PRESIDENT DOES WELL

Latest Operation Caused Renewed Alarm Regarding Executive's Condition.

Physicians, However, Gave Assurance That he is Improving and That Danger is no Greater.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The following bulletin was issued by the President's physicians at 10.30 p. m.:

"The condition of the President is unchanged in all important particulars. His temperature is 100.6, pulse 114, respiration 28.

"When the operation was done on Friday last it was noted that the bullet had carried with it a short distance beneath the skin a fragment of the President's coat. This foreign material was, of course, removed, but a slight irritation of the tissues was produced, the evidence of which has appeared to-night. It has been necessary on account of this slight disturbance to remove a few stitches and partially open the skin wound. This incident cannot give rise to other complications, but it is communicated to the public, as the surgeons in attendance wish to make their bulletins entirely frank. In consequence of this separation of the edges of the surface wound the healing of the same will be somewhat delayed.

"The President is now well enough to take nourishment by the mouth in the form of pure beef juice."

It was 11.20 when the physicians emerged from the house. They had been in consultation an hour and 50 minutes and announced to the waiting newspaper men that the President's condition was unchanged in every important particular.

The length of the consultation had created some uneasiness and this was somewhat increased when it was learned that Dr. McBurney, who had intended to leave for Stockbridge, Conn., at 11.20, had missed his train and had decided to remain over until to-morrow night. But the doctor himself did all he could to dispel the idea that the change in his plans portended anything serious.

FINED HIMSELF

For Assaulting a Doctor who Jealously Repeated a Very Foolish Headline.

Bay City, Mich., Sept. 10.—In the police court yesterday, William A. Kelley, the police justice, imposed upon himself a fine of $5 for an assault and battery upon Dr. C. A. Stuart on Saturday. Stuart, who is a Canadian (formerly of St. Thomas), repeated some remark which he saw in the headline of a newspaper while going up an elevator, approving of the attempted assassination of President McKinley, and was knocked down by Kelley. Police Justice Kelley said that there were so many people ready to say that he committed the assault because of the position he holds that he decided to pay for the act, the same as if someone else had done the job.

GOOD WEEK'S WORK BY BRITISH IN SOUTH AFRICA

Bagged 681 Boers Together With Arms, Ammunition, Horses and Cattle—The Krause Treason Case has Been Adjudged.

London, Sept. 10.—The following despatch has been received from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, to-day:—
A GOOD WEEK'S WORK.

"Since September 2 the columns have again got good results, the total bag being 681, composed of 67 killed, 67 wounded, 384 made prisoners and 163 surrenders; also 179 rifles, 65,211 rounds of ammunition, 3,400 horses and 19,000 head of cattle."

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

Lord Kitchener further says that the situation in Cape Colony is unchanged, excepting the capture of Lotter's command, reported last week. IN THE WESTERN MAGALIESBERG DISTRICT.

Pretoria, Sept. 10.—Kekewich, Allenby and Featherstonhaugh have made further captures of Boers in the Western Magaliesberg district, mostly of men belonging to Kemp's command, who were hiding in kloofs. Kemp escaped northward. Within five days about 150 Boers have been captured in this district, and smaller captures have been made elsewhere. General Kitchener has ordered that tools and materials be supplied to the men in the burglar camps, to enable them to work at such trades as tanning, cabinet making, etc. The articles made by them will be sold for their benefit.

KRAUSE TREASON CASE.

London, Sept. 10.—Dr. Krause, former governor of Johannesburg, who was arrested last week and was arraigned in the Bow street police court and remanded on a charge of treason, was brought up again in the Bow street court to-day. Dr. Krause was informed that a warrant, charging him with incitement to murder, was issued in the Transvaal. Sir George Lewis, on behalf of the prisoner, said it seemed strange, since Dr. Krause had been in England fourteen months as a paroled prisoner of war, warrants should be issued in Transvaal because of acts committed in England, and he asked how could a gentleman not an English subject be charged with high treason. The case was adjourned to await the arrival of papers from the Transvaal.

"ANARCHIST QUEEN" APPREHENDED DENIES KNOWLEDGE OF PLOT

Emma Goldman Sneers at the President, Ridicules the Police, but Says She had Nothing to do With the Shooting.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Emma Goldman, the "anarchist queen," under whose banner Leon Czolgosz claims he stands, whose words he claims fired his heart and his brain to attempt the assassination of the President, was arrested here shortly before noon to-day.

Capt. Collier, chief of detectives, served a warrant on Miss Goldman, charging her with conspiracy to murder the President. The warrant was sworn to by Capt. Collier.

It gives as her co-conspirators Abraham Isaacs, Maurice Isaacs, Clemence Pfeutzer, Hippolyte Havel, Henry Travaglio, Alfred Schneider, Julia McShane, Marie Isaacs and Marie Isaacs Jr. All but Miss Goldman were arrested some days ago. The women were allowed to go, but the men were held without bail and are now in jail.

It is the opinion of several lawyers that Miss Goldman cannot be extradited for trial in New York unless she and Czolgosz are charged with an offense under the federal statutes. The suggestion that the would-be assassin must be tried under the state laws of New York for assault with intent to kill, would, it is said, preclude the possibility of Miss Goldman's being extradited as an accessory before the fact, as the alleged incendiary statements were not made in New York and she is not a fugitive from justice from that state.

Miss Goldman disclaimed all but the slightest acquaintance with the president's assassin; she denied absolutely that she was a conspirator, and was implicated in any plot to kill the President. She said she believed Czolgosz acted entirely on his own responsibility, and that he never claimed to have been inspired by her, as he is quoted as affirming.

The President, she averred with a yawn, was an insignificant being to her—a mere human atom, whose death would be matters of supreme indifference to her, or to any anarchist. Czolgosz's act was foolish, she declared, yet it probably had its inspiration in the misery which the Pole had seen about him. Violence, she said, was not a tenet in the faith of the anarchist, and she had not advocated it in Cleveland, where Czolgosz had said he heard her, nor elsewhere.

Miss Goldman arrived here Sunday morning from St. Louis. Her immunity from arrest while in the Missouri metropolis and up to to-day in Chicago afforded her much amusement. She told, in sentences punctuated with laughter, of her capture to-day.

SHOWED GREAT NERVE.

In her conversation with detectives, and she talked with them twice during the day, the excitement she was laboring under was suppressed and only once did she break down completely. That was when, Capt. Schuttler led her from the office of Chief of Police O'Neill to the cell which was waiting to convey her to the woman's annex to the Harrison street police station.

For a moment she became a woman, pure and simple, and cried, in a moment, however, she exhibited of distress was over, and when she put her foot on the step to mount into the carriage, she was Emma Goldman, the "high priestess of anarchy," as she has been styled by her followers. She said her purpose in coming here had been to assist the anarchists who were arrested here several days ago. She had intended to give herself up to the police, but delayed it, for one reason or another, until the police had decided so much had taken the matter into their own hands. She was held on a warrant sworn out by Capt. Collier, charging her with conspiracy to murder the President. As her co-conspirators were named the anarchists already in jail here. She will be taken before a magistrate to-morrow. It is expected the city will ask for a continuance of the case pending advice from Buffalo.

WANTS IMMEDIATE HEARING.

"I shall insist upon an immediate hearing," she said, in speaking of the probability of a postponement being asked for by the city prosecutor. "They want me to go to New York without requisition papers, but I will not go. I know the legal ropes, and I'll make them fight every step. And I'm not afraid to go at that."

Later in the day, Miss Goldman was interviewed in the woman's annex at the police station and a stenographic report taken. Miss Goldman said: "I feel sure that the police are helping us more than I could do in ten years. They are making more anarchists than the most prominent people connected with the anarchist cause could make in ten years. If they will only continue I shall be very grateful; they will save me lots of work."

"What do you think of your own arrest?" she was asked after referring to the arrests from Carroll street.

SNEERED AT PRESIDENT

"I was somewhat disconcerted and I certainly would not be guilty of that. Not only my arrest, but the others, smack of the Haymarket. The police are very much in disrepute all over the country, and they wish to do something to clear themselves. They are trying to make it an anarchist plot; if they wish to make up a case, they may succeed."

Referring to the attempt on the life of the President, Miss Goldman said: "It is a dirty trick to charge in the government reports that it was the result of anarchist plot. Mark Hanna has been the ruler of this country not McKinley. McKinley has been the most insignificant ruler that this country has ever had. He has no wit, no intelligence, but has been a tool in the hands of Mark Hanna. Other Presidents have had a heart, or something, but this poor fellow—God forgive him, since he knows nothing—is a tool in the hands of the wealthy, and it seems very remarkable for Mark Hanna to say that he was notified of plot for his assassination. I think McKinley too insignificant for such a thing."

"What man in the United States in your opinion, is of sufficient prominence to warrant such a plot?" she was asked.

"I am not in a position to say," replied Miss Goldman, "who ought to be killed. The monopolists and the wealthy of this country are responsible for the existence of a Czolgosz. If imperialism would not grow in this country, if the liberties of the people were not trampled under foot, there would have been no violence."

CZOLGOSZ AN UNFORTUNATE.

Referring to the would-be assassin, Miss Goldman said:

"I feel that the man is one of those unfortunate who has been driven to despair and misery to commit the deed. I feel very deeply with him as an individual, as I would feel with anybody who suffers. If I had the means I would help him as much as I could; I would see that he had counsel and that justice was done him."

Although the whole world waited eagerly on Friday for the bulletins from the President's bedside, Miss Goldman did not care enough about the report that he had been shot when she heard the newsgirls crying the extras to buy a paper. It was Saturday noon before her interest was sufficiently aroused to cause her to buy a newspaper containing the story. She was more interested in the arrest of the Chicago anarchists.

UGLY RUNAWAY

Two Ladies Thrown From a Rig on King St. This Morning—Injuries Were Not Serious.

What might have proven to be a very serious runaway occurred on King street this morning about 10 o'clock.

A horse and buggy belonging to Mr. Foster, of Thamesville, were standing in front of Murray's second hand store when the horse became unruly. Mrs. Burhorst and Miss Hogan, a nurse of St. Joseph's hospital, were sitting in the rig at the time.

Mrs. Berhorst, who was holding the reins, did all in her power to quiet the animal, but it backed into another buggy, which was also standing at the side of the road. At this Mrs. Berhorst's horse became frightened, and dashed down the street. The buggy was tipped over to one side, and both the ladies were thrown violently to the pavement. The horse pursued its mad flight down the street, and was finally stopped at the C. P. R. crossing at Adelaide street.

It was found afterwards that both ladies escaped serious injury. Both, however, were badly shaken up and unnerved. The buggy was smashed and the horse was severely cut around the hind legs. The buggy was considerably damaged, the rear axle being badly bent.

Mrs. Berhorst and Miss Hogan were fortunate in getting off as easily as they did. Both ladies, however, displayed great presence of mind in trying to jump from the rig when they saw that the horse was unmanageable.

WILL CLOSE UP THE CASE.

Toronto, Sept. 10.—At the forthcoming London assizes the Crown will insist on closing up the Sifton murder case, which has been adjourned from time to time for almost a year and a half. Inspector John Murray, of the Provincial detective service, will leave for London to-morrow to make preparations for the trial.

THE POPE AND THE ANARCHISTS.

London, Sept. 10.—"The Pope has been so impressed by the attack upon President McKinley," says the Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail, "that he intends to take the initiative in joint action by the Christian powers against anarchism. He is writing an important encyclical on the subject, which will be published next month."
