REMOVAL.

G. B. FRASER

Has removed directly opposite his old stand, where he has opened with a brand new stock at much lower prices than could be bought earlier in the season.

G. B. Fraser is too modest to advertise that he is selling much cheaper than those who make a great blow. Still facts are stubborn chieftains, and a discerning public pronounce Fraser's to be the cheap store to deal in.

G. B. Fraser gives his old friends a cordial invitation, and invites all who wish to save money to call and see his new stock.

G. B. FRASER,

Shaw & Murton,

MERCHANT TAILORS

Since the late rains the country is beginning to assume a promising appearance, and the farming community is much encouraged thereby.

The Division Court sat here yesterday, Judge Chadwick presiding. The business was light; there were more lawyers in attendance than suits to be disposed of. The members of the black robe numbered five, including the Deputy Master in Chancery, and the suits numbered about three.

There was one suit, however, which occupied considerable time, and besides engaged much of the attention of those present. It was a case in which Wm. Meekin was plaintiff and Jas. A. Farrall defendant. The plaintiff's claim was for $36, three month's wages at $12 per month. Defendant denied that he owed the plaintiff anything, and endeavored to make out that plaintiff came to his hotel in the capacity of a boarder, and remained for some time without paying anything. In the meantime he was doing a few jobs at his own instance, for which the wages sued on were claimed. Both plaintiff and defendant were sworn, and the evidence was very conflicting. His Honor was impressed with the idea that the defendant's version was the correct one, and ordered a nonsuit accordingly. A. H. Macdonald for plaintiff; J. P. MacMillan and O'Connor, for defendant.

There is some rumour that it is the intention to remove this Court to Aberfoyle, at least it is believed that Judge Chadwick favors the idea.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—Dr. Kenaley, of Tichenborne notoriety, is in Ottawa. He was the guest of Lord Dufferin on Saturday. He has come on business in connection with the developing of mining interests in Nova Scotia.

BRANKEFART.—Epps's Cocoa.—GRATYVEL AND COMPANYING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. —Civil Service Gazette.
