

is clean. Let it lie a little time longer; then press it between the hands, squeezing out all the soap, and rinse it in plenty of clean, lukewarm water, pressing it as before to extract all the water. Fold it flatly between thick cloths and pass it through a wringing machine. Then iron it immediately. Never wring chiffon with the hands.

EVER FACE A STORM?

DYSTHE'S FACE PROTECTOR

Your Protector is the Best Defence that I Know
 Pilot Mound, Man., Feb. 18, 1910.
 Dear Sir,—Many thanks for the two Face Protectors for which I enclose $2.00 postal order. I may say that for protecting the eyes and face from particles of dust and snow, as well as from extreme cold, your Face Protector is the best defence that I know of. It does not gall the eyes or nose in any way, nor does it freeze on to the mustache. It has the advantage of being easily disposed of either in the pocket or in the fur cap. The goggle part does not break in one's pocket. As a proof of my belief in the usefulness of your invention, I have given one to the man who drives me and bought two for myself. You are at liberty to use this letter in any reasonable way, and I commended the Face Protector to all who have to drive much in the country.—Yours truly,
 DR. H. M. SPRECHLY

THE OPEN DOOR
 (By Julia Ward Howe)
 The Master said, "I am the Door.
 The world is dark with doubt and sin,
 Hidden the good that men implore,
 But after me ye enter in."

"The ancient barriers I disown,
 The distant and the dark control,
 Who with your onward steps have thrown
 God's sunshine open to the soul."

Another mystic door I know,
 The entrance to this world of ours,
 And she who opens it bears low

8606.—Ladies Dressing Sacque.
 A Practical and Desirable Model.
 A few comfortable dressing sacques are absolutely necessary to a woman's comfort. An exceedingly effective development was made from the design here shown, in blue French flannel with white stitching for a finish. The model is equally appropriate for lawn, dimity, gannette or silk. The pattern is cut in 8 sizes: 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 inches bust measure. It requires 2 1/2 yards of 27 inch material for the 36 inch size.

8842.—A Neat School Frock for Mother's Girl.
 Girl's Dress with Side Closing.
 The practical feature of this model is the convenient comfortable closing at the side, which will enable the little Miss to help herself in her dressing and avoid the catching of beads and curls in buttonholes "down the back." The design has deep tucks over the shoulders and a straight plaited skirt. The sleeve is of the bishop style with straight hand cuff. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 8, 10, 12 years. It requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material for the 10 year size.

A wondrous weight of pains and powers.
 O men that plan the stately pile
 Where law and learning hold their sway,
 And drive with subterfuge and wile
 Your mothers from the door away—
 Undo the doors! In God's high noon
 An equal heritage have we;
 Your exclusion's out of tune
 With Nature's hospitality.
 See where the word of freedom lives
 To bridge the gulf of ages o'er;
 Learn how the Eternal Giver gives,
 And keep with Christ the open door!

[One of the last poems written by the late Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who died October 17 last at the ripe old age of 92 years, only three days younger than the late Victoria the Good].

That Is The Question
 Tommy heard Mrs. Jones tell his mother that she used sour cream to make the gingerbread they were eating. He was duly impressed with this piece of information and turning to Mrs. Jones, he solemnly said, "Mrs. Jones this is fine gingerbread you've made. I can't taste the sour cream a bit. Did you use bad eggs, too?"

Very Useful
 A teacher in a lower grade was instructing her pupils in the use of the hyphen. Among the examples given by the children was the word "bird-cage."
 "That's right," encouragingly remarked the teacher. "Now, Paul, tell me why we put a hyphen in 'bird-cage.'"
 "It's for the bird to sit on," was the startling rejoinder of the youngster.

TODAY
 (By John Kendrick Bangs).
 Think not on Yesterday nor trouble borrow
 On what may be in store for you Tomorrow,
 But let Today be your incessant care—
 The past is past, Tomorrow's in the air.
 Who gives today the best that in him lies
 Will find the road that leads to clearer skies.

8823.—An Excellent Model for the Small Boy's Suit.
 Boy's Russian Suit with Knickerbockers.
 For serge, flannel, chevise, velvet or corduroy this design is especially adapted. The fronts may be closed in the neck edge in double breasted style, or finished with a reverse. The neck edge may have a straight band or a turn over collar. The trousers are the regulation knickerbockers. The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 4, 6, 8 years. It requires 2 1/2 yards of 44 inch material for the 4 year size.

HOW TO SECURE THE GUIDE PATTERNS

To secure any of the patterns published in The Guide, all that is necessary is to send 10 cents to the Pattern Department, Grain Growers' Guide, Winnipeg, and state the number of the pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, waist measure for skirt patterns, and the age when ordering patterns for Misses or children. It will require from ten days to two weeks to secure these patterns as they are supplied direct from the makers. No new worker need be nervous or afraid to use The Guide patterns. They are accurate and perfectly and plainly marked. Full directions for making are given with every pattern you buy; also the picture of the finished garment to use as a guide.
