The chief medium for the experiments has been a Mrs. Piper, of Boston, Every precaution has been taken to inate fraud from these tests and the results prove conclusively to Dr. Hyslop that either it was telepathy of most remarkable kind, or else they were direct messages from the dead. To deliver these messages the medium had to pass into a sort of trance, nallucination. This seemed to Dr. Hyslop a reasonable supposition, as the edium would have to take on the same state as the spirit. The medium vas unable to tell anything about the condition of the spirits or the state of ife in the other world. Those who to Dr. Hyslop's views cite trivial natures of the messages as being oo insignificant to prove anything. other arguments advanced against is views, or explanations of the facts f the medium, were that it was teleathy of a highly developed Again, it is the result of forces or rains of thought set in operation by he dead person, and which come into orce now only after years of absence

In Time of Sickness

A hot water bottle is a necessity. In time of health it is a comfort and a luxury. The family without one is without a good friend. The family with one is the family that knows the value of such a friend, and is the family that is safe-guarded against sudden attacks of illness, such as colds, chills, cramps, pains, inflammation, etc.

These bottles are not expensive, as some people think. They are cheap—very cheap, when you consider their usefulness. Sizes, half-pint to three quart. CLINICAL THERMOMETERS and sick room supplies—A complete assortment at reasonable prices.
