

Santa's Christmas List

President Downey - a cheque for 10 million dollars

Aquinian - four layout tables

Tim Lethbridge - a new SRC president

Andy Young - a spine

Christie Walker - John Bosnitch repellent

Oliver Koncz - polish for his Peter Pan Spider Stompers
CSL - a good band

T. Allen Roulston - a white flag, brownie points and a committee of his own

Killer Kowalski - a new crayon

Bob MacMillan - his own office

Randy Brodeur - a haircut

Steve MacAlinden - a friend

Harry Forestell - J.B.'s Rules of Order

Judy McKay - an even more decent boss

Jock Mombourquette - a strap

Gerard Finnan - Bosnitch's head on a silver platter

Ken Cuthbertson - someone to pass the buck to

The SRC - an interview with Mr. Rogers ("Can you say fascism? Shur. I knew you could.")

Sharkey - independence

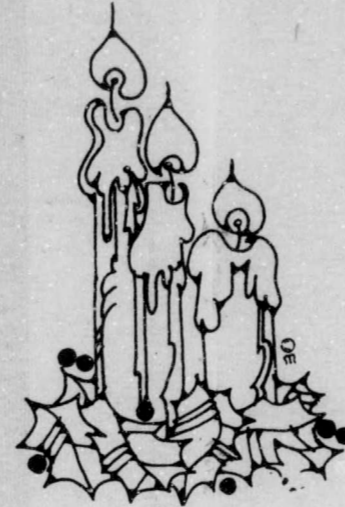

Barry Thompson - a controversy

The Brunswickan - a "rape" whistle

The cast of Red'n Black - a Broadway debut

Jeff Fryer - voice lessons

McLeod House - pay toilets

All the presidential candidates - a second chance

Ann Kennerly - an 18 dollar rum cake

Chris Chapman - a Charles Atlas conversion kit

Dave Mogilevsky - a secretary

The Winter Carnival Committee - a watch

Mary Abraham - a gold medal for her tolerance

Nick the Greek - smoked baby clams

Alys Giannakakis - a pronounceable last name

Rick Wightman - new bears

Deborah Geneau - a new four letter word

Mike MacKinnon - skis and directions to his nose

Susan Reed - her position as Editor-in-Chief back

Student Party - a zebra

Darren Evans - a speech therapist

Tomo - a thesis

Darrel Bradbury and Richard Riley - a football team

Randy MacDonald - a mind of his own

CHSR Czars - women

Beaver Foods - Airline sickness bags and a good reputation

John Bosnitch - "He knows if you've been bad or good..."

Tom Kovacs - manners

Joel Leger - a cassette deck that records

Felix Kofie - new knitting needles.

Bud - two unreleased recordings of Kenny Rogers

Monte Peters - a flying circus and Granny cookware

