Fair and warmer in southeast ern part of Michigan.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Detroit. April 12.—With Detroit the scene of one of the contests, and the towns best-hated friends, the Naps, the game in Boston, between the New York contending club, the major league base ball season will be launched on eight lots this afternoon.

Nationals and the Bostons. Manager McGraw, of the New Yorks, said tonight that the choice for pitching the opening this afternoon.

Here the op ning, if the weather man game tomorrow lay between Ames. Raynoon as is its wont.

Co-operates, should be as large an occanound and Mathewson. McGraw also announced that the New York Club had opening, the parade and the other pompthat went well in younger days having been sentenced to a little run for the mythical McSweeney.

Mayor Will Start It.

It is probable that Mayor Breitmeyer, with Charley Bennett as his battery part-ner, will patch one ball before Mr. Mullin mer, win page one oall before Mr. Mullin starts beaving tosses which will have more bearing on the matter in hand.

That will be the extent of the ceremonies, unless somebody comes to the park bearing offerings for the idols, thereby necessitating a few pauses at the plate. James McGuire, one time of the local gast writes home that he is tired of the stage, which he has been following for several weeks.
