Your First Opportunity Tomorrow To See the New Autumn and Winter Fabrics

Such a wealth of loveliness in the new autumn fabrics! Silks shimmering in smooth weave or embroidered designs. Woolens, light, yet warm, luxuriously soft to touch, and fashioning the most delightful apparel. Plaids in amazing combinations of brilliant tones, novelty weaves that make one wonder how they were ever achieved. Surely there is inspiration aplenty for the smartest of autumn costumes—and direct importation from the manufacturers is responsible for still lower and most reasonable prices.

The autumn wardrobe will certainly gain distinction through their addition.

RECAPTURE THE ELUSIVE "REIQ," LATE OF ST. THOMAS

Special to The Advertiser.
 St. Thomas, Aug. 21.—The elusive John Reid, who disturbed the sleepy quiet of Talbot street on Saturday morning last, when he had three officers chasing him and bullets ploughing up the ground behind him, has been recaptured and is again locked up in Hamilton jail, whence he made good his escape scarcely a week ago. Word to this effect was received today from Frank Lalonde, jailer at Hamilton. The local police are certain that the man recaptured is the same as the "Smith" who made the daring get-away in this city, as the descriptions of the two men tally exactly. "Smith," or "Reid," is believed to have made his way out of the city following the chase on an east-bound freight.

 No other nation has ever spent so much in money and attention on the education of a subject; people as has the United States upon the Indians.

NAME PHYSICAL DIRECTOR.
 Special to The Advertiser.
 GaSt. Aug. 21.—Sidney Kirk, physical director of the Revelstoke, B.C., Y.M.C.A., has been appointed physical director of the local institution, succeeding W. J. Unwin, who goes to Kitchener on September 1. The new official reports on September 15.
