

A WOMAN'S ROOM. A woman's room. Its daintiness Proclaims it hers. Each quaint recess Fragrant with il overs: each cosy seat Subtle with invitations, meet A man's requirements-more or less, but as a rule they care very little for

It soothes one like a faint caress, A lover's sympathy--confess-You have not ever seen so sweet A woman's room.

Family newspaper. Her varied moods. Ah, how I bless The day that brought her little feet More near .- since to be quite complete It needs the rustle of her dress A woman's room.

Grey, like black is being workers in the shoots there is hope that it Grey, like black, is being used a good may bloom again. It has been known The efforts of Mrs. Vanderbilt to deal to give an effective finishing to to bloom in the house from Christmas communicate with Cornelius, even at a costuine. Of course, it is not as until May. If it does this it should be the eleventh hour, were taken by mem useful as the latter color in this cap- given a rest in May, by gradually bers of the family to mean that she acity, but undoubtedly it does look withdrawing water, though it should was willing to go a long way to incharming with some colors. than a few days at a time, when it ceremony.

It is said that plain white gloves should again receive water enough to A complete surrender of the Amerfor evening wear are losing favor. In- keeps the leaves and stems from wilt- ican idea to the European idea thus stead the people are wearing a delicate ing. As soon as new shoots begin to maks the marriage blue or a pale straw tint with admir- sprout from the base of the plant, the able effect, although, of course, there water should be given more freely, are a number of people who express and after a few inches of growth are the exception of about $1,100,000 in reference for the old fashion.

Evidently an attempt is being made ed with fresh soil, a part of which is find they cannot touch, will be placed to introduce the sloping shoulder of leaf mould-soil from the woods. the early Victorian period, for it is an This plant does not take kindly to man to conform with the laws of his acknowledged fact that all the smart- outdoor treatment and should there- country, which do not permit the ownest coats just new are made with fore be kept indoors all the year. If ership of property by a wife, Grooping shoulder lines, the Mandarin it does well all winter, with its freearm-hole and sleeve being high in blooming qualities, there are very few the privilege of the poorest American favor. The effect is very graceful, more satisfactory plants for the home. girl, of meeting her sweetheart alone. though I do not imagine it is admired There are many other varieties of Even two days before the marriage

Szechenyi and Count Paul Esterhazy. house was darkened and electric ef-Patched Up Feud. Every possible eleventh-hour effort scheme. was made Saturday to patch up a truce in the Vanderbilt family feud were bidden to the wedding breakin order to make the marriage a society success. The mother of the after the ceremony. The count and bride, Mrs. Vanderbilt, sent a long his bride left the house at 3.15 in the day. thorn lilac (unscented), exquisite pink telegram, and followed this with a let- afternoon, and found at the Jrand night destroyed the station and diviand yellow azeleas, and wonderful tall ter to Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who, with Central station the private car of Al- sional headquarters of the Canadia white lilies. These are all wild. Peohis wife has been living in the Adir- fred Vanderbilt awaiting them ple also cultivate camelias, chrysantheondacks since it was decided that They went at once to Newport and death of Harry Lang by suffocation. nums, gardenias, and a few others, Miss Vanderbilt's fortune should be took possession of the magnificent "Lang who was working upstairs was think it needs the 'knowledge and love turned over to the foreigner. flowers or for natural scenery. I of God to make one appreciate His works. We find the Christians much of His handiwork, especially those who of the count. Friends of the family Count's Mother Announces Wedding. the loss will be about $5,000. been near the house since the arrival Europe. Her books and pictures—all express have known Him for years.'—Church say that the mother of Gladys has set A copy of the formal announce-'Gloire de Lorraine,' is one of the most family. Cornelius. satisfactory Christmas plants when on Alfred Vanderbilt balked at being -Western Home monthly its best behavior, it is really very difficult to carry through the summer. best man at a wedding of which he is Sometimes it drops its leaves soon said to strongly disapprove, and it after leaving the florist's store; in seemed probable that Reginald would that event it requires patience and be called upon to give the bride away. courage to undertake to bring it to The Count, however, is said to have bloom again. If the leaves remain expressed wonder that Cornelius, the never be allowed to remain dry more duce the eldest son to appear at the Gets Most of Fortune. The entire fortune of the bride with made, the old shoots should be cut New York Central bonds, of which she away. The soil should be then replac- has the income and which the lawyers in charge of the Hungarian noble-

EVENTS.

Moreover, the marriage ceremony

Reggie in Knickerbockers.

Count is no 'Spender.'

f mily is reported to be about the house, but she did not try it on, Mrs.

Reggie's gown is of cream lace. She

The Vanderbilt mansion was all in confusion for everal weeks past, be-room, where the famous 'barn dance'

wedding were Baron Hengeimuller.

Baroness Hengeimuiler, Baron Louis

Ambrozy, Mr. Moriz von Szent-Ivany,

Lieutenant Baron F. Prepuchen von

MILBURN'S

system, and give tone and vitality to the same

nee Alice Gwynne.

New York, No. 1, West 57th street. Given at our palace of Oermezoe, she was only allowed to talk with In the month of January, 1908.

DISASTROUS FIRE fects were used in the decorative Station and Divisional Headquarters of Canadian Northern at North

Only one hundred of the guests Battleford Destroyed. fast, served by Sherry immediately NORTH BATTLEFORD, Sask., Fri--- Fire which started here last Northern Railway and caused the man.

Vanderbilt home, "The Breakers,' cut off by the flames and his charred Mrs. Vanderbilt also sent a letter where they will remain until the first body was found later. He was a nato her son, Cornelius, who has not of February when they will sall for tive of Owen Sound, Ont. The station was of modern construction and her heart upon the carrying out of the ment of the Vanderbilt-Szechenyi Lang was an operator of the com-European custom, of having the wedding, made in Budapest by Count pany and was working at his key While the pink begonia, called the bride given away by the head of the Szechenyi's mother, reads thus:- in the upstairs. Owing to the noise Countess Emerich Szechenyi, nee Alex of his instrument he was probably andra, Countess Sztaray-Szirmay, unable to hear the crackle of the Imperial and Royal Dame of the flames, which started below him. Before he had warning the stairway and other means of exit were cut off and Dame of the Star and Cross Order, Widow of the late Count Emerich it was but a few minutes before he suffocated.

FREDERICTON DOWNS MONCTON.

The hockey game last night at Fredericton between that town and Moncton resulted in a victory for the Steformer by a score of 2-1. One goal scored by the Fredericton team was shot by mistake by a Moncton

Hon. E. H. Allen comes of a family distinguished in the public life of this province ever since its foundation. 7 His grandfather, the late Col. Allen, Hereditary Member of the Hungarian his father, the late Sir John Allen, chief justice, and two of his deceased brothers, Mr. W. K. Allen and Geo. W. Allen, represented York in the legislature, and the name of Allen is one that has always been honored Daughter of the late Herr Cornelius throughout York constituency. Hon. E. H. Allen has the ability and energy to render his native city and county splendid service in the legislature and The church wedding occurs Jan 28 in the government, and there is not the shadow of a doubt of his triumphant election on March 3rd.

The particular hostess naturally selects Moir's Chocolates for a stylish social affair.

When arranged in a bonbon dish, with each chocolate in its neat, fancy paper cup, they look the very essence of daintiness and refined good taste.

My! how delicious they are, too! Such delicately flavored centers, containing creamy confections, nuts, fruits and jellies, concealed under the finest, smoothest coating of the very richest chocolate.

The number of different varieties in each box will delightfully surprise you.

Hard Coal, Soft Coal and Blacksmith Coal A large quantity always on hand Delivered to any part of the town. Orders by mail .

Jos H Taylor

Szchenyi of Sarvia-Felsoe-Vivek Imperial and Royal Champerlain Royal Hungarian Cup Bearer Knight of the Order of the Golden Grand Cross of the Order of St. Grand Cross of the Order of St. Leo.

Some time Ambassador at the Imperial ial German Court Has the Honor to Announce The contemplated marriage of her son Count Laszio Szechenyi

Royal and Imperial Champeriain Lieutenant of Reserves in the North Hussars Count Nadasby

Fraulein Gladys Vanderbilt "is: Gladys has not been allowed none is so free-blooming or so cheer- him when an older woman was pre mink jacket was re- ful a pink in color as the 'Gloire de sent. This chaperonage was carried 's a short welstcoat of Lorraine.' There are two varieties of out to the most minute detail, and cisth embroidered in 'Lorraine'-the one with the lighter friends who witnessed its working Awful Tragedy Occurs at Glen Even . A dat band of pink flowers is the most satisfactory were amazed. while the plant for the house come Cyclamen plants are among the most itself indicates the portrayal of a satisfactory house plants we have, and court function in Europe rather than the sets to similar mas popular cach an American society event. could not fail to be addition, the pale shade of the cloth (sear as requirements are better used for the waistesat, and the sheen understood.' Cyclamen flowers will . Not only did Reginald Vanderbilt of the embroidery Lieuding admirably lest in good condition some weeks in wear knickerbockers in order to copy a cool room where the direct sunlight the court custom of Hungary, but into the general somethous while.

begonias that are easy to grow, but

s not strike them. A temperature several of the men guests, intimate It is a relief to hear that in some of fifty-fit. degrees at night is warm friends of the family, appeared in fashion, de circles, at any rate, hats enough, and they bloom more continu- court costume. The line appears to have been are growing smaller, toques and tur- ously and the flowers possess more bans trimmed with erect plumes and substance when produced in that tem- drawn at the wearing of swords, for Personally, perature than in one higher.

however. I have always considered the turban shape to be a particularly try-root, and if not given more water than the bride with force of arms. velvet taking their place. ing one. However, it looks post and they need, they will keep on blooming trim enough on the right woman, and 'until the weather becomes warm is cortainly a pleasant contrast to the enough for most plants to be put out- has been in any event for several hoge bats crowded with masses of doors. They should then be taken out years. feathers, of which we have seen so of their pots and planted in the garmuch latel; shines only early in the morning and

Blue in many different shades is be- late in the afternoon. About the miding worn a good deal in New York dle of September they should be taken presents for the bride. The count just now-and coubtless this particu- up and potted carefully, making the lar fashion waye will engul? Camp- soil quite firm, in pots not too large- upon the Vanderbilt family until he bellion in its turn. There are so which means that if they were growmany pretty shades of blue now-a ing in pots six inches across before days that it seems a far cry from the days of our grand-parents when there was also all planted out, pots of the same size will be large enough for the first was only a limited variety of the fay. potting in the fall, as there is more orite color to be obtained. One of the danger in too large a pot for this kind most becoming of the new shades is of plants than in one too small. Cadet blue, while others are Copen-Be careful not to allow the bright sun to shine on the plants at any time with the employes of the Vanderbilt hagen blue and Nattier blue. during their existence, except during. dull winter months, when they will  enjoy all the sun they can get .- West-

UVER THE TEA CUPSE Vanderbilt, daugnter of Mrs. Cornel-ius Vanderbilt, was married to Count guests that they also don court cos-

Someone, I forget whom, has writ- Laszlo Szechenyi, a young Hungarian tume Someone, I forget whom, has write traisant secondary a room today. Gladys and Mrs. Regiment the Sat-ten a little book all about lilac, The nobleman, in the Fifth avenue home bilt passed almost all their time Sat-bilt passed almost all their time Satpurple, while a graceful specimen of The wedding was probably the most urday in having the last fittings of the fragrant flower forms the frontis- brilliant that has taken place in this the wedding gowns. The gown for piece. The garden lovers find such city for a number of years. Altho the the bride's mother arrived at the books very acceptable. It is as though number of guests was limited to about they caught already the opening notes 350, mainly relatives and immediate of the distant spring song, and heard friends of the two families, there were all the birds a-twitter among the included Baron Hengelmuller Von green leaves. There is no more beau- Hengervar, the Austrian ambassador rending day trying to make the needtiful flower than the lilac, and it is to the United States; James Bryce, ed alterations, and finally a maid was certainly far worthier of the writer's the British ambassador, and several sent for from the modiste's. art than the sensational escapades of the prominent members of New that form the stock-in-trade of se York society.

ern Home Monthly.

many novelists. Lovers of flowers. Outside of the Vanderbilt home a ing filled with decorators and carand especially of the Elas, should has- great crowd of the curious public penters. The main decorations were ten to place this little book upon their gathered, hoping for a glimpse of the set, at the north end of the large ballcount and his bride, and watching

Wowing is an interesting pas- no disorder among the crowd, for the sage frets the letter of a lady mis- streets were patrolled by nearly 100 tion hall adjoining and entered the retire from business March 1st. sionary in China, which will be appre- policemen. clated by all garden lovers: 'You ask The Caremony. if we have many homely flowers in Promptly at noon the wedding cere-

China. Net many, but what we have, mony was performed in a large drawwe value very much They include ing room on the Fifth avenue side of buttercaps, sorrel, wild roses (wild the house, in which a bower of palms and not scented) honeysuckle, violets and arbor of orchids were constructed. (also not scented), one or two kinds of Beneath the arbor a temporary altar clematis, also a kind of may or haw- was erected and in front of this the ceremony was performed by Monsig-

SUFFERING WOMEN Patrick's Cathedral. The bride was escorted by her elder brother, Cornelius Vanderbilt, down an isle bordered who find life a burden, can have health and strength restored by the use of

Milburn's Heart and Nerve was performed by Cornelius Vander-Pills

The wedding chorus from Gaul's antata: Ruth,' was sung by thirty are mild, sure and safe, and are a parfect The present generation of woman and rich boys of St. Patrick's chancel choir, regulator of the system.

or Michael J. Lavelle, rector of St.

brother, Count Dionys Szechenyi. The ceremony of giving away the bride

The present generation of the secretions, with attired in surplices and red cassacks. They gently unlock the secretions, clear some it is nervousness and polyitation, with accompanied by the organ and assist-others weak, dizzy and fainting gells, while with ed by the Catheoral's male quartet.

The Bride's Costume.

DIED FROM DRINK

Sask.

Palace,

Real Privy Councillor

Fleece

phen

pold, etc.

House of Magnates

with

Vanderbilt

and his consort,

(Special to the Morning Graphic.) Glen Ewen, Sask., Jan. 23 .- Three men are dead and another may die as allow a weak stomach or a bad the result of one of the most awful tragedles which ever occurred in this distict. The affair took place on Sunday when four men, Frank, Dave and Harry Carney, and James Gunn drank a full bottle of wood alcohol which had been stolen from the local doctor on Saturday The men who were entirely untimate friends appeared prepared to aware of the nature of the liquid, imagining it to be liquor, and when they Society was more deeply interested started on it they drank the whole in the wedding arrangements than it bottle full.

They took violently sick and Monday three of them Frank and Harry Friends of the Vanderbilts canno: Carney and James Gunn died. The den, in some shady spot where the sun den, in some shady spot where the sun quite as yet catch the European idea other man, David Carney, is in a very which brought seven of the friends of precarious condition and is not exthe count to this country without any pected to recover.

has always lived entirely dependent If it can be shown that the town came to this city, when he took up tric service one should be inaugurated his residence with Harry Payne Whitas early as possible. A private corporation may not take into considera tion the wishes of individuals, but a Friends of the Vanderbilts who Friends of the Vanderbills who have followed the count's career in the second s America declare that his expenses are or of municipal ownership is that it next to nothing. and his popularity protects and fosters the interests of the people.

Archie Frackear of Chatham is a Reginald Vanderbilt took the prolucky man. Had he killed Ald. Merposition that he appear in knickersereau as he came very nearly doing bockers and be ready to give the bride NEW YORK, Jan. 27.-Miss Gladys away with great good humor. He is a jury would have hanged him with > with a year in jail. Many a better while you are cleaning your house for man than Frackear has been hanged the winter. We will be able to attend for trying less to kill a man than the to it better now as the weather is getformer saloon keeper of Chatham. ting too cold for us to work outside. Justice is a queer thing.

Good health makes good nature. If everyone had a sound stomach there would be no pessimists in the world. Do not liver to rob you of the joy of first Monday in January.

...

living. Take and the world laughs with you. No need then for rose-colored glasses. Beecham's Pills start health vibrations to all parts of the body, while putting a ruddy tint on lips and cheeks. There's health in every box. Health for every man, woman and child, Beecham's Pills

Sold Everywhere. In boxes 25 cents

FALL HOUSE CLEANING.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.-Miss Gladys away with great good humor. He is an easy conscience, but as the alder-Vanderbilt, daughter of Mrs. Cornel- responsible for suggesting to other man recovered Frackear gets clear your Parlor, Dining Room cr Hall

Geo. H. Metzler, Shop over Steam Laundry Residence over Jones & Schofield's R. S. Chandler,

Licensed Auctioneer

the ambassador of Austria Hungary; R. W. SMITH.

Jan. 25-4 w.

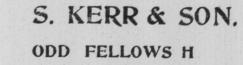

lius Vanderbilt, down an iste bordered with palms, entwined with a great abundance of orchids to the altar. Count Szechenyi was attended by his brother. Count Dionys Szechenyi The

We are hereby notifying the people in the town of Campbellton aud County of Restigouche that our great =

Be sure and take advantage of this as we are sacrificing

We wish to heartily thank the public for the most prosperous year in our history and to intimate that our next term will begin the

Send for Catalogue

oal

promptly attended to

We're justified in crowing over our competitors. Our cocks, stop cocks, etc., are cock of the pipe. Our joints don't leak. Sewer gas we lead out. We don't find it in the house except when we fix some other fellow's plumbing Ever have your house tested for sewer gas and leaks? That's one thing we do Then we fix things. It's worth the cost.

Cock=a= Doodle=do

F. W. CARR, Plumber CAMPBELLTON, N. B

ballroom from the south. All the Hungarian men friends of 12-13wks. the count wore full military costumes Foreign Guests to Attend. Among the foreign guests at the

