

THE CONCEPTION-BAY MAN.

[FROM THE MORNING POST.]

The information received by the Tug Boat Blue Jacket, which arrived yesterday, not only confirms the intelligence previously received at the Telegraphic and General News Agency, and which was referred to in this Journal last week, relative to the whereabouts of the Agamemnon on the 23rd June, but furnishes the further and more interesting particulars of the position of the Cable Fleet on the evening of the 24th, with the exception of the Gorgan, which would probably have come up with the others that night, so that it may be safely assumed that the Wire Squadron reached the mid-ocean rendezvous by the 25th, on which day there were strong breezes from the South-west by West with thick hazy weather, high seas and a heavy, Westerly swell, so that we have again to repeat the expression of the hope that they did not attempt to splice until after the 25th, and it is not likely they did, as the indications of unfavorable weather would have been sufficiently plain before the preliminary arrangements for splicing could have been completed.

The informant, alluded to in the Morning Post last week, stated the Agamemnon to have been seen on the 23rd June, in Lat. 53,36, Long. 30.6, steering West.

The Blue Jacket reports that on the 24th June, Lat. 51.32 N., Long. 32 W. they saw a large double-bank frigate, with cog-wheels fore and aft for paying out with, which passed within a mile of them, and a large paddle steamer about half a mile off; towards evening, as the Blue Jacket was losing sight of them, another large war steamer was seen bearing down on them, which, of course, was the Niagara.

The two vessels first seen were both British, and made signals, which, the Blue Jacket, not having the signal code, could not understand. The steamer last seen was not near enough for them to discern her national colours.

From the Log-Book of the Blue Jacket it appears that after the 25th the weather was thick, wind moderate, until the 3rd July, when there was a strong gale S. W. by W. with a high sea.—Lat. by observation 52. 12 North—whether or not the Cable Fleet would seriously have felt its effects, must remain a matter of speculation until further intelligence shall be received.

From the London Times.

We have received the following message from the Foreign-office:—

"The following telegram from the British Acting Agent and Consul-General at Alexandria, was received at the Foreign-office June 28, at 8, 30 a. m.:

ALEXANDRIA, JUNE 28.

"The steamer Madras arrived yesterday at Suez, with Bombay dates to the 5th of June. Send this by the steamer Taurus to Malta, which also carries the Mail.

"Sir H. Rose captured Calpee on the 23d May, having been twice ineffectually attacked by the rebels during his advance. Sir H. Rose made his approach by the river side, below Calpee, having entered into communication with Colonel Maxwell, who held a position on the west bank of the Jumna so as to shell the town and fort.

"The enemy offered no resistance, and the city fell without any loss on our part. A rapid pursuit was made by cavalry, and the result was the capture of all the guns, elephants, and ammunition.

"Chundaree, which had been attacked by the insurgents, has been recaptured from them by Smith's brigade sent from Goonan.

"Gwalior has been attacked and plundered by the insurgents.

"After the relief of Shahjehanpore by Brigadier Jones, he was surrounded by masses of the enemy. This was on the 15th of May, on which day Sir Colin Campbell left Bareilly with the whole of his disposable force, reaching Shahjehanpore on the 18th. The 23d he drove back the enemy, capturing Mohuudee (q. Moulie?).

"On the 26th Sir Colin Campbell occupied Jellalabad, on the Futtehghu road.

"Mr. C. R. Manson, Political Agent in the Southern Mahrat country, has been murdered. Much difficulty has been experienced in disarming that district.

"Qude is still disturbed' the rebels again approaching Lucknow. It was not thought however, they would venture on an attack, as the city is fully defended, and the garrison very strong.

"J. GREEN."

"This telegram arrived from Alexandria by the steamer Taurus at 8 p. m. June 27.

"M. STOPFORD, Rear Admiral.

IMPORTANT FROM SALT LAKE.

BIG TREES, June 1st.

Mr. George Webber has just arrived direct from Carson Valley, and brings the following news: A report reached Carson Valley that 1500 Mormon families are now on their way to the latter place, and that Brigham Young had fled for parts unknown. The report was brought and communicated to Asa Canion by some Shoshone and Pahyate Indians. Mr. Canion considers the news reliable, from the fact that he has had frequent news by the same Indians, and he has never found them to be false in a single instance. Mr. Canion is a trader at or near Ragtown. Mr. Webber states that the Walker river gold mines had proven a failure.

The rush to the Frazer river gold mines continues. About 2,500 persons have passed through this city since April 20th, mostly miners from the interior counties of California. It is estimated that about 5,000 are already collected in Puget Sound, en route for the new El Dorado.

During the week, ending May 22nd, 640,000 dols was coined at the United States Branch Mint, consuming 86,222,96 ounces (Troy) of gold bullion.

(FROM THE INDIA-HOUSE.)

On Monday, June 28, received the following message, dated Malta:—

To J. D. DICKENSON, Esq., INDIA-HOUSE LONDON.

BOMBAY PRESIDENCY.

Serious disturbances have occurred in Gud-duck, in the Dharwar Collectorate; the outbreak was headed by Bheem Rao, of Koomderger, and the Desayee of Hembge, who obtained possession of the Fort Fowl (q. v.) by treachery; the chief of Nurgoon was suspected of being chiefly implicated. The acting Political agent, Mr. C. T. Menon, attended by a few horse-men, proceeded rapidly to the Nurgoon district, in the hope of restoring order, when he was treacherously attacked on the night of May 29, by 800 men, headed by the chief of Nagoond, and killed with all his escort. It being greatly feared that the disaffection would spread all over the Southern Mahratta country, reinforcements have been ordered to proceed immediately to Belgaum and Kolapoor; in the meantime it is hoped that the outbreak has been promptly repressed. A Madras column, under Major Hughes, June 1, took the fort of Copal by assault, and among the slain were Bheem Rao and the Desayee; on the same day Malcolm, with a light Bombay detachment, arrived at Nurgoon and stormed the town. On the next day he occupied the [fort?], which was evacuated during the night. A pursuit of the Chief was then commenced, and intelligence has just been received that the chief was captured by Mr. Southern, the Superintendent of Police, on June 2d.

THE CONCEPTION-BAY MAN

WEDNESDAY, July 14 1858.

Who are the Government now? Such is the enquiry which was lately made by a venerable Planter.—We hasten to reply:—The same unprincipled Cabal, which took advantage of a time of excitement and party prejudice, to seize the reins of power, and who still retain it at the expense of truth and probity and at the sacrifice of a People's liberty. Nothing is gained by Mess. Little and Emerson's removal from the Executive Council; men of less ability, but of character not less notoriously venal, fill their places.—The tail is sufficiently lengthy for its members successively to occupy all "lucrative Government Offices" and verge enough for more! The offices are valuable but the incumbents should not be envied, they may continue to fatten on the taxes, whilst the poor cry for bread, they may still pay off old mortgages and rear their palaces with the money wrung from the toil of the Fisherman, whilst the aged and helpless widowed and orphans must shrink in their destitute and miserable cabins; They may continue to increase the revenue, to swell the civil list to increase retiring salaries, to raise legislative contingencies, to create new offices, and to neglect the Outports; All this may be done, and for the sake of order and the peace of society may be patiently borne, but there is something in the conviction that the constitution is deliberately and systematically violated by our rulers.—That by their insidious acts liberty is prostrated in the dust, and that they tread as upon necks, whilst the people's cry for freedom is stifled to the death.—We repeat there is something in such rule which jars upon the heart strings, and enters into the souls of all who value the birthright of British Subjects or recognize the claims of humanity.

Nothing connected with the policy of the day is too insignificant for observation—nothing so despicable, but that good may be educed; even Mr. Little's address, bombastic and trashy as it is, affords a hint which should be laid to account. He says:—

"I shall oppose every attempt to alter the present system of Representation of the several Electoral Districts of this Island, as I consider it as just to all parties as any that can be adopted under existing circumstances."

So that altho by the late census it is shown that the Representation is most unfair—that thousands of people have been defrauded of even a nominal Representation in the Assembly, altho by that census the Brigus, Harbor Grace, Carbonear, and Bay Verbs Districts, are each entitled to an additional Member according to Population. Yet the People of this Bay must submit to this wrong to suit the purposes of the ruling powers. On behalf of this population we put the question—Are our Members to aid in the perpetuation of this grievous wrong? Waiving all other objections, forgiving the plunder of the Poor Money, forgetting Baccaloo Light House, and our local requirements, such as water tanks, by which the Town might have been saved from fire, losing sight of increased taxation, Labrador included, and passing for the nonce the French exclusive fishery rights, as advocated by the Ministry.—In short overlooking every other wrong, and admitting every claim urged by the Newfoundlanders upon the people's gratitude—we contend that the violation of the Constitution alone in cases of unfair representation, and Representative corruption, would, in any other civilized country on the face of the globe, swamp to all intents and purposes a much more Talented, Patriotic, and Liberal Ministry than that by which this Country is at present embarrassed and impoverished.

(For the Conception Bay Man).

MR. EDITOR,—

Is there truth in the Report that a change is likely to take place in our representation. That there is a good time coming, was generally believed, but the People this end of the Town did not expect it very early. We would hail with satisfaction an offer which may enable us to return to the assembly, a man who would despise a bribe himself, and use his influence to counteract its effect upon others. If a pledge to this effect were heartily and honestly given, it would be the Candidates own fault or the fault of his committee if he was not triumphantly returned.

QUERIST

OUR Correspondent is welcome to all the information we can afford upon the subject alluded to. We have been assured that an independent and public spirited Citizen, being dissatisfied with the conduct of the Government, is determined to become a Candidate for the representation of the district: we have not the advantage of being in his confidence, neither are we aware of the extent and character of his opposition, but as many of his fellow Citizens are ready to support him, it is probable that a committee will shortly be organised, if not already done, when the nature of the pledge required will doubtless be made public. For the reasons given in our leader to day, we would require one pledge more than our correspondent deems sufficient, one which, like his own, involves in the breach, a violation of constitutional principles.—To wit—Population numerically, and ratably, the basis of representation in every district. Elevated far beyond his competitors, by the sentiments such pledges would indicate, the man who first evinced the spirit essential to the overthrow of a corrupt system, should, irrespective of other considerations, be faithfully and zealously supported.

WE are sorry to state that our Fishery prospects are not so good as at the commencement of the caplin cool, very little have been taken lately by the hook and line; but we understand some good hauls have been made with the seine; a proof that there is an abundance in the Bay, but glutted with bait. It is reasonable to expect that, like our ministerial responsables, they will bite again by and bye.

WE commend attention to the notices of Building Painting &c. the parties advertising are masters of their business, and it is no bad criterion of character, that they set the example to Tradesmen of contributing to the support of a liberal press.
