LONDON, Wednesday, March 29,
WEEKLY REVIEW.

There is very little change in the grain situation here since our last weekly exist. Wheat has been the leading commodity among the deliveries, and the receipts of it were small. Foreign markets seem to fit were small. Foreign markets seem to the markets have not made any important change. Sales of red at $110, and or ownite at $112. Delveries of oats improved considerably, but are still small; values here are easier, but not a low as quoted at Toronto; $1 was paid for some poor lots, and ordinary good samples so dat $1 63 to $105. There has been almost no deliveries of any other kinds of grain, and prices are based on latest transactions.

took matters very coolly. Implicit faith was put in the captain's word. He said that he had been fifteen years on the steamer and was assured that everything would come out all right. Two tows were refused during the six days that they lay idly on the ocean. One vessel stood by them all night, and another, a German tank steamer, aid not waste any time after she found she was not wanted. Very rough weather was experienced, but there were no fatalities attending the voyage.
