

Picking and finishing.

SHAPING.

After fowls have been plucked, the picker should wash the blood from the head and the dirt from the feet and shanks with a damp rag; then place them on the shaping-board as shown in the illustration. The shaper is made by nailing two 3- by 6-inch plained boards together at right angles. The trough should be nailed

A three-tier shaping-board.