The annual Sunday School drive, tea and entertainment, was held on 18th January. About 20 sleighs were in the procession. Some 300 young people and over 50 teachers and workers took tea, and when off the beautifully adorned and lighted trees every scholar got a bag of candies, and many of the younger ones an orange, joy seemed at its height. Some of the older scholars sang the Sunflower song, and a few words of advice and encouragement were spoken by the clergy, while Mr. Flood, who last year was superintendent, was given a hearty welcome, and in a few appropriate words wished the schoolevery success, contrasting the privileges they now enjoyed with the time before the present schoolhouse was built. Thanks were returned to the Giver of all good, to the superintendent and teachers for all their care and trouble, and to those friends who so kindly sent sleighs and provisions. God save he Queen and the doxology closed a very happy day.
