CROWNED BEST OF ALL.

Every lady who has worn Corticelli Skirt Protector crowns it the best of all protectors.

Its soft, porous, elastic texture, of pure selected wool outwears the skirt, sheds dirt and dust, dries out quickly. Steam shrunk in the wash, cannot pucker the skirt, cannot fade—no frayed edges, no cut bottoms, no pulling away from the stitching.

Sewed on flat, not turned over. Every dress goods shade. Sold everywhere.

Stamped with this trade mark:

Corticelli

Corticelli SKIRT PROTECTOR

"PUNCTURE ME

If you must," as the tire said to the tack, "but take me to Barrett's to be repaired. He'll make me tight quickly, neatly, rightly." Single and double tube tires, inner tubes, chains, handle bars, saddles, bicycle fittings of all sorts

SAVED FROM DROWNING.

Narrow Escape of Three Young Men Near Montreal—Rescued by a Notable Character.

MONTREAL, June 29.—George St. Pierre, one of Joe Vincent's boatmen, and his wife, saved three young men from drowning last evening. Oscar Strachan, Ernest Brown and Fred Suckling, all residents of Westmount, purchased a boat and were bringing it down the river all unconscious of the rapids just below Victoria Bridge. When the boat was carried into the rapids it upset and the young men plunged into the water. Fortunately Mr. and Mrs. St. Pierre, who were fishing just outside the guard pier, noticed the accident. Mrs. St. Pierre caught one man with her fish hook and held him until her husband had drawn the other two into the boat and then assisted her husband in landing her own prize. This runs the number of people saved from drowning by St. Pierre up to thirty.

TORTURED AND ROBBED.

A Southern Millionaire and His Family Have a Hard Experience

Burglars Torture Them With Needles and Fire

In An Attempt to Make Them Disgorge Their Valuables.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 29.—Six masked men entered the palatial summer residence of Jacob L. White of Brothrus Station, on the B & O Railroad, overpowered, bound and gagged the seven occupants of the house and ransacked for valuables. They secured $3,000 in money and twice as much in jewelry. White and his wife and their daughter were tortured by having lighted matches applied to their bodies and their skin lacerated by needles in an effort to make them divulge the hiding place of the other valuables, but without success. The victims were deserted and lay helpless for hours, until Miss Sydney Mackey, a niece, extricated herself from her bonds and secured assistance. There is no clue to the identity of the robbers. White is a millionaire oil operator. The victims are not in a serious condition.

VERY SUDDEN DEATH.

The very sudden death occurred last night of Janet, widow of the late Mr. Alex. Blank, of St. Mary's, and whose death occurred three months ago. Death resulted from heart failure and was hastened, it is thought, by fear during the tempest which prevailed about midnight. The deceased lady was in the seventy-seventh year of age and leaves one son, Mr. Thompson Blank, with whom she resided. The funeral takes place from her late home at five o'clock on Sunday afternoon, interment to be made at Sunny Bank cemetery, Rev. Mr. Belliss officiating. Robert B. Adams has charge of funeral arrangements.

HUGE LUMP OF GOLD.

An Ingot Weighing 1,000 Pounds to be Sent to Glasgow Exposition.

VANCOUVER, June 29.—There has arrived at Ashcroft from Cariboo what is believed to be the largest ingot of gold ever cast. It represents the greater portion of the year's clean up of the Cariboo Consolidated Hydraulic Mining Co. The big gold brick weighs 1,000 pounds, and is worth approximately $200,000. The ingot is three feet long and two feet thick, and is to be sent to the Glasgow Exposition.

AT HENLEY.

Great Interest Taken in the Forthcoming Race for Grand Challenge Cup.

LONDON, June 29.—The Daily News, discussing the crews at Henley, says: Public interest centers in the doings of the Pennsylvania university crew and that the race will be a fair test of the American and English style of rowing. The Daily News admits that the Leander crew is as good as any crew which has won the grand challenge cup in the last ten years, and that the Americans form the best foreign crew ever seen at Henley, the paper doubting whether the English crew will be able to beat the Pennsylvanians.

Don't fail to visit Edgewood's to-night as the stores will be closed on Monday, Dominion Day.—a.

At Market Today

Mr. James Grant of Cardigan had in market this morning some of the finest veal ever offered for sale in town. The calf was less than six weeks old and weighed, when dressed, 110 pounds. Mr. Grant found ready sale for the veal at 6 and 7 cents a pound. There was but little variety in the products offered for sale at market this morning, strawberries, mutton, eggs and butter about comprising the list. Strawberries sold at 12 to 13 cents a quart and eggs brought 15 to 16 cents a dozen. Mutton sold at 5 and 6 cents.
