Mr. J. M. Sheldon, who is one of the best known hotel proprietors in Western Ontario, will retire from business for some time and will reside in Ridgeway.
The change of property comes into effect on October 2 and 3.
Even a family tree may occasionally need a little pruning.

MR. PARDO'S FINE STOCK

T. L. Pardo, ex-M. P. P., of Cedar Springs, exhibited eleven head of cattle at the Fair yesterday, which were a credit to both Mr. Pardo and to the County of Kent. One bull shown tipped the scales at 2,300 pounds, a cow at 1,900 pounds, and there were a number of calves which commanded the admiration of all stock-raisers who viewed them. Mr. Pardo has good reason to feel proud of his exhibit at the Peninsular Fair.

LAI D A COMPLAINT

Horace Black and John Bedford, of Park avenue, have laid a complaint at Police Court relative to a woman's chickens, which have been in the habit of straying onto Messrs. Black and Bedford's market gardens on Park avenue, and tearing up the vegetables, etc., therein.
They say that they have repeatedly warned the woman to keep her chickens at home, but she pays no attention to the complaint.

WATSON - HAZLETT

The marriage of Miss Edith, the eldest daughter of Mrs. E. W. Hazlett, William street, to Mr. Reginald Watson, of Bellegrave, took place yesterday afternoon at two o'clock at Victoria avenue Methodist church parsonage.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Graham. The bride was supported by Miss Marie Bedford, and Mr. Alfred Hazlett acted as best man. The happy couple left on the afternoon train on a trip to London.

THE BANANA SCRAP

The Crown authorities have taken action with regard to the Zakoor-Tavato banana scrap, and yesterday afternoon a warrant for Richard Zakoor's arrest was issued on the charge of overturning and damaging Tavato's property. Zakoor was arraigned before Judge Houston yesterday afternoon, and elected to be tried by jury at the fall assizes. He was released on $200 bail put up by A. J. James Massey and George Zakoor.
The case of Zakoor vs. Tavato will come up in Police Court to-morrow morning.

KING STREET IS DIRTY

Portions of King street pavement present an appearance to-day that would hardly be a credit to a respectable barn-yard. The ratapatters on Chatham's main artery, and in other portions of the city, too, are complaining quite loudly about the matter. They want to know how it is that the city street cleaner cannot attend to his civic contract, and remove the unsightly refuse from the thoroughfare.
This is a matter which from a standpoint of public health alone, the Board of Works should have attended to at once.

GOT SIX MONTHS

Moses Stonefish, the Indian who was charged with horse stealing, came up before Judge Dowlin at the Court House this morning. He was found guilty on his own plea, as well as the testimony of William Randall, from whom he stole the horse, and was sentenced to six months in Central Prison. Crown Attorney Smith prosecuted and Ward Stanworth defended.
Stonefish stole the horse from Randall's stables last Saturday afternoon, and he was captured by Randall himself, who handed him over to the Bothwell Chief of Police. He was committed for trial by Justice of the Peace Dillon, and sent up to Chatham for trial. He was remanded till this morning, when he pleaded guilty to the offence.

"SIDE-TRACKED."

"Side-Track" played to a bumper house at the Brisco Theatre last evening. Manager Brisco was forced to turn quite a number away, and there was standing room only a short time after the doors opened. The show is as funny as ever, and kept the audience in convulsions of merriment all evening. The piece evidently made a great hit, judging from the frequent and enthusiastic applause with which it was favored.
The cast is entirely changed since its last visit to Canada, six years ago, but all the members of the company are well up to the standard, and the roles are all well taken. Mr. Winters, as Horatio Irving Booth, the tramp, takes the part even better than it was previously portrayed by his predecessor. He is supported by an excellent company. The jokes, though many of them are unchanged, still hold popular favor. The piece is full of comical situations which cannot help but appeal to those who like a good laugh. It also has its vein of romance, which draws and holds the interest of the audience.
"Side-Track" will be repeated at the Brisco to-night, when it should be favored with another big house.

ILL-TIMED MESSAGE

Dr. White of Detroit
Receives Sad News at A Ball Game

His Father of This City
Was Thought To Be Dying

Detroit, Sept. 18.—"I have been requested to announce that O. W. White is wanted at his home immediately. News has just reached here that his father is dying."
Hushing the cheers on the lips of thousands of loyal Tiger rooters at Bennett park yesterday afternoon, Umpire Tommy Connolly mixed a dash of tragedy with an hour of festivity and plunged one man's heart from joy to deepest grief.
Apparently none of the throng in the big grandstand noticed a young man who arose from his seat shortly after the startling announcement, his face blanched and features firm set to hide his emotions. None saw him leave the grounds. A murmur of sympathy ran through the big audience. It was all over in a second, though, and when the first White Sox batter came to the plate, the one man's grief was forgotten, and the shouts and cheers that for the moment had been silenced, were resumed with greater vigor.
Dr. Oliver W. White, dentist, of 407 Fine Arts building, living at the Julian apartments, 50 Lothrop avenue, was the unfortunate recipient of the message. An ardent devotee of the national game, he had come to yesterday's double-header to see the struggle between Detroit and Chicago. It was just at the beginning of the second game that Umpire Connolly made the announcement from the field.
Dr. White's father, A. H. White, lives in Chatham, Ont. He has been ill for some time, but his condition was not considered at all serious. Yesterday the news came to Mrs. White that his condition was very low and she immediately communicated with Bennett park management.
Unfortunately, Dr. White was unable to get to a depot in time to catch an afternoon train for the Canadian town. He communicated with his home by long distance telephone, only to learn that his father was sinking slowly and would not survive. In an agony of suspense he was forced to wait until late last night before he could get a train from Detroit.
Inquiry at Mr. White's residence in this city this morning revealed the encouraging information that the patient seems to be much stronger to-day than he was during the night. He is still, however, in a very low condition.

WAS FOUND DEAD

Timothy Hogan, Raleigh St., was found dead in his bed yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. Deceased was an old gentleman, and for the past few years has been living with his sister in this city. He retired for the night feeling well, apparently, but when called the next morning he failed to make any response. His sister, upon entering his room, was shocked to find him dead. He had expired during the night, as his body was cold when found.
For several years deceased has been living retired in this city. He was formerly a merchant in New York City, and had been very successful during his career. He was born in St. John, Newfoundland. He leaves no relatives in this city except his sister.
The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

B. OF W. NOTES

The laying of the Inches Avenue sewer under the C. P. R. tracks was completed this morning to the entire satisfaction of the citizens and the railway officials.
Blight & Fielder's workmen are rushing the granolithic sidewalk near the Fair Grounds, on Queen street.
The bituminous coating on Adelaide street has been all laid, and the pavement on this street is completed so far as the Bitulithic company is concerned.
The laying of the bituminous coating on Thames Street pavement was commenced this morning, and it is expected that the concrete work on the south approach to Fifth Street Bridge will be completed to-day. Blight and Fielder's workmen will probably commence work on the northern approach to-morrow.
NOT THE ONLY ONE.
She takes a very small shoe, doesn't she?
Oh, yes, indeed!
What size?
Two sizes smaller than her foot.

JAQUES - SIDE

A very pretty event took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Side, Joseph street, it being the marriage of their daughter, Mande Augusta, to Mr. Merton F. Jaques, of Detroit.
Promptly at six o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Myrtle Side, the bride entered the drawing room, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion, leaning on the arm of her father.
The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edith Side, while the groom was supported by Mr. Bert Ellison, of Detroit. The bride was attired in cream silk Lansdowne and carried a bouquet of cream roses. The bridesmaid wore embroidered Persian lawn and carried pink roses.
After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. W. Hodgins, the guests, numbering about forty, sat down to a sumptuous wedding repast. The groom's gift to the bride was an amethyst locket, and to the bridesmaid a pearl brooch, and to the groomsmen a pearl stick pin.
There were guests present from Wallaceburg, Detroit, Woodstock and Winnipeg, and the many beautiful presents received testified to the high esteem in which the couple are held.
The happy couple left on the 9.24 for Detroit, where they will take a trip to Buffalo, Niagara, and other eastern points, and on their return will reside in Detroit, where they will be at home to their friends after November 1 at 428 Theodore street.

TWO WEDDINGS.

Blenheim, Sept. 18.—Two weddings of well known and popular young Blenheim people took place to-day.
At the residence of Mr. John Henderson, at 11.30 in the forenoon, his eldest daughter, Mande B., was married to Mr. James Gibb Fleming, of the well known firm of J. W. Fleming & Son, Rev. Geo. Gilmore officiating. About 60 guests were present and the house was elaborately arranged for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming left in the afternoon on a honeymoon trip to eastern points, and on their return will reside here.
At the residence of Mr. George Thompson, at high noon, his youngest daughter, Carrie, was quietly married to Mr. Geo. Carnes, for the past three years head clerk in the E. Y. Thompson store. Only the immediate relatives were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Carnes will spend a few days with relatives near St. Thomas, and next week will leave for the Canadian Northwest, where Mr. Carnes has accepted a good position with the Corderville-Georgeson Company of Calgary.
