Letter page 79. Golden Breeze 13th day, down as far as stop there, —

~~The report has been~~ ^{considered} The Ribbon Supply Company knew only too well that any sudden influx of Japanese in large numbers was the beginning of the end with them, and they ~~would~~ put forth what efforts they could to save their own undoing.

More effective, perhaps, in ^{their} influence in preventing the numbers of emigrants from Hawaii were the repeated cables ^{sent by} to her Majesty, the ^{Japanese} Consul at Vancouver to the Japanese Consul at Hawaii, and the exertions of the latter ~~in~~ to in the same number of the Hawaiian Star to as that ~~in~~ in which her ^{note} ~~note~~ despatch appeared, was the following article containing a cable sent by her Majesty to the Consul at Honolulu.
It is headed "Pitiable Condition of the Emigrants on Kauai" and reads "Concerning the condition of the emigrants who left etc. p 43, Eleventh day last ~~the~~ note goes on with what is on p 44, omitting the Q that comes in between" — down to "from there")
