

Local News and Personal Items

Three cans of Gold Bond Corn for 25 cents at Carr's.

Miss Georgia Reid is home from the hospital to spend her vacation.

Herbert Mooers of Woodstock has been visiting in Hartland and Cloverdale.

Miss Erma Miller was visiting friends in Florenceville last week.

Miss Ella Bradley was last week visiting Mrs. Arnold Porter at Florenceville.

Mrs. Gordon McAdam and children were last week guests of Mrs. C. R. Thistle at Littleton.

F. M. and Mrs. Boyd started to drive to Fredericton last week, lured by a day that promised to be fine.

Banner Feed—the best mashed feed for horses; also Puritan, Middlings, whole and cracked corn at CARR'S.

Mrs. E. M. Sipprell who has been visiting at Somerville for several weeks returned to St. John on Saturday.

A. S. Estabrooks, Rockland, has for sale the mare formerly owned by Rev. A. F. Baker; also wagons, sleigh and harness.

People owing A. S. Estabrooks are advised to call on him at once and make settlement. Costs of collection by law can thus be saved.

Among the passengers that were transferred from Bath to Bristol on Monday were 81 men holding harvest tickets for the northwest.

George F. Burt and James Montgomery were among the visitors to Fredericton during "old home" week, as were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gillin.

Rev. G. E. Orser of Fort Fairfield, Me. and Mrs. James Barter of Avondale, and Miss F. N. Barter of St. John were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. White on Monday.

On Saturday Canton Wabasso of Oddfellows of Fort Fairfield passed through Hartland in a car attached to the southbound express. They were 28 in number and were on an excursion to Fredericton, down the river to St. John, and across the bay to Nova Scotia.

The Maritime Baptist says "Rev. C. F. Rideout, pastor of the Second Baptist church, Bridgeport, Conn., has gone to western Canada on a vacation. He will go to Victoria and return by the United States route, visiting in Seattle and San Francisco. His ministry in Bridgeport has been marked by a good degree of success."

The railway Company is meeting with excellent success in repairing the damage to the track and bridges at Bristol and Bath. Trains were able to cross the temporary work at Bristol yesterday, thus shortening the transfer. A second pile-driver arrived at the scene yesterday, having been sent around by the I.C.R. A steam shovel was at the time of the freshet at work at Maniac bluff, thus all the necessary equipment was at hand without delay. Men have been working continuously night and day. The only trains that have been running are the expresses. The accommodation has been held since Sunday. It looks as though through service may be resumed by the end of the week.

Rev. A. A. Rideout visited Fredericton last week.

William McGee of Lower Brighton was in the village on Friday.

A. D. McCain of Florenceville made a business trip to Boston last week.

George McGoldrick has been home from Aroostook county for a few days.

Misses Mary Carr and Mildred Flemming were visiting friends in Woodstock last week.

F. G. Scott, Montreal representative of the firm of Hatfield & Scott was in Hartland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gallepe of Florenceville have been visiting friends in the lower part of the province.

The Universal Chimney Cleaner Co. which has been doing business here has made an assignment.

Carrie and Jerry Olsen of Fitchburg, Mass., and Opal Keswick of Bass River are guests at the home of R. J. Potts.

Rev. C. S. Young of Plaster Rock and Rev. Allen Tedford of Rockland will exchange appointments next Sunday, Aug. 13.

F. Graham Stevenson of the bank of Montreal left on Monday for his home in St. John, Nfld., where he will spend his vacation.

James Williams a former resident of Keswick, now living in Maine, claims to be 112 years of age. He visited Fredericton last week.

The Mount Pleasant contingent to the rifle matches at Sussex numbered five and we are certain to hear good reports from them.

Nine tickets for the Northwest were sold at this station on Monday, the day of the first harvest excursion. A. R. Rigby was among the number.

On account of the rain the Haag Circus did not show at Bristol as advertised. While the show was lying over at Bristol one of the camels in the menagerie died.

The C.P.R. has given a contract to Clements & Co., to supply the Commissariat Department of the C.P.R. with potatoes during the coming season. It is stipulated in the contract that each potato must weigh from one pound to a pound and a half, to be of uniform size and smooth skinned.

Mrs. Rex L. York of Somerville on Saturday submitted to a serious operation involving abdominal section and has since been in a critical condition, although the operation is likely to prove successful. Drs. MacIntosh and Curtis of Hartland and Dr. Rankin of Woodstock were the surgeons, and Miss Marion Stevens, R. N., the nurse in charge. Only little more than a year ago Mrs. York underwent a serious operation in a Boston hospital.

Donald Munroe, M.P.P., Geo. Wilson, Joseph Carter and Geo. Gilmour waited upon the Provincial Government at Fredericton last week and urged the opening up of a highway from Bristol to Gilmour's mills. "Consideration" was promised. T. J. Carter, M.P.P., and John E. Stewart of Andover also urged upon the government assistance toward the building of the Tobique & Campbellton railway, from Plaster Rock to Riley Brook, and in this case, also, consideration was promised.

Rev. J. B. Daggett of Centreville was here yesterday.

Butter parchment for one-pound prints at low prices. Observer office.

A. R. Murray of Sydney is occupying the teller's cage in the Bank during the absence of F. G. Stevenson.

J. B. Dansereau of Quebec will arrive on Saturday to spend the week end with his brother, H. Dansereau at A. L. Baird's.

From the effects of a scalding received in Dickinson's tannery Wilson Cronkhite of Woodstock died on Saturday night.

Mrs. Albert Orser, jr., has been seriously ill for several weeks. With five small children her situation is particularly distressing.

Houlton is to have an exhibition this fall, which will be its first one. The advertisement in another column shows that there is going to be something doing.

W. G. Tinker, a former Hartland boy, now chief train dispatcher on the B. & A., arrived from Bangor on Saturday to visit his aunt, Mrs. Frank Hagerman. He is accompanied by his wife and little daughter.

Miss Maude Lewis of St. John paid a short visit to Aroostook Jct. on Saturday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Langly. On her return to St. John she was accompanied by Miss Dorothy Langly who will visit in the city for a time.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Houlton Business College. While this is not a Canadian institution it has the advantage to Carleton county people of being the nearest one to them, and students graduated from there are filling splendid positions.

On Sunday, Aug. 25, Rev. S. W. Schurman will preach the local Orangemen's annual sermon. The members will meet at their hall at 3 p.m. and from there will march to the United Baptist church in full regalia. Other lodges are cordially invited to attend.

The Messrs. Aitken, contractors on the Corporation drive, between Grand Falls and the boom limits, thought they had finished work when they brought their clean-up drives to the boom limits the last of last week, but they received orders to resume driving again, and they are starting work once more.

Miss Marion Tompkins who in 1907-8 taught one of the Hartland schools and who afterward went to the west returned to her former home at East Florenceville on Thursday for a brief visit. Miss Tompkins is now a teacher in one of the schools in Moosejaw. Her many friends are pleased to greet her once again.

Arthur S. Estabrooks who has conducted a general store at Rockland since 1899 with marked success, has sold out his business to Belyea Bros., the enterprising sons of A. A. Belyea. Mr. Estabrooks has not decided as to his future plans but has a trip to the Pacific, probably to California, in view. Wherever he may locate he can carry with him a record of high business ability and integrity. As will be seen by an advertisement in another column Belyea Bros. have already taken over the new business, in which they deserve success.

E. C. Morgan and Clyde Rideout have bought of J. T. G. Carr the site and the portion left standing of the Commercial hotel. They have formed a partnership under the name of Morgan & Rideout and will carry on a general produce business. They will make extensive improvements in the building now standing, converting the lower portion to a potato warehouse and possibly making of the upper portion a double tenement. They think that in the spring they may erect a hotel building of cement, but plans are as yet indefinite.

Pickled Herring in half barrels at Taylor's.

Rev. A. A. Rideout preached in the Methodist church at Fredericton on Sunday evening.

Harry Currie and family arrived on Monday from Boston to visit his father, Judson Currie.

John Bohan of Bath was here yesterday. He is buying a great many horses, paying the farmers good prices. See ad. in another part of this paper.

J. T. G. Carr is Agent for some of the best Insurance Companies in THE WORLD. He takes Life, Sickness and Accident Risks as well as Fire.

The editor thanks T. J. Hurley for some heads of lettuce that would surely have been prize winners had they been placed at the St. John fair.

WANTED—Ladies to do plain sewing and light sewing at home, whole or spare time, good pay; work sent any distance, charges paid. Send stamp for particulars. National Manufacturing Co., Montreal.

Miss Georgia Churchill and her brothers, Randolph and Winston, who have been spending the summer at W. H. Sipprell's went to Glassville on Wednesday to visit their uncle, George Allen.

Visiting cards, either ladies' or gentlemen's, the season's correct styles, with name in engraved style lettering, 50 for 50 cents postpaid; 100 for 75 cents. Observer Office, Hartland, N. B.

William Christian of Amagari, Ont., has been visiting his former home at Middle Simonds after an absence of several years. He is accompanied by his wife, a daughter of the late D. F. Munroe of Simonds, and three boys. Mr. Christian is doing very well in the west, now holding the position of foreman in the works of the Buffalo Gasoline Motor Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Tappan Adney of Woodstock called on The Observer yesterday. It is Mrs. Adney's intention to open a choral society for adults and a junior society for children, similar to the work she is carrying on in Woodstock. She will be able to accommodate six private pupils in the higher art of pianoforte and also in voice culture. Further particulars in this connection will be given our readers next week.

On Friday a double-header ball game will be played between the McAdam Junction and Hartland teams. The scene of the conflict will be Noddin's field and a new grand stand has been erected for the occasion. The games will be called at 2.30 and 6 o'clock, sharp, and the admission will be 10 and 15 cents. The boys are at heavy expense bringing the McAdam team here and they deserve to be well patronized. Better make up your mind to see the game. If you can't go, buy a ticket anyway.

The W.C.T.U. held their annual meeting last week at the home of Mrs. S. Hayden Shaw. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. H. Bradley, president; Mrs. S. H. Shaw, sec.; Mrs. H. N. Bover, recording sec.; Mrs. A. Plummer, treasurer. Mesdames Shaw and Bradley were appointed delegates to the provincial convention to be held at Campbellton in September. A picnic supper was held in honor of Mrs. L. E. McFarland, a valued worker, who later left for several months' visit in the west. Everyone enjoyed a very pleasant time. The recently appointed president is not new to the office and the members feel that in Mrs. Bradley they have one of their most efficient and enthusiastic workers.

The OBSERVER will be sent a full year to any Canadian address for 50 cents, cash in advance. American subscribers must pay $1.00 per year.

A Good Life Policy

will compel a young man to save money. He will be glad of it only sure he is older. It trains him also to the habit of saving, and is the only sure way to guarantee adequate estate to this family—when he has one.

The Manufacturers Life Insurance Co.

Issues None But Good Policies
Communicate with or consult

T. A. Lindsay, Inspector, Woodstock, N. B. or The E. R. Machum Co., St. John, N. B.

Managers for Maritime Provinces.

Carney Addition

in the heart of

Fort George

A limited number of building lots in the Carney Addition, located in the heart of Fort George, are now placed in the market for the first time at

$295 per Lot

on terms of $10. down and balance at $10. per month without interest.

Carney Addition is a Beautiful Tract of Land Ideally Located directly adjoining the former Indian Reserve which was lately acquired by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway for Station Grounds.

Fort George is rapidly developing into one of the provincial business centres of British Columbia. From present indications the city will have from 5,000 to 10,000 people when the first train pulls in.

Titles to Any Property We Sell are guaranteed by the Province of British Columbia.

With the completion of the sale of Carney Addition will pass forever your opportunity to get inside property at "ground floor" prices. Now is the time to buy, before the railroads get there.

Wire, write, or phone, for further information,

JOHN T. G. CARR

HARTLAND

Agent for New Brunswick.

I have still some bargains in Re-Sales in the Central Townsite. Quick money-makers—these!

The Astors owe their immense fortunes almost entirely to timely Real Estate investments.

TO CONSUMPTIVES

And All Afflicted With Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Grippes or any Lung or Throat trouble.

After suffering for years with a severe throat trouble which ran into Consumption, Rev. S. A. Wilson was cured by following plain rules of health and using Dr. Churchill's prescription. With this to help all sufferers he wrote, for free distribution, a full description of his trouble and the simple means he used to cure himself.

WILSON'S REMEDY (Dr. Churchill's prescription) has been doing its wonderful good work for over 40 years. It has been tried and proven, and is a household remedy in many, many homes to which it has brought health and happiness.

If you are suffering from any Lung or Throat trouble whatever, do not fail to give this invaluable remedy a trial. Send for Mr. Wilson's history of his own remarkable cure which will be sent FREE together with a $1.00 package of the remedy, to all who write for it. Address: Wilson's Remedy Co., Westwood, N. J., U.S.A.

HENRY MORE SMITH

Many have heard their parents or grandparents speak of the mysterious stranger who was in New Brunswick 100 years ago. Prison bars could not stop him. Strong puppets made by him would dance to music at his command. You should have a copy of the book telling of his wonderful career. Send 25 cents, silver or postal note, for book. This is your last chance for a book of his life as only a few copies are left to sell at 25c. post paid. Mention Observer. Box 75, St. John West

NOTICE!

Having sold out my business at Greenfield to Llewellyn A. Lockhart who will continue at the same stand, I solicit for him the liberal patronage enjoyed by me.

All accounts due me are payable to Llewellyn A. Lockhart.

J. F. MCMAIN.

Summerfield, July 25.

FOR SALE

A general purpose Mare.
A light Wagon
A double Wagon.
A set of single and a set of double Harness.

The same will be sold cheap. Apply to—
SAM McAFEE
Armand, N. B.

COW FOR SALE.

A nice 4-year-old cow is for sale at Maplewood Farm.

C. M. SHAW.

Your Money Back IF

The "if" is big because few want it. But this frank, fair offer shows your dealers faith that the rare richness of this tea's flavor will delight you:—

All you have to do if you do not like the flavor—yes more than like it—is to return the broken package and receive your money back.

35c., 40c., and 50c., per lb.

KING COLE
TEA