NEW ENGLAND FANCIER FOR DECEMBER.

Will contain an illustrated article on the Leghorn, by J. Henry Lee, the artist. The Standard points of each variety will be discussed in full, the cuts showing imperfections in prominent points, with an instructive talk on these defects. To the Leghorn breeder it will be a most valuable paper, teaching the theory and science of breeding and at the same time how to judge them. The Fancier for December will also contain several contributions on the Breeding Pen Question, A New Vermin Destroyer, Winter Diet for Poultry, Portrait and Sketch of Honest Dan Lambert, with variety of articles on all the interesting topics of the day connected with poultry breeding. The Kennel pages will be more interesting than usual. Every fancier should read the New England Fancier for December. 50 cents a year. Single copies 5 cents. Address at once,
