NEW ZEALAND BEAT FRENCH ARMY.

LONDON, April 19th.

The Reuters' Ottawa Agency.— only weather, and the prospect of interesting game, drew an attention of 1700 to Twickenham today to watch the Rugby Match between the New Zealanders and the French Army teens, which resulted in a win for New Zealanders by a score of 20 to 3. His Majesty King George, The Prince of Wales, Prince Albert, Prince

Henry, Field Marshal Sir Douglas

Haig, The High Commissioner for

New Zealand, The French Ambassador, and many other distinguished persons were present. Before the match began the rival teams lined up on the playing field, and the King looked hands with each player on both sides. The King then congratulated the New Zealanders, to whom presented the cup, which His Majesty had offered to the winners of the recent Inter-services Rugby tournament. The New Zealanders the first half showed nothing like the determination which characterized their efforts against the Mother country last Wednesday, repeatedly growing chances away by forward passes. After fifteen minutes' play the Englishman kicked well showing the speed. At the interval the score stood 3 to 3.

Towards the New Zealanders overwhelmed the Frenchmen. Hazell, set, Kissick, Brown and Ford, each scored tries. Ryan converted all four.

The score stood New Zealand 20 to 3 French Army 3.

WOOD STILL A COMPETITOR.

LONDON, April 20.

Major J. C. P. Wood, who was forward to descend on the Irish Coast, while flying from East Church to America, on the first leg of his proposed flight across the Atlantic, has sent the following message to the press:

"I am still a competitor and hope to be ready to start early in May." The despatch says that Major Wood's plane, the Shamrock, is packed on a freight car on a siding at Holyhead, and probably will be sent to East

Church to-morrow.

Weekly Despatch. "I was obliged to descend twelve miles from land. I am still a competitor and hope to

freight car on a siding at Holyhead,

HOPING FOR ASSISTANCE.

VIENNA, April 20.
Forces commanded by Petlura, Ukrainian Peasant leader, have secured the adhesion of ten thousand Bolshevik troops. The plan of cutting behind Bolsheviks, advancing on Odessa, apparently are succeeding.
Petlura is still hoping for Allied assistance.

Lieut. Newman, M.C.

Mr. John F. Newman of the General Post Office has received a letter from the Minister of Militia, conveying his congratulations and appreciation of the splendid conduct of his son, Lieut.
Newman, and quoting an extract from the supplement to the London Gazette giving the details of the gallantry which won the Military Cross. The extract is as follows:—

"For conspicuous bravery and initiative. On the 14th October, during the advance from Ledeghem towards the Lys, a hostile battery of field guns, firing at very close range temporarily held up the attack. Lieut.
Newman grasping the situation at once decided to outflank the battery from the right. He led his platoon forward, and although fired on at point blank range, continued to advance by rushes. When within 500 yards of the battery, his platoon came under intense machine gun fire, and casualties were becoming heavy that further progress was impossible. He at once sent a Lewis gun with two men to outflank the battery from the right, the fire from this gun eventually forced the enemy back to a farm. Lieut. Newman charged back with his platoon, captured the battery, four machine guns, one officer and seven men.
He then pushed on to the next farm and captured an ammunition wagon with transport and several more prisoners. By this quick decision and good service throughout the War, and his many friends and those of his parents have reason to rejoice because of the distinguished honor conferred upon him. The young Lieut., who, rumor says, will shortly return, bringing with him a bride from the Old Land, is a son of Mr. John F. Newman one of the senior officials in the General Post Office, who to-day is receiving congratulations from the staff.

itiative—a credential which not only points to the record of a successful past, but fortifies a more successful future. It is noteworthy that the two men of Lieut. Newman's platoon were Newfoundlanders: the gallant V. C., Private Ricketts, and his courageous comrade, Corporal Brazil.

FOR CABLE OPERATORS.
LONDON, April 20.
The newly formed Cable Operators' Association protests to Lloyd George and Wilson against other companies withholding recognition, and the Association asks for a six-hour day and voluntary retirement at fifty, and compulsory retirement at fifty-five.
