluid passed it is proof positive that the tumor is to be a malignant one.

If any derangement of the kidneys is detected by the microscope, the physician looks for the development of almost any disease the system is heir to, and any indication of Bright's disease, which has no symptoms of its own and cannot be fully recognized except by the microscope, he looks upon with alarm.

This disease has existed more than 2,000 years. It is only until recently that the microscope has revealed to us its universal prevalence and fatal character. Persons who formely died of what was called general debility, nervous breakdown, dropsy, paralysis, heart disease, rheumatism, apoplexy, etc., are now known to have really died of kidney disease, because, had there been no disorder of the kidneys, the chances are that the effects from which they died would never have existed.

As the world becomes better acquainted they died would never have existed.

As the world becomes better acquainted with the importance of the kidneys in the human economy by the aid of the microscope, there is greater alarm spread through the communities concerning it, and this accounts for the erroneous belief and this accounts for the erroneous belief that it is on the increase.

As yet neither homeopathist nor allopathist is prepared with a cure for deranged kidneys, but the world has long since recognized, and many medical gentlemen also recognize and prescribe Warner's safe cure for these derangements, and admit that it is the only specific for the common and advanced forms of kidney disorders.

Formerly the true cause of death was ney disorders.

Formerly the true cause of death was discovered only after death. To-day the microscope shows us, in the water we pass, the dangerous condition of any organ in the body, thus enabling us to treat it promptly and escape premature death.

As the microscope in the hands of laymen has revealed many diseases that the medical men were not aware of, so that preparation, like many other discoveries in medicine and science, was found out by laymen, outside the medical code; consequently it comes very hard for medical men laymen, outside the medical code; consequently it comes very hard for medical men to endorse and prescribe it. Nevertheless, Warner's safe cure continues to grow in popularity and the evidences of its effectiveness are seen on every hand.

Some persons claim that the proprietors should give the medical profession the formula of this remedy, if it is such a "God-send to humanity," and let the physicians and public judge whether or not it be so recognized.

physicians and public judge whether or not it be so recognized. We, however, do not blame them for not publishing the formula, even to get the recognition of the medical profession. The standing of the men who manufacture sive apparatus necessary in compounding these ingredients—seem to us to be a rea-sonable and sufficient one.

The universal testimony of our friends and neighbors, and the indisputable evidence that it, and it alone, has complete mastery over all diseases of the kidneys, is sufficient explanation of its extraordinary reputation, and conclusive proof that it is, perhaps, the most beneficent dis-covery known to scientific medicine since the microscope revealed to us the all imthe microscope revealed to us the all im-portant nature of the organs it is designed to reach and benefit.

A Cure for Drunkenness.

The Cure of drunkenness is a task withwhich the regular practitioner has been unable to cope. Nine-tenths of mankind look upon drunknness as, a social vice, which a man may overcome by force of will. Drunkenness is a bad habit, we all admit, in the moderate drinker. In the confirmed drunkard it becomes a a disease of the nervous system. The medical treatment of this disease consists in the employment of remedies that act directly upon those portions of the nervous system which, when diseased, cause lunacy, dementia, and the drinking habit. Remedies must be employed that will cure the appetite, for strong drink, steady the trembling hand, revive the lagging spirit, balance the mind, etc. The nervous system of the dram drinker being all unstrung or shattered, must be given a nutriment that will take the place of the accustomed liquor, and prevent the physical and moral prostration that often foliows a sudden breaking off mis to use of alcoholic drinks. Hence it is only by act self-denial that we can purify the grass of our nature, and it is only by wo of penance that we can expiate our sensuality is the unclean spirit that only be cast out by fasting and pray Purification and explation cannot be chased at any less cost than this.

But there is another aspect of this sect which we must lay to heart. Let a time for interior repentance even in than external works of penance. "Ryour heart and not your garments" is motto that is set before us in all our potential exercises. External practice count for little without the renewal the soul. What merit can a man for his fasts or his abstinences when heart is a hot-bed of sin, and he crucically in the count of the count for little without the renewal the soul. What merit can a man for his fasts or his abstinences when heart is a hot-bed of sin, and he crucically in the count of the count for little without the renewal the soul. What merit can a man for his fasts or his abstinences when heart is a hot-bed of sin, and he crucically in the count of the crucical single services and he crucically in the count of the crucical services. Sin must be repented of and absolute.

Sin must be repented of and abandon there must be sorrow of the soul, oth wise the mortification of the body not profit us much. Do not, therefore deceive yourselves! Let no man agine for a moment that he can get was good out of the Lenten sees. agine for a moment that he can get real good out of the Lenten seasor long as he remains the willing slave of It were little short of sacrilege for wretched drunkard, the wanton be phemer, the unjust hypocrite, the votary of lust to pretend to live in spirit of the Lenten time, if they do at once call a halt, and curb their passions.

Let every Christian soul recognize colemn duty of the hour. This season Lent demands some sacrifice from Something special must now be done Christ's sake. If you cannot fast, alme, hear Mass every morning, visit Church every evening, give up drink other unnecessary indulgences of appetite. The Cross has to be taker in some shape or other if we mean follow Christ. The heights of Calv are before us, and to reach heaven cl them we must. Without a part in t
