THE GOWANSTOWN TRAGEDY.

A Youth Admits That He Shot Old Mrs. Martin and Then Fired the Building. Martin and Then Fired the Building.
Listowell, S.pt. 20.—The terrible suspicion regarding the death of old Mrs. Martin at Gowanstown has proved to have been founded on fact. When the body of the old lady was found in the smoking embers of the Martin homestead, it was thought at first to have been one of those lamentable accidents which at times occur in spite of the carefulness of the average farmer's household, but the subsequent discovery that the hired boy. Albert Thomas (an importation from England, aged 18), and disappeared, led some to think that foul play might have been at the bottom of old Mrs. Martin's death, and the burning of the house. Late yesterday afternoon Thomas was captured. Ho at first denied having had anything to do with the affair, but after discussing his recent quarrels with Mrs. Martin he acknowledged that he had shot the old lady and then fired the building. Thomas ways he only found $27 in the house. His case will be investigated to-morrow.
