

Everyday Etiquette.

Is it right to introduce the person you are walking with to people whom you meet and who join you? inquired Ruth.

"When you meet a friend on the street while walking with another friend and stop just for a minute it is not necessary for you to introduce your friends to each other unless you have reasons to believe that they would be congenial and mutually interested in each other. Of course, when a friend joins you, while you are walking with another friend, you should introduce them," answered her sister.

Blue and yellow is a frequent autumn combination, and with a tiny touch of red, gives the Roumanian colors.

Flaming Zeppelin Crashed to Earth Back of Farmyard

Special Star Cable by Wilbur S. Forest, of the United Press.

London, Oct. 2.—The huge super-Zeppelin, shot down in last night's attempted raid on London, crumpled up and broke into several pieces as it plunged earthward before the eyes of thousands of Londoners. Fragments fell for fifty to sixty yards apart, and with them mangled bits of bodies. Thus far the corpses of six Germans have been recovered. The other bodies of the Zeppelin sailors are believed to have been scattered over a wide area.

Unlike previous raids in the vicinity of London, last night's attack was signalled by no tremendous gun firing. A few shots from anti-air craft guns brought thousands to the rooftops or to the streets, throughout London. They gazed toward the starlit heavens while searchlights converged their silver shafts on a Zeppelin, the whir of whose engines could be heard very faintly.

The Zeppelin was lost to view for a moment. Then suddenly a small red speck appeared in the heavens, gradually growing into a red ball of fire. The flames spread like lightning up the country for miles around.

Indescribable Spectacle.

The Zeppelin seemed to stand still for the moment, presenting an indescribable spectacle. Its blazing flaming fabric silhouetted the aluminium framework. Every detail stood out as if illumined by some artist depicting a scene from hell.

For several seconds the burning airship rested on even keel. Then it tilted downward and shot towards the earth like a rocket. Pieces of flaming material separated themselves from the main mass, dropping along the side in long, flaming tongues that gave the plunging fiery mass the appearance of a comet.

An awe-inspiring silence settled over the crowd as the Zeppelin fell. There were no explosions. No roar from the rush through the air of this great body reached the London crowds. But with the dying afterglow, a mighty cheer rolled up from North London and swept the entire city, registering England's triumph.

Crew Leaped to Death.

The commander of the destroyed Zeppelin was found in a field near part of the wreck this morning, still alive, but terribly injured. He had been driven into the wreckage with such force that the imprint of his body was plainly visible when he was picked up. Thirteen bodies had been recovered at noon.

Except for part of the envelope, there is left hardly a vestige recognizable as part of the huge airship. The members of the crew were incinerated beyond recognition. The bodies were scattered over the field on which the airship alighted, some eighty yards from a farmer's cottage. Evidently the German jumped from the gondola as it neared the ground.

Neither the airship which was destroyed nor the second one which attacked London succeeded in penetrating the outer defences of the capital. Little or no damage was done by either of them, or by the eight others which operated over eastern counties.

Nearly Fell On Farmhouse.

The fourth Zeppelin raider to be shot down on English soil within four weeks fell near a farm house north of London just before midnight last night. Crowds flocked to the scene to-day. The farm house itself narrowly escaped destruction as the flaming airship came plunging down out of the sky. The farmer, his wife and children, went into the cellar. Then they heard a terrific crash and, rushing upstairs, saw a great burning mass at the rear of the house.

The Zeppelin fell near Potter's Bar, Lord French, commander-in-chief of the home forces, announced to-day. The remainder of the raiding Zeppelins wandered aimlessly through the eastern counties and Lincolnshire, dropping bombs promiscuously. Most of the missiles fell in the open country.

Only a few minutes elapsed between the time searchlights spotted the Zeppelin and the time of its fall.

Ten Airships in Raid.

Ten Zeppelins in all took part in the raid over England. Two of them attempted to attack London.

Following is an official account of the raid.

"Ten airships crossed the East Coast last night between nine o'clock and midnight. One airship approached the north of London at about ten p.m., but was driven off by gunfire and pursued by aeroplanes. She attempted to return from the north-west, but was attacked by guns and aeroplanes and brought to earth in flames in the neighbourhood of Potter's Bar shortly before midnight.

"A second airship attempted to attack London from the northeast and was driven off. Bombs were dropped,

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE

for the health of the family? The mother, of course! She is naturally particular to give her children only the purest of internal medicines, but she may not always know that a remedy applied to the skin enters the child's system by absorption, just as surely as a medicine that is swallowed. This is a fact, and the mother should, therefore, use only the purest ointment obtainable.

Scientific analysis has proved Zam-Buk to be absolutely pure. The great English Chemist, Mr. W. Lascelles Scott, says: "I have made an exhaustive analysis of Zam-Buk and have no hesitation in certifying its purity and its inestimable value for skin ailments and it is also—

Although the healing powers of Zam-Buk are beyond those of other ointments, it is at the same time so refined that it agrees with the most sensitive skin—even the skin of a baby. Mothers who have once used it say they cannot do without Zam-Buk.

It is best for eczema and all skin diseases, ringworm, blood-poison, scalp sores, ulcers, boils, pimples, piles, burns, scalds, cuts, etc. AM drugists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

ZAM-BUK

No reports of casualties or damage have yet been received.

"The remaining airships wandered aimlessly over the eastern counties. In Lincolnshire bombs were dropped promiscuously. Most of them appear to have been dropped in open country without doing damage.

"The airship destroyed was of the latest type."

Ominous Red Glow.

A writer in a morning newspaper, telling of the winging of the Zeppelin, says:—

"It was about 11.30 when searchlights first began to stab the sky and a humming in the air indicated the presence of a Zeppelin in this district. At about a quarter to twelve heavy firing was heard.

"The Zeppelin was then seen, looking like a silver pencil, and very high up. The guns continued to fire at it, but soon afterwards it disappeared. Five minutes later guns began firing again, and some shells burst very close to their objectives.

"Then a red spot glowed in the sky just as on the previous occasion a week ago. The light travelled from point to point along the back of the Zeppelin, which flared up and, dropping into a perpendicular position began its descent. It seemed at first to drop rather slowly. Immediately it disappeared the sky was lit up."

Fell Close To Haystack.

The farmer in whose field the raider came down gave the following account of its destruction:—

"It was nearly midnight when I first heard the guns. I warned my wife and we got up. I went out in front of the house and there I saw a Zeppelin almost above us.

"It seemed as if it might fall at any moment on the house. I took my wife and children into the cellar to safety. A second or two later the great thing began to fall. It was one mass of flames. It actually fell in a field behind my farmyard and quite close to a haystack.

"So far as I knew it has not done any damage, but it is possible some of my cows may have been killed."

Statement During Raid.

An official statement issued shortly after midnight reads:—

"A number of hostile airships crossed the east coast between 9 and midnight. A few bombs were dropped near the coast, but no damage is yet reported.

"The raid is still in progress and smaller ships are in the vicinity of London, where some guns have been in action.

"An airship is reported brought down in flames north of London."

Constant Headaches

When the nervous system gets run down one of the most persistent symptoms is headache. Nervous headache has been described as the cry of the starved brain for more blood.

Because of its remarkable blood-forming and blood-enriching qualities, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food ranks first as a means of overcoming nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, headache, indigestion, sleeplessness, irritability and all the annoying symptoms of nervous breakdown.

It is not a mere relief, but reconstructs the wasted and depleted nerve cells.

Five Lunenburg Men Lost From Fishing Vessel

Schooner Leta J. Schwartz Reports Sad Loss on Arrival From the Banks.

Lunenburg, October 3.—With her flags drooping pathetically at half-mast, the schooner Leta J. Schwartz, Capt. John Schwartz, arrived in port this morning and reported the loss of five of her crew in the gale of September 24th. The men, who were heading a sail, were all washed overboard by a sea that swept dories and everything movable overboard. There is only one dory left on the schooner, and that is badly damaged. Captain Schwartz was badly shaken up and received painful injuries during the storm. The names of the drowned men are: Artemas and Joseph Zinck, of Blandford; Morris Schwartz, son of Edward Schwartz, of Lunenburg; Harry Heckman, son of Herbert Heckman, Heckman's Island, and Josiah Winslett, of Stonehurst. The Leta J. Schwartz was the last schooner of the fleet to come home, and the tragic happening has cast a gloom over the town.

Take "Cascarets" If Headachy, Bilious And Constipated

Best for liver and bowels, bad breath, bad colds, sour stomach.

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed, white, blue, blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

John D. Rockefeller a Billionaire

His Quarter Interest in Standard Oil Alone is Worth $500,000,000.

New York, October 2.—The boom in Standard Oil stocks on the curb and "over the counter" Friday carried prices so far forward that stock of the standard of New Jersey as it existed before the dissolution, was worth more than $2,000 a share. The highest price for the stock before the supreme court decree was put into effect five years ago, was $750. Applying yesterday's value of old Standard Oil shares, with the equity in subsidiary companies intact, the market worth of the company's original capital stock was close to $2,000,000,000. This makes John D. Rockefeller, head of the company, easily a billionaire.

Germans Will Starve the Belgians

The Object of the Huns is to Induce Them to Demand Peace—Sugar 72 Cents a Pound.

London, October 5.—Famine is at the doors of Belgium because of the requisitions of the Germans on the conquered population, according to the Times correspondent at Lausanne. Meat is practically unobtainable, he says, and butter very scarce. Potatoes have not been seen for some time and prices are becoming impossible. Coffee is $1.80 a lb., chocolate, $2.40, cocoa, $5 and sugar 72c. The almost disappearance of sea-fish and the excessive cost of meat have made mussels a popular food. The object of the Germans in starving the Belgians is without doubt to induce them to demand peace, the correspondent says.
