Hartford, September I, 1850.

Emburgar Muttal Life Insurance has deservedly become the popular mode of Insurance in the United States, and is embraced by all those who appreciate and desire security, stability, and perpetuity. Predicated upon a system of mutual security and mutual benefit, the Members derive all the advantages and security of an Insurance, all the simple cost, contributing nothing as profits to the Proprietors of a Capital Stock.

The Connecticut Life Insurance Company was organized in December, 1846, and has now become the largest in the world. The large number contributing to the Punds of the Institution, affords abundant security to the Insured, and ample protection to the Company from all enharransements and dangers arising from fluctualisms in the average rate of murtality se hazardous to Institutions of Insurance is returned to the Members in credit of annual dividends. Each person insured levenines a Stockholder, has a vote and direct voice as entitled to the surplus or profits, without being personally table beyond the annual premium for the continuance of his policy.

"It is, undoubtedly, the most complete Dictionary of the English language that has ever been published, and acts with Exares before any other Dictionary of that language with be required, it is, in every respect, fur-superior to the folio editions of Johnson's Dictionary. The Integrate to the folio citions of Johnson's Dictionary. The Introductory matter—on the origin and progress of language—kipy ology—the changes of the English language, and other topics—conteins an immense mass of useful information, which must have cost the susher a very great degree of labor and research. The promulcisition of Scriptural, Classical, and Geographical mannes, forms to most valuable appendix to the Dictionary, and cannot be too highly appreciated. Themselved the Christian Philosopher, Re.]

Broughty Berry, non-Dundes, Sept. 13, 1869.

"In regard to promunication, we feel perfectly satisfeed that his revision pinces that this process that unkept on a truer ground than any other work of the kind. The system of pronuncing conforms to a pure and implicy taste, adapted to the character of the language, sud is the removed from all affects that mad more fashiou.

"A tissow as we fully believe, in this revision, brought down to the true circumstances of the community in all respects. And we hope it will find its way rapidly, not only to the schools and the taudy, but to the parior, the counting-room, and to the every day parposes of life,"—Eas. Fin. B. Californ, perfectly the conduction of Webster, in and elearness, us the Quarte Edition of Webster, in N. Y. Observer.

"We reciture to say that there is no Dictionary in the English language which combines so many advantage, with such economy of price, beauty of execution. Competed to the community of the scenarios of the production of Webster, in N. Y. Observer.

TURKISH BLACK SALVE. UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF THE HONORABLE
THE EAST INDIA COMPANY.

THIS SALVE, prepared from the original Re-ccipt, procured from a celebrated Turkish Hakim, (physician) of Smyrna, in Asia Minor, and which has obtained an unprecedented celebrity in Great Britain and the East Indies, from the astonishing Cures performed by it in both these countries, has lately been introduced into Montreal. As might be expected, its popularity has followed it, and its use is becoming general among all classes. The contracted limits of an advertisment necessarily precludes entering into any adequate detail of its merits, but, for the information of the public, it is intended to publish, from time to time, such statements of cures as have or may occur. It has been used for the following complaints with the most complete success :s Swollen Glands. Broken Breasts, White Swellings, Whitlows, Scalds from Steamboat explosions, or other causes, Burns, Fever Sores, Scrofulous Sores, Sore Nipples, Carbuncles, Scald Head, Gun-shot Wounds, Bruises, Boils, Frostbites, Wens, Chilblains, Ulcerated and Common Sore Throats, and Bonions. If used in time, it will prevent or cure Cancers, also, Swellings arising from a blow on the Breast, Ring Worm, Pains in the Back, Rheunatism, Gout, Pains in the Chest, Palpitation of the Heart, Complain the Liver, Spine, Heart and Hip, Rushing of Blood to the Head, Swelled Face and Toothache. In fact, it is impossible to enumerate half the complaints that have been cured by the application of this Salve.
