LONDON AND DISTRICT

Return From Congress.
Captain Clayton, Bandmaster and Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Norfolk, of this city, have returned home after attending the annual congress of the Salvation Army held in Toronto.

Attending Convention.
Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Hayden are attending a convention of the churches of the western district held at St. Thomas this week. They are to return on Friday.

Death of Mrs. Lawrie.
Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrie, widow of the late James T. Lawrie, of London, died on Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. McIntosh, 339 Huron street, Toronto. Mrs. Lawrie when a resident of London made her home on Princess avenue, and was a member for many years of St. Andrew's Church.
She leaves to survive two daughters, Mrs. J. W. McIntosh, Mrs. D. S. Murray, and one son, Harry R. Messrs.
George and David Heron are brothers, and Miss Grace Heron, of 136 Central avenue, is a sister of the deceased. The funeral will take place from the latter's residence on Thursday afternoon at Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Entertainment at Askin Street.
Despite the disagreeable weather of Tuesday evening, the attendance at the annual entertainment of the scholars of the Askin Street Methodist Church Sunday school, completely filled that edifice, and a large number of latecomers were compelled to stand in or corner to see the performance of the children. Mr. A. M. Hunt, the superintendent of the school, presided, and introduced a pleasing and lengthy program, all of which were furnished by the scholars of the school. The most popular number on the program was perhaps "Mother Goose's Reception," given by the little ones of Miss Thomson's class. Another selection which deserved special mention was the pantomime of the famous hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," presented by the young ladies of Mr. Gregory's class.
This was the most striking selection of the program, and too much credit cannot be given to the young ladies themselves and their instructor. Other selections on the program which were well rendered were given by the primary class and Mr. C. Talbot's class of boys. Miss M. Smith's class and a squad of boys instructed by Captain Gregory. The school orchestra also gave several selections.

Miss E. Noble has removed from Helm'sman's, and will receive her pupils at her new studio over Nord-heimer's piano warehouse.

DARRACH-HOUGHTON

West London Lady Becomes Bride of Regina Man.

A most charming wedding was solemnized at 10 o'clock this morning in St. George's Anglican Church, West London, when Miss Rhoda Houghton, youngest daughter of the late Edward Houghton, of 17 Argyle street, became the bride of Mr. Albert Morley Darrach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil R.
Darrach, of Regina, Sask. Rev. Canon Sage, D. D., performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends of the bride couple, the church being prettily decorated for the event with palms, ferns and flowers.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Tom Houghton, wore a becoming cream-colored tailored suit, with white plush hat faced with black, and veil of white ostrich feathers, and she carried a white morocco prayer-book with several sprays of lilacs of the valley. Her attendant, Miss Marjorie Darrach, of Regina, was attired in old rose satin, veiled with printed chiffon, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

After the ceremony, guests to the number of about thirty-five, assembled at the home of the bride, where refreshments were extended, and a buffet luncheon served. Mr. and Mrs.
Darrach then left in the 12:25 train for Regina, where they will reside at 282 1/2 Campbell street.

Out-of-town guests were present at the wedding from Detroit, Toronto, and St. Thomas.

MR. MCGUIRE AGENTOF HUMANE SOCIETY

Appointed After Resignation of Dr. McDonald Is Accepted.

Mr. Adam McGuire received the appointment as agent for the Humane Society at a meeting held Tuesday night in the board of trade rooms. The former agent of the society, Dr. McDonald, V.S., resigned from the society on account of lack of time to devote to the interests of the society. Mr. McGuire has many years experience in humane work, and has been executive for several years of the executive committee of the society.

Reference was made to the street drinking fountain, Secretary W. L. Stevens, in making his report, stated that many of the existing ones were in an unsatisfactory condition, and needed constant attention.
The society will endeavor to have several additional fountains installed.

General Secretary, Harris, of the Do-munion Association, will be communicated with, with the view of having him deliver a course of lectures on the subject of the treasurer, C. A. Whitman, reported $287 in the treasury. Thirteen new members joined the society.

SEVERAL HUNDRED ATST. MICHAEL'S BAZAAR

Sales Are Large and Funds for Parish Are Increasing.

St. Peter's Parish Hall, in which a bazaar is now being conducted in aid of the new north end Roman Catholic parish of St. Michael's, was again the gathering place of several hundred people on Tuesday evening, the second night proving an even greater attraction than the first, despite the inclemency of the weather.

Rev. Father Hanlon, who has organized the north end parish, and invited those who have been in the parish of St. Michael's, was again the parish residence at the corner of Cheapside and Maitland streets, is being warmly congratulated upon the success of his undertaking thus far, and is receiving the able assistance of a very large number of friends.

Father Hanlon has been charged with the erection of new churches before, and has proven his capability to such an extent that his lordship again chose him for the work here.

Ladies and gentlemen co-operating with him in the management of the bazaar have worked earnestly in his behalf, and it is now expected that a large sum will have been accumulated before the end of the week.

The immense stock laid in for the bazaar is finding many ready purchasers, and as a result it will probably be necessary to add to the supplies in order to continue to the conclusion of the program arranged.

The musical entertainment at the church fair is very pleasing, and serves to attract large numbers.

Cold in the Chest?Rub Well With Zam-Buk

For bad colds on the chest, rub the chest and between the shoulders well with Zam-Buk at night.

If you suffer from catarrh or cold in the head, just insert a little Zam-Buk at the base of the nostril, and the balm becomes warm, inhale the healing essences which vaporize.

Sores in the nostril, which are sometimes set up by catarrh, will yield to Zam-Buk treatment.

Mrs. N. S. Babcock, of Matawatsch, Ont., says: "For a long time I had a very disagreeable sore on the inside of the nostril, which gave me great pain and caused much annoyance. I feared it would turn to cancer, and all I tried proved unavailing. I was ordered to try Zam-Buk, and I am glad to say that the sore that defied all other remedies was overcome by one box of Zam-Buk, and is now quite healed."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, eczema, blood-poison, piles, cuts, and skin injuries generally.

Harold Murray Victim of Playful Act of His

Companion

Harold Murray, 19 years old, residing at 75 Sackville street, sustained the loss of the sight of his right eye Tuesday afternoon, when a companion, employed with him at the Southern printing establishment, threw a wire nail into the optic. Murray was taken to Victoria Hospital, where an operation was performed upon him.
Murray had been playing with another lad, when his friend tossed the nail in his direction. The nail entered the pupil of the optic, and the sight was destroyed.

THE C. P. R. PROSPERITY

One United States Authority Attributes it to Policy of Utilizing Its Own Privileges.

[Philadelphia Financial Bulletin.]

The explanation of the great prosperity of the Canadian Pacific lies in two quite different facts. The first fact is the tremendously rapid growth of the country traversed. The second is the policy which has been pursued by the Canadian Pacific, in conserving to the company all of the possibilities for earning money which are developed by a railway, but which are not considered in the United States a necessary part of railway business proper.

The Canadian Pacific earned gross in the year ended June 30, 1912, $123,200,000.
After the payment of expenses, taxes, and fixed charges, it retained a surplus of $32,500,000, and after the payment of 7 per cent on the common stock toward earnings replacement, there was a surplus of $11,500,000.
In addition, 2 per cent was paid on the common stock "special income," making a total of 19 per cent. Special income on the Canadian Pacific is the income derived from interest on bonds and dividends on stocks.

The Canadian Pacific has its own express company, operates its own sleeping cars, operates its own dining cars, and has its own mail service. It has its own news stands. The land grants made by the Government to the company have been managed conservatively and with great skill and always in the interests of the company and not of any group of individuals.

It is due to this policy of the company, of itself getting all the profits that accrued, combined with the growth of the country, that has put the Canadian Pacific in the position to earn the rather large-inspiring sum of over $123,000,000 and to operate its property even in a year of severe general depression, as now a bleak as in the previous year.

The railway of the United States have granted to individuals or outside companies in many concessions which have made it possible for them to make a profit to the extent of the railway, but which are not of themselves a part of actual transportation. The consequence has been that in the United States the pacific has had to pay out a large amount of money to outside companies, sleeping car companies and so on, the prosperity of which does not help the railway.

The profits of these outside companies are a large part of the profits of the country at a far more rapid rate than their cost of doing business. The Canadian Pacific in being the sole beneficiary of these profits increases in proportion to the size of the country. In earnings wider, more than offsets the increase in expenses.

In 1912 the Canadian Pacific spent $12,500,000 for additional track and rolling stock in its main line and $12,300,000 for additions and betterments to its branch lines and for certain additions and betterments to office buildings and to telegraph lines. The total amount spent on the main line only $13,800,000 was for sidings and for additional tracks. Most of the remainder was spent for improvements having to do with terminals and terminal facilities.

The Canadian Pacific's needs at present are not so much for additional lines —although we may be sure that the policy of developing the country to the building of branch lines will not be abandoned in any way for more equipment. This is, of course, but at present a pressing need, since crops are being raised and as the country can be supplied with grain, it is not surprising that the Canadian Pacific has not only given credit to its own shops up to their full capacity for equipment, but has ordered equipment from the United States, despite the delay in delivery caused by the press of work in American shops.
Crop prospects in Canada are very good indeed.

Notwithstanding the competition that the Canadian Pacific will have to meet from the Grand Trunk, the Grand Trunk Pacific, and the Canadian Northern, it is in an unusually strong strategic position. Moreover, it is in an unusually strong strategic position as regards reduction by Government commission.
It is hardly likely that the Canadian Government would reduce rates below what would result in a return to either the Grand Trunk or the Canadian Northern. On any competitive rate that will yield a fair return to either the Canadian Southern or the Grand Trunk the Canadian Pacific can only gain by a substantial return. In other words, it has such a long start of its competitors and it has in the past been so conservative in its financing, that it is now in a position to face with ease either competition from new lines or regulation of its rates by Government authorities.
