MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRIME MINISTER

C212480

Mr. Jan Masaryk, Czechoslovak Minister for Foreign Affairs, who is arriving on Friday afternoon, is staying at Government House. Podoski is planning to give a small luncheon for him on Friday. I have advised the Czechoslovak Consul General that you will be glad to see Mr. Masaryk some time on Friday, if you are able to be in Ottawa on that day. I have been wondering, however, whether you would not wish to have a small men's dinner arranged for Mr. Masaryk for Friday evening. If in the event the Ministers are unavailable, perhaps Measures and I could arrange something for him.
