A party composed of about sixty of the members of the Melba Temple A. O. N. M. S. (Ancient and Modern Nobles of the Mystic Shrine) of Springfield, Mass., were visitors to Wolfville on Monday of this week. They came by the morning express from Halifax and were met at Grand Pre by a number of automobiles and driven through the different points of interest in Wolfville in time for dinner at the Acadia. After taking the afternoon tea at Digby, the party was personally welcomed by Mr. A. C. Westworth, of Springfield. Mr. Frank E. Leach, of the same city, is the official head of the party, he presiding at the official. The party was made up of ladies and gentlemen.

You are invited to attend the showing of trimmed Models at Miss Saxton's on Wednesday, Sept. 24th.

The congregation of the Wolfville Baptist church has been called upon to part with their pastor, Rev. E. D. Webber, who read his resignation, to take effect Oct. 15th, last Sunday morning at the close of his sermon. During the five years of his pastorate in Wolfville, Rev. Mr. Webber has done a splendid work and the many friends he has made, both in his own congregation and elsewhere, will regret deeply his departure from our town. He has recently had a number of temporary invitations to other denominations in important centers. Rev. Mr. Webber is an able and earnest speaker and a fine administrator and some other congregations will profit by Wolfville's loss. The Acadia has been asked to state that the Kennebec Advertiser was misinformed that the resignation was on account of ill-health. Rev. Mr. Webber's health was never better than at the present time.

A Remarkable Record.

White Rock, Sept. 11th, 1913. DEAR SIR:—I read in THE ACADIAN that Mr. Robert Starr had seen five generations in two families, that is something to think of, but I have seen seven generations of two families. Robert Arthur Schofield came from England and was the first Englishman to marry in Nova Scotia. He lived to be 125 years old he was my great grandfather. The second on my father's side was William Ward and family from England. Nathan Schofield married Hannah Ward and they became my great grandfather and grandmother. William Ward was my great grandfather. Ward lived 115 years. Now the race counts seven generations that I have seen from my great grandparents to my own great grandchildren. There are branches of the Schofield and Ward families could count seven generations. I know of some families of five generations living, the Cyrus Atwell family is one of them. There are some large families of connections of ours which are so far away we cannot count at present, they are over the hills and far away.

My wife and I have passed our 50th anniversary of our wedding day. My wife is 82 years and I am 85 years old. Yours truly, JAMES E. SCHOFIELD.

Black River.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Millidge Schofield, Black River, on September 10th, when their only daughter, Ella May, was united by marriage to Mr. Vernon Elton Schofield, of White Rock. The bride, who was attended by her cousin, Miss Anna Smith, of Greenfield, as bridesmaid, wore a gown of white lace over blue satin with gold bead trimmings, entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march rendered by Miss Viola Schofield, of Black River. The groom was supported by Mr. Bowars Smith, of Greenfield. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. D. Webber, at Wolfville, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. After hearty congratulations were extended a dainty tea was served. The bride received many useful and handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Schofield will make their home at Black River.

W. S. Sanders, provincial organizer of the Sons of Temperance, reorganized Roundhill Division, No. 495, on Tuesday, Sept. 16th, with eighteen applicants and the following staff of officers: W. P. J. Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Carrier, of Boston, spent a few days in Wolfville this week, guests of Mrs. Carrier's sister, Mrs. Reginald Hennigar. They were accompanied by Mrs. Conna, way, of Chester, who with her son Marshall, will spend a few weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hennigar.

Mr. R. W. Donaldson, B. A., Acadia 1912, left for Fort Williams on a boat last for Quip's, Agri. College, Ohi., to take up the third year's work for the B. S. A. degree, he having received his diploma with high marks last winter at Truro Agri. College for the first and second years' work in this course.

September Red and Gun contains a table of contents appropriate to the month and the character of the magazine of outdoor life. The American Scap on the Pacific Coast in Bonnycastle Dale's contribution. "Clack" gives some practical advice to duck shooters and reminiscences of duck hunting expeditions in days gone by. Shooting over a Dog by "Bones" will be of interest to those sportsmen who find big game hunting too strenuous but enjoy the lighter form of sport involved in the pursuit of small winged game.

A Day Among the Ducks by a Saskatchewan writer is a very amusing account of the duck hunting experience of an amateur shot. Amongst the Manitoba Prairie Chickens, The Cub-Across the Skyway, Hunting the Loon, the Spirit of the Red Men, and other interesting articles make up an entertaining number for the month. The whole is worth a visit to the Gun and Woodcock Club.
