

March, was the means of greatly assisting the rooms at a very needful time. Through the interest of friends, orders were received for making Rosettes for the Volunteer Force. These, with a number of other Rosettes, made up for sale, all of which sold, were a source of revenue quite unlooked for, amounting to $236. This sum enabled the Committee to meet the most pressing demands on their Treasurer, and the final Bazaar, held in the Mechanics' Hall on the 7th, 8th, and 9th of April, was very successful. It may be interesting to insert here the result, as received at the different Tables.

Receipts from the Bazaar:—

Stock Table,	$272 82
Fancy Table,.....	206 58
Refreshment Table,.....	120 30
Childrens' do.	42 70
Commission Table,	22 00
Tickets of Admission,.....	144 66
	<hr/>
Total Receipts,.....	$809 06

Expenses, $100.14.

The above includes a portion of the stock made up in the Rooms, or by the workers. The proceeds of the Commission Table, are a percentage of one sixth, on articles sent by persons in reduced circumstances, or made by ladies for Missionary and other charitable purposes. Such articles are constantly received, to be disposed of, at the Rooms, and form an important part of the charity, affording a resource to many, suffering privations, who once enjoyed the luxuries of life.

On the evening of the 9th April, after the Bazaar, a Tea Party was given to the women, who had worked at the Rooms, the privilege being allowed them of bringing their husbands and children; and tickets were also distributed by the Ladies. Tea and Refreshments were served, and by the kindness of a friend in procuring music and a 'Magic Lantern, the evening passed very pleasantly. Several gentlemen addressed the Company.

It is to be remarked that the difficulty of disposing of articles