

from page (one)

Gentlemen, when the Accused left headily detention he must have had the views of changing his attitude and his mind ~~from~~ <sup>to become a better soldier</sup> ~~of~~ otherwise he would not have applied for an NCO's course.

~~and~~ <sup>but</sup> when applying for the course ~~and~~ nothing was heard, he applied again but to his Platoon Captain. who in turn recommended him to the O.C.
Colnel Corbett. but instead of being sent on an NCO's school, he was sent on an NCO's refresher school.

An Officer in Colnel Corbett's Platoon, might have known, or should have known - that this was a stiff proposition, and might prove so for a man who never before had been an N.C.O. ~~but~~ still but always a gunner. and who might prove to possess no great abilities