READY-MONEY MORTGAGE
A MATTER-OF-FACT STORY.

"The most absurd thing," he said, "is the fact that I have been allowed to live in my own home for the last five years, and now you want to evict me."

"Why, my dear fellow," said Mrs. M. "It is not at all absurd. It is a matter of fact. You have been in possession of the property for five years, and now you are being evicted."

"But I have been in possession of the property for five years," said the man. "I have paid my taxes, and I have kept it in good repair. Why should I be evicted now?"

"Because you have been in possession of the property for five years," said Mrs. M. "You have not paid your taxes, and you have not kept it in good repair. You are being evicted now because you are not a tenant in good faith."

"I have paid my taxes," said the man. "I have kept it in good repair. I have been in possession of the property for five years. Why should I be evicted now?"
