OBITUARY

MRS. NORA GLEESON

After an illness of two weeks following an attack of pneumonia, Nora Glavin, widow of the late John Gleeson, passed away peace-fully at St. Joseph's Hospital, London, on Saturday, March 4th, aged eighty-five years.

Deceased was a daughter of John Glavin, one of the earliest pioneers of Biddulph Tp. After her marriage in 1865 she resided near Parkhill where her husband died eighteen years ago. Mrs. Gleeson was well in the locality where she spent the early part of her life and was known for her cheerful and kindly disposition. She retired last year to Mount Hope, and her residence there, surrounded by the good Sisters of St. Joseph, has been a continued preparation for a happy death. Upon being taken ill she was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital where the last rites of the Church were administered by Rev. Father Valentin, hospital chaplain. She leaves to mourn her loss a sister, Mrs. P. J. Carey, Goderich, and two brothers, Patrick of Mt. Carmel, and Edward, who resides been a continued preparation for a happy death. Upon being taken ill she was removed to St. Joseph's Carmel, and Edward, who resides on the old homestead. Mother M. of St. Magdalen, of Toronto, is a niece and Frater Raphael Glavin, C. S. S. R., of Esopus, N. Y., a perhew.

The funeral was held on Tuesday, March 7th, from the home of her niece, Mrs. Burke. The Requiem Mass was celebrated by Father Tierney at St. Michael's Church after which interment took place in St. Peter's Cemetery, Riddulph May her soul rest in place in St. Peters Centers, Biddulph. MRS. MARIA SHEA

There passed away suddenly on Monday last (March 6th,) at 2.30 p. m.; at Sudbury, Mrs. Maria Shea, relict of the late Michael Shea of Pembroke. The deceased lady had apparently been in good health up to the time of her death. She was called in fact with most startling suddeness, while walking from her home to visit with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Michael J. Shea. Heart failure was pronounced the cause of her death.

resident of Pembroke where her husband, once a prominent merchant of that town, died nearly sixteen years ago. She had five children all of whom are left to mourn the sad loss which they have sustained in the passing away of a so kind and loving mother. They are: — Mrs. J. D. O'Brien of Toronto; Miss Flossie, Sudbury; Annie (sister Mary Eleanor of the Community of St. Joseph) Port Arthur; Michael J., a prominent business man of Sudbury and John of South Porcupine.

The deceased had a large circle of the standard, the stealing of another man's wife any more than the war can justify the stealing of another man's wife any more than the standard, the stealing of another man's wife any more than samily heirlooms?

Mr. Galsworthy condemns the whole of religion as superstition with the exception of its "beautiful expression of exalted feeling," which is its "uplifting" part. He talks of salvation as "being commercialized;" says that "the only way in which each one can say "Retro Satana" is to leave his or her tiny corner of the world a little more dignified, a little more love.

Also taking advantage of the priceless privilege afforded to her and all fellow-Catholics, she was a regular attendant at Mass throughout the week. If proof were needed of her own true Christian conception of the August Sacrifice, surely it could be found in her oft-repeated words: "It's only the Mass that matters." Charitable she was, throughout her life, with a pleasant word for everyone and a kindly smile for all. She was particularly devoted to those nearest and dearest, and ever a loving and affectionate mother in the care and careful upbringing of her children. The above is the title of a remarkable and startling Drama of three acts.

It has enjoyed three years of unparalleled success in U. S. and is now known in over five hundred institutions. Synopsis:

Place: Every Institution of Learning in Canada. Time: Most Opportune. Scenes: Missionary toils at Home

Dramatis Personae: Every student who is imbued with determined

Catholic Principles.
Act 1.—A Conference of ten Institutions on December 3, 1921, from which arose The Canadian Catholic Students' Mission Crusade whose object is to aid the heroic Missionaries to plant our Faith at Home and abroad by taking an active interest in their unselfish toiling for souls. To become educated to their needs and assist them by Prayer and resources.

Act 2.-A struggling executive now representing twelve Units striving to interest the students of every Institution from the rocky shores of Labrador to the tumpled down hills of British Columbia. Have you a Mission Unit in your school? Is your College or School going to be represented at the big Convention this summer?

Act 8.—The climax when every Institution in this Dominion will have a zealous and enthusiastic Mission Unit—when the heart of the poor Missionary will be happy—when Catholicism, the Faith of Our Fathers will forever hold the day. Will your school be numbered among the pioneers in this work or when the flag of victory is raised will your colors be among the vocation of every Catholic Student. To limit our attention and not to behold the vast harvest fields of all the earth, ripe for the reaping, is to be wanting in the true sense of Catholicity."

THE LIMITATIONS OF JOHN GALSWORTHY

May Bateman, in the March Catholic World It is said that every man and woman has his blind-spot. Honesty There passed away suddenly on Monday last (March 6th.) at 2.30 p. m.; at Sudbury, Mrs. Maria Shea, relict of the late Michael Shea of Pembroke. The deceased lady had apparently been in good health up to the time of her death. She was called in fact with most startling suddeness, while walking from her home to visit with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Michael J. Shea. Heart failure was pronounced the cause of her death.

Mrs. Shea was in her sixty-fifth year and resided in Sudbury since last fall, with her daughter, Miss Flossie Shea. She was a life-long resident of Pembroke where her husband, once a prominent merchant of that town, died nearly sixtem years ago. Mr. Galsworthy, for all his deepening love of beauty, still lacks power

Not yet has John Galsworthy found that high and austere beauty at whose fount he could quaff full satisfaction. But the sincerity of his art, at its best in such dramas as The Silver Box, Strife and The Mob, may yet point to its way.

GENEROUS BEQUESTS TO CATHOLIC OBJECTS

Each figure represents a letter. The number in each square indicates the position of that letter in the alphabet. For instance "A" would be represented by the figure 1, because it is the first letter of the alphabet. "B' would be indicated by the figure 2, because it is the second letter of the alphabet. "B' would be indicated by the figure 2, because it is the second letter of the alphabet. "B' would be indicated by the figure 3, and so on. Look at the figure 20 in the first square. It represents "T' because "T' is the twentieth letter of the alphabet by the figure and the first square. It represents mind the proper rotation, so as to spell out the three words called for.
