Qualities which are indispensable in a medicine designed for popular use are, certainity of salutary effect, and absence of danger from accidental overdoses.

These qualities are noteworthy in the Pulmonic Syrup.

Though this medicine has been before the public for many years, and though thousands in every section of the country place their dependence upon it in all disorders of the Throat and lungs, the first instance has yet to be recorded where it has failed to cure or afford relief. Purely vegetable in its composition, it is ad the Colonisil Life Assurance Company, the busi-ness of the Unit d Companies will henceforth be conducted under the title of the larger doses it cures those complaints for which it is designed, no matter how robust the consti-STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMY. tution of the patient.
