Market Notes.

Codfish.—It is estimated that stocks in stores to-day are about 63,000 quin-tals. The foreign markets are good, and export is practically clear. Prospects of high opening prices for new cure were never better.

Cod Oil.—There is little doing now in oil transactions, as about all the product has been exported, and values seem to have fallen off. Common is being quoted at $230 per ton, and Refined at $250 per gallon. Offerings for new oil of this year's make will probably grow stronger as the season advances.

Herring.—Northern holders of Scottish pack are shipping to market large quantities of these herring without touching St. John's. The price is said to be $18 on the spot. At New York the dull season has commenced and consequently sales will be at a minimum. There is a good demand for split herring here at $7.50 for No. 1.

Lobsters.—Reports coming in from the South and West Coasts, indicate that the fishery, so far, is fairly good, but that there are fewer packers this year, owing to prices being low. It is not possible at the moment to say just what opening price will be made.
Our only market being the United States, there is evidence that a fair price may be paid later on.

Provisions.—Quite a run is being made on "White" Flour remaining in stock. Prices of Five Roses and similar grades range from $14.50 to $14.75 and may advance to $15.00. The War Standard grade is offering at $13.50.
Pork is becoming somewhat easier as holders abroad are now anxious to unload. The ruling prices to-day are, Ham, $48 to $48.50; Spare Ribs, $37; whole, $36. Beef is about as cheap as it is going to be this season.
The imports to date are 5,000 barrels short compared with last year. Sugar is being quoted at $9.50 to $9.75, with an improvement anticipated next month. The molasses situation remains unchanged. Fancy and Grocery are quoted at the maximum price of 85 cents the gallon, punchon lots.

Naval Seaman Dies.

Anthony Lambert entered into rest at the Fever Hospital, after a brief illness yesterday morning. Deceased was a native of Lord's Cove, Lamaline, and was only 18 years of age. The funeral took place at 2.30 this afternoon from the institution to Mount Carmel Cemetery. Owing to the disease, which caused his demise, being infectious, the remains could not be sent home for interment. The body was escorted to its last resting place by the officers, ship's company and Royal Naval Reservists and buried with full naval honours.

Green Balls of Fire.

One of the most curious of all anti-aircraft devices is that used by the Germans which is known by our airmen as "green balls," or "flaming onions." This consists of long chains of forty or fifty brilliant green flaming balls which are fired from the ground at hostile machines, and at night present a very beautiful spectacle. They are probably intended to hit the machine, and so set it on fire. It is not known whether these balls of fire are joined together by wire or not, though it seems likely, as that would cause the whole chain of balls to wind themselves firmly round the machine and so set it on fire in several spots.

The balls must be fired with a very strong propelling charge, as although being apparently the size of small footballs, they rise to a height of quite 10,000 feet, where they hang like a rope of glorious emeralds for a few seconds before they die out and fall to the ground like red sparks.

They may possibly be intended as illuminants, as they are fired at night before a machine has been picked up by the searchlights; but when it has been found, and is held in a grip of light, they are still fired, but are now aimed at the machine.

Use "Tiz" For Sore, Tired, Aching Feet

No more puffed-up, burning, sweaty calloused feet or corns.

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, blisters-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot tortures.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait.
Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

They are wearing velvet waistcoats of brilliant colors, with white or black skirts.

LLOYD-GEORGE WELCOMES IM- PERIAL CONFERENCE.

LONDON, To-day.
(Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency.) The Parliamentary supper given by the Empire Parliamentary Association to welcome the Dominions' Premiers was a brilliant affair. The royal galleries of the House of Lords, in which the dinner was served, were crowded by the most distinguished gathering including thirteen past and present Dominion Premiers, most of the Ministers of the Cabinet, and a large number of Commons and Lords, including both Government and Opposition, the High Commissioners of all the Dominions Premiers and other Ministers from overseas now in this country, including Lieut-General Smuts, of South Africa, and The Ma-harajahs of Patiala and Singh.

The gathering numbered over two hundred. The Lord Chancellor presided and proposed the toast to the Premier, Right Hon. David Lloyd George.
Cabinet colleagues among the Dominions, to which Sir Robert Borden, the Canadian Premier, and Hon. Wm.
Hughes, the Australian Premier, replied. The British Premier in counting the Cabinet Ministers of the Dominions said they were leaders of perhaps the most democratic communities of the world, in which we have the shrewdness, sagacity and courage they bring to bear on problems of Empire. He said, "These periodical conferences with the statement of the Dominions were most helpful and stimulating to British Ministers. The conferences are the source of the greatest inspiration and support to us who have borne the stress and strain of war for years."

He mentioned Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, Hon. Wm. Hughes, Premier of Australia, and Hon. W. A.
Massey, Premier of New Zealand, and said their names were well known and esteemed in the United Kingdom as in their own land. Lloyd George said he regretted that the Premier of South Africa could not be present ("hear, her.") at either this Council or the one which had been held previously.
His absence was proof of his devotion to duty. Mr. Lloyd George specially welcomed the representatives of India, the Maharajah of Patiala and the Maharaja of Singh, who were following the great inherited tradition of attachment to Crown and Empire; their gallant people fight side by side with Britishers who welcome them as worthy comrades.

NOON.

AUSTRIA'S HOME TROUBLES.

LONDON, To-day.
New bread riots broke out in the Favoriten and Britanni districts of Vienna, and there are now more than 150,000 men munition workers on strike in the Austrian capital, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Vienna. An attempt to attack the German Embassy in Vienna, according to Vienna correspondents of Munich newspapers, was dispersed by the police. There were many arrests and some persons were injured. There were cries "Germany is starting us down with Germany." A statement declares that demonstrators held up trams, broke windows and looted food shops and bakers' carts. At the Municipal Council meeting, Herr Nue-mann, representing the Socialists, denounced the Brat-Livon peace and fraud and declared the situation was untenable.

SINN FEIN AGGRESSIVE.

DUBLIN, To-day.
Leading Sinn Feiners yesterday announced that in the future any vacancies in Parliament will be contested as was that of East Cork, to which Arthur Griffiths, Sinn Fein candidate, was elected. Even where the Sinn Fein candidates are in prison, the leaders declare they expect to bring about a complete rout of the Nationalist Party.

MAKING PARENTS RESPONSIBLE.

LONDON (Bulletin) To-day.
According to the Vienna Neue Freie Presse, during serious street rioting in Vienna, the police and military force called out and took strict measures, and issued warning to parents, making them responsible for the actions of their children, and a large exchange Telegraph despatch from Copenhagen.

CLAIMS ITALIAN VICTORY.

ROME (Bulletin) To-day.
The battle situation is unchanged, and infantry engagements were not resumed during Friday, says the statement issued last night, to the Italian Parliament, by Premier Orlando. It is now permissible to say that the battle has been won, the Premier told the Deputies, Friday morning, according to the Tribune. The Austrians, the Premier added, are now gathering all available men in certain sections of the mountain front. Only a small part of their reserves have been drawn on by the Italians.

Latest.

EVEN EXCHANGE.

LONDON, To-day.
Germany has proposed to Austria to send twelve German divisions to the Italian front to replace twelve Austrian divisions to be sent to France, says an unconfirmed report in circulation in Holland, transmitted by the Daily Mail correspondent at the Hague.

THE IRISH SITUATION.

LONDON, To-day.
The British Government regards their proposals of Irish Home Rule and Conscriptio, as postponed, but in no wise abandoned. The Times says it understands conscription will not be withdrawn, but will efforts be relaxed to frame a measure of self-government for Ireland. Recent events have convinced the Government that the first business is to establish law and order, but their policy is unchanged. Newspapers say that the Nationalist members of Parliament will return to Westminster next Tuesday.

The Nationalists believe according to a report from Dublin that conscription is dead but that Home Rule has only been shelved.

A NEW MOVE.

GENEVA, To-day.
The Germans are massing more and more Allied prisoners, both officers and men, along the Rhine and in frontier towns, says the Lausanne Gazette. An Alsatian newspaper reports that five Allied prisoners were killed and six wounded, during a recent air raid on Thionville, Germany.

USING EXPLOSIVE BULLETS.

ITALIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN NORTHERN ITALY, To-day. (By the Associated Press.)—One out of every ten Italian soldiers, wounded in the present fighting, bears positive indications of the use of explosive bullets by the Austrians. Capt. Thwaite of the American Red Cross has been informed of this by hospital directors.

RAILWAY TRAGEDY.

CHICAGO, To-day.
A report from Gary, Indiana, says that an accident on the Michigan Central Railway at East Gary resulted in the death and injury of more than one hundred persons.
