THE SYMPTOMS OF

Show in Pale Faces, Tired Feel ing and Breathlessness.

People who are pale, languid, with palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath at slight exertion are suffer ing from thin, impure blood. If they have the resolution to take the right remedy and stick to it, they will find new health and strength. The remedy that can always be relied upon is Dr Williams' Pink Pills. With every dose they improve and invigorate the blood, and this new blood means health and strength. Mrs. A. Griffiths, Pierson. Man., is one of the many thousands who have proved the value of these pills. She says:—"I was so badly run down in health that I was almost bedfast. The least exertion would leave me breathless. I suffered from headaches and backaches and had no appetite. I could only drag about the house and found even light housework almost impossible. I tried several remedies but they did not do me a particle of good. Then a friend came for a visit and she urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I had finished the second box I could feel that they were helping me. By the time I had taken four boxes more I was a well woman and every symp my trouble had disappeared It would not be possible for me to say too much in favor of this medicine and I always recommend it to rundown people, and have seen it prove just as satisfactory in other cases."

If you are weak and run down you begin getting new strength day by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Sold by all druggists or sent by mai at 50 cents a box by writing to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Holidays by Chance.

Of unusual holidays few can have occasioned more interest than that of a retired American brewer now visiting London on his way to Greenland. At his home in Milwaukee he has a globe of the earth's surface. When his annual holiday is due he takes a hatpin and, giving the globe a spin, sticks the pin into it. Where the pin sticks, there the brewer goes!

Last year the pin indicated the Vale of Cashmere, in India, whither the brewer made his way. The previous year he found himself obliged to visit Germany, while the year before that a town not fifty miles from his home was the holiday resort thus chosen.

He has visited in this way places as far apart as Christiania and Melbourne, Montreal and Cornwall, and Stockholm and Cairo. When the pin sticks into the ocean the originator of this decidedly novel plan allows himself a second try.

ENGLAND TO MAKE INPOYERISHED BLOOD IRAK SELF-GOVERNED

GOT THANKLESS TASK THROUGH LEAGUE MANDATE.

Treaty Granting Independence is Signed, but British Must Shape People Into a Nation.

By a narrow margin Irak signed the Anglo-Irak Treaty—the only possible instrument assuring her eventual independence-and the British will continue in the rather thankless task of shaping an irresponsible and inexperienced people into a nation, says a Bagdad despatch. Great Britain having accepted the nandate of Irak, under the League of Nations directly after the war, obligated herself, accepted a trust, and she intends, if possible, to bear with this trust to the end. Since 1917 Great Britain has done more Irak than any other nation could possibly have done, but even so has succeeded only in setting up a more or less fallible monarchy, presided over by an Arab figurehead, and liable at any time to be thrown, without foreign guidance, into internal anarchy.

Great Britain has long since realized that as an investment Irak is thor oughly bad, and that the pounds (6,-000,000) which she annually pours in to this investment, could be much better put to use elsewhere. She has done all in her power to mould this disjointed section into a nation, but one cannot make a durable crock of sand and water, and it is plain that She dropped some tears in passing. the Iraki, at least at this stage of their development, are little better than sand and water. And since in addition to this there has been an appreciable amount of irritation caused by the pettiness of some Irak officials, the British are quite prepared to leave the country. But they do not wish to leave it in its present vulnerable and unstable condition; it would be a very severe reflection on their ability and wisdom. It thus became very evident departure of some sort was

But some Iraki contend that the treaty is severe; that it wrests from them certain inviolate rights, imposes upon them restrictions which will impair growth and retard them in their struggle for independence; lays upor them rigid financial demands and ob-That pin-fall was perhaps the most ligations—in short, is an instrument significant and widely heard of any which will preclude realization of their in history. Progress in Mining in Yukon Territory.

e report of the Mining Recorder f the Yukon Territory for the calendar year 1923 contains some interesting in-formation regarding progress there.

The statistics in regard to claims re as follows: Placer Mining, grants '5; renewals,

; relocations, 5. Quartz Mining, grants, 121; renewals, 1,052; claims in good standing, 1,312. In connection with the claims in good standing it is interesting to note that as a full quartz claim is over 50 acres in extent these claims represent an area of approximately 65,000 acres, or over 100 square miles. The total amount of ore shipped rom Mayo Landing in the summer of 1923 was 8,7621/2 tons. Since no ore is pagged that assays less than 200 unces in silver to the ton, this output represents a large revenue.

Of numerous new veins uncovered ast year the most promising are those of the Lake Group where interested parties combined in diverting a large flow of water with the result that the overburden was washed in several places to a depth of thirty feet, posing veins of silver ore from which assays have been obtained sufficient to warrant the owners arranging for the eccessary equipment and supplies to carry on additional exploratory work.
The Keno Hill Mining Company

eased operations on Keno Hill and transferred its equipment to the Friendship Group adjoining the Treadwell Yukon Company property on the south. This company has built a permanent camp and carried out a considerable amount of exploratory work to date. It employs an average of thirty-three men.

The Treadwell Company employs an average of eighty-one men for its work inclusive of the work of the wood camp. It carried on extensively during the past year and erected a large office and warehouse and has several ten-ton caterpillars hauling ore to the landing.

In addition to the number of men employed by the different companies in both quartz and placer mines, there were about 150 prospecting and work ing their own ground. There have een no serious accidents, no labor troubles and very little sickness. A new placer strike was made at the mouth of Gull creek, as a result which over twenty claims were staked.

SUMMER HEAT HARD ON BABY

No season of the year is so danger ous to the life of little ones as is the summer. The excessive heat throws the little stomach out of order so quickly that unless prompt aid is at hand the baby may be beyond all human help before the mother realizes he is ill. "One day as I was going downtown barefoot I saw coming towards me two girls whom I knew by sight; they were well dressed and jolly. I thought of skipping down a side street, but I was in the middle of a long block and had to face them. Suddenly I noticed a cow in one of the side yards. Minard's Liniment Relieves Pain. Did He Attend the Party? No, He Went to Bed!

Here is a laughable story of an absent-minded man-no, not a college professor this time, but a young feldow in his early twenties. He had been invited to attend a leap-year party and-courageous vonth!-had accepted. The young lady who was to be his escort called for him at the appointed hour and was informed that he was dressing. (Men are always late, aren't they?) She waited for some time, but the young man did not appear.

At last his mother went up to his room to hurry him, and gracious! she found him in bed! While he was removing his everyday clothes his mind had wandered to some other matter and habit had done the rest.

Our contributor who sends us the story adds that, if the young lady who called had been "his own particular young lady," he might not have forgotten all about her. Perhaps not. As it was, perhaps, he was more cautious was a leap-year party!
