

MAINLY ABOUT WOMEN

THE CONSUMERS' LEAGUE

The following constitution has been adopted by the Consumers' League of Calgary:

The name of this organization shall be The Consumers' League of Calgary.

The Object.

(a) To investigate the increasing cost of living and to counteract the same by any legitimate means within their power.

(b) To study and teach the principles of co-operation in connection with home economics.

(c) To watch, influence, and promote civic legislation in connection with either of the foregoing clauses.

Membership.

Any resident of Calgary may become a member of the league on payment of an annual fee of twenty-five cents.

Officers.

(1) The officers shall be President, Secretary, and Treasurer, who shall attend to the general current work of the association.

(2) There shall be four ward divisions, with officers, consisting of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall have power to appoint such committees as they see fit.

(3) No person interested in the sale of household necessities shall be privileged to hold office.

Executive.

The executive shall consist of the President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the central organization, together with the officers of the ward divisions.

Meetings.

The league will be governed by an annual meeting to be held in April of each year.

(a) The business of the annual meeting would be to receive reports from executive officers.

(b) To elect officers for the ensuing year by ballot from the members of the league.

(c) To transact such other business as may arise in connection with the league.

Altruist Club.

The annual meeting of the Altruist club of Calgary was held in the home of Miss Peckham.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Morehouse; president, Miss E. Maberly; vice-president, Miss E. Maberly; secretary, Miss E. Maberly; treasurer, Miss Toth; convener of sick committee, Miss Peckham; convener of social and entertainment committee, Miss C. Palmer.

We regret to state that two of our most loyal members in the persons of Miss Lydes and Jessie Most are leaving us for Vancouver at the end of June.

The rest of the evening was spent in games and refreshments were served at the close.

Among those present were Miss G. Williams, Miss Sinclair, Miss Merrill and Mrs. Peckham.

Mrs. Pinkham has returned from Victoria where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. L. F. Crow.

Mrs. Bert Petersly is the guest of her mother, Mrs. P. Cooper of Medicine Hat.

Mr. and Miss Hutchinson are visitors at the Hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Syden Keith are guests of Mrs. Bugenton, Medicine Hat.

Mrs. A. L. Sifton of Edmonton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Sisley.

Bishop and Mrs. Pinkham have as their guests Mrs. and Miss Crowe of Victoria.

SALE OF WORK.

A very successful sale of work was held yesterday afternoon and evening in St. Barnabas' church, Hillhurst, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary.

Many pretty things were offered for sale, as well as homemade candy and cakes. During the sale refreshments were served, the ladies of the congregation vying with each other in making the affair in every way a success.

At 10 o'clock very few articles were unsold, while the cakes and candies were quite cleared out.

Cinderella Club Dances.

The Cinderella club held one of its regular delightful little dances in Moose Hall, Beveridge block, last evening, when a large number of members took advantage of the cool weather to enjoy a little hop. The Unity orchestra provided its usual bright up-to-date music.

M.N.R. Club Dance.

The M.N.R. club had a treat at their dance last night, in the shape of one of the most famous mandolin players in the United States and Canada, Mr. Thompson.

Mr. Thompson played a selection in his inimitable style and won the applause of the large number of members and friends who frequent these successful little dances.

Social Hop Club.

The last dance of the Social Hop club took place last night in Al Azhar, a large number of friends and members being present. The affair was as ever successful, Mr. Loggan's 103rd orchestra providing the music. These dances which have been a great feature of the dancing season, will start again in the fall.

Harvey—Ohvir.

At St. Matthew's, Surbiton, England, on April 25th, Gerald Harvey, second son of Alfred R. Harvey, of London, England to Miss Helena W. Ohvir, daughter of William Ashley of Calgary.

Mrs. H. P. Sheffield and her little son Teddy are leaving today for Victoria, where they will spend the summer.

Mother Goose and Her Friends.

The Mission Band of Wesley Methodist church will give an entertainment on Friday at 8 p.m., entitled "Mother Goose and Her Friends."

Golf Competition Finished.

The final of the ladies' handicap at the Golf and Country club was played yesterday, Miss Farrow and Mrs. H. D. Hill having tied last week. Miss Farrow won the game with a score of 102 against Mrs. Hill's record of 103.

Press Club Special Meeting.

A special meeting of Calgary Women's Press club is called for this afternoon at 4:30 in the "Y." It is hoped that every member will be present as final arrangements will then be made for the publication of the special "Press Club Opportunity Number."

The Western Standard, which is coming out on June 13 as a souvenir for the Canadian Women's Press club delegates expected here on that day, and as a general summary of Calgary since the beginning and down to the present day. The Calgary Press club holds itself responsible for the success of this paper, a boost one for Calgary.

To Meet Mayor Sinnott.

The economic committee of the Local Council of Women, which last night formally evolved into a Consumers' league will interview Mayor Sinnott this morning at 11 o'clock, in his office, with a view to receiving the backing of his workshop and the city council in obtaining a public market for Calgary.

Canadian Club Luncheon.

The Women's Canadian club on Tuesday, the King's birthday, are holding a luncheon in Crown's Bath-keller at 1.15. Col. Cruikshank will be present, and the present "War and Peace." Tickets on sale at Neilson's furniture store, 4 to 6, Friday and Saturday, and 10 to 12 on Monday.

GLANVILLE'S FIFTH MONTHLY

Dollar Day

To Women who Read our Advertisements and Profit thereby, DOLLAR DAY is not by any means an innovation. Our First Dollar Day was launched 4 months ago, and proved such a phenomenal success that it has been a regular monthly event here, looked forward to by all thrifty women.

Glanville quality and supreme value have been the outstanding features of every Dollar Day. Our merchandising ideas may be emulated by others, but our values are securely entrenched, because our goods are of the highest character, and our prices the lowest consistent with quality. We do not deserve your patronage by right of precedence, but by right of value. Study the specials we have prepared for today. Note the timeliness of every item and you will agree that these are the best offerings you ever heard of for One Dollar.

Linen Table Cloths

Worth $2.75 and $3.50

An opportunity to secure beautiful clothes at a mere fraction of their worth, produced through peculiar circumstances. We recently ordered for a prominent cafe, linens with the name of cafe woven in centre of each cloth. The instilling of a lunch counter has done away with the need of tablecloths, consequently we have the linens on our hands. We have been commissioned to sell them at a sacrifice, the management to make good to us the difference in price. The linens are of exceptional fine quality in a handsome floral design. The name in the centre can easily be covered with a serviette. Two sizes: 54x54 inches, worth $2.75; 60x60 inches, worth $3.50.

Table Napkins

Worth $4.50 Dozen

Napkins to match the above mentioned cloths, in the same excellent quality linen; large size, 24x24 inches. Regular $4.50 dozen.
