daughter, Constance, have returned of next week. from a fortnight's visit in Wardsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie have returned to Toronto, after a very jolly visit with Sheriff and Mrs. Cameron, whose Christmas house party of six gentlemen was much in demand at the different holiday entertainments.

Mrs. Frederick P. Betts' dance on Thursday evening was a very brilliant one. Everybody went early and stayed late, which proves that none of the dancing set, not even the buds, are "blase." The evening was one on which very few hostesses could have gathered together such a goodly number, but the well-known and charming hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Betts triumphed over snow and wind. Mrs. Betts wore a black grenadine toilette, and her debutante daughter was in white crepe de soie, with lace garnitures, and Miss Marjory Betts, who is home from her studies in New York, looked well in white muslin. The guests included Miss Geraldine Beddome, Miss Ina Grand avenue, was hostess of a very Pringle, Miss Peters, Miss Pavey, Miss Pavey, Miss Peters, Miss Peters, Miss Pavey, Miss Peters, son, Miss Tabby Moore, Messrs.
