ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may however be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

A Physician's Testimony for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF LARGE U. S. HOSPITAL.

A very interesting presentation took place lately at Ardagh House, County Longford, to the Rev. H. J. and Mrs. Johnson, as a mark of affectionate esteem on the part of the parishioners of Ardagh, among whom they have lived and laboured for the last twenty years. The presentation, which consisted of a handsome table and silver tray and beautiful silver tea service, was made, on behalf of the parishioners, by the Rev. Sir George Fetherston, Bart., who expressed the sincere regret of himself and people at losing Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, as they leave so shortly to take up duties in the United Parishes of Clonbroney and Killoe.

The old custom of ringing the Angelus is still observed at the church, and to this fact the early discovery of the fire is, it appears, due. The caretaker was proceeding to the belfry to ring the midday Angelus, when he was startled to find dense volumes of

A great memorial service was held in the City of Washington, D.C., on the Feast of the Annunciation in the memory of the late Bishop Satterlee, who, twelve years ago, on that date had been consecrated to the episcopal office. Bishop Mackay-Smith preached. Those interested are endeavouring to raise funds in order to build as a permanent memorial the Bethlehem Chapel of the Nativity in connection with the cathedral foundation.
