Chatham Curlers Preparing for Very a Busy Winter Season.

Are now in Search of a New Rink-Officers Elected Last Night.

The Maple City Curling Club have reorganized for the coming season and they have every expectation of as victorious a season as character-ized their work last season. The folized their work last season. The fol-lowing members were present: W. D. Sheldon, Geo. Taylor, Wm. Gordon, W. E. Merritt, A. C. Woodward, J. M. Pike, J. G. Kerr, John Waddell, J. C. Pritchard and A. L. Shambleau. The officers elected for the coming season are all men of energy, which evidences the business principles on which the club is run. The necessity for having good officials is great, since the club have no home and the first question that they will have to deal with is the securing of a rink. Several sites were discussed last even-ing and all are good ones. The pro-perty next to the Montana House was considered, as was the lot next to the Salvation Army barracks, and to the Salvation Army barracks, and-the vacanit lot on the corner of Queen and Richmond streets.

Financial Secretary Merritt re-ported that $100 had eben paid on the note in the bank and all the club now owed was $65. This would cover all debts and pay the dues of the Ontario Curling Association. The club had paid $600 for the improve-ments to the drill shed and the Govrnment had not re-imbursed the Curling Club.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Patrons-George Stephens, M. P.

nd T. L. Pardo, M. P. P President - W. D. Sheldon. Vice-President - Wm. Gordon. Secretary-Trasurer-J. M. Pike. Executive commettee-W. E. Mer ritt, John Waddell, A. L. Shambleau G. G. Taylor and John McCoig.

The Executive committee, with Robert Gray, G. P. Scholfield, Dr. Bray and Will Hadley, were appointed a special committee to investigate the matter of securing a rink.

JACK'S BIG EARS

They are the Real Thing and Competing Farmers are Taking Second Place.

Ex-Ald, Liddy has yet to find anyoods who can win his money by raising bigger corn than the ex-city legislator, A farmer living eight miles out in the country had a ten acre field of corn. He read in The Planet about ex-Ald. Liddy's $5 offer, and selecting the two biggest ears in the field, he brought them to town.

Col. Sam Hoimes says that the farm er was ashamed to open up the parcel when he saw the size of Ald. Liddy's ears. Of course that is Jack's ears. (ears of corn is meant). Col. Holmes says that the farmer's ears were pretty fair, but just infants alongside of ex-Ald. Jack's. Ex- Alderman Liddy, it may be said, only brought down some or the small ears. The big ones were too heavy for the ex-

Mr. Peterkin, of Mitchell's Bay, brought in half a dozen ears of corn which he thought would deal honest John a knock-out blow. They were yery good, but didn't touch the mark. It is now the general belief that there is nothing left to do but to get Mr. Milner to bring over his donkeys! It is felt that they alone can furnish ears of sufficient size to do ex-Ald.
