

the 31st March last to $411⁰⁰ together with the expenses incurred since that date in looking after the timber.

I have also to inform you that the decree which was sent to Messrs Bell & Beggan, Barristers, Belleville, for execution by Messrs Leitch & Hanson on the 14th March last has not yet been returned to the Department.

The ground rent and renewal fees have been paid to 30th April 1886.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant
