ALONG SHADY PATHS

Along the shady paths of these city parks, mothers wheel their babies at that season of the year when cool and shade means much to both mothers and children. Here the older children play their games, and all the space available for such things is taken up in the long summer evenings by young men and young women playing at tennis, a game deservedly popular among the young people of Winnipeg. Here, too, gather the old and the weary of the city's people to sit and be glad for a place so pleasant and surroundings so beautiful in which to pass their leisure time or hours of needed rest. A city superintendent of parks and a corps of skilled workmen are employed in keeping things in trim about the parks, and everything looks neat and presentable at all times. Not the least beautiful of things about the parks of Winnipeg are the long, smooth roadways that have been made in some of the parks. Along these roads automobiles slip smoothly, and some of the finest private equipages in the world are driven.
