It is rumoured in some quar-ters that the announcement is made to ters that the announcement is made to feel the public pulse, and learn how far the House of Lords dare go. It is the general mpression that t he will be thown out on a second reading.

LONDON, June 7 .- In reply to a conservative deputation to-day, Lord Derby said the opponents to the Irish Church Bill are a majority in the House of Lords, but they do not wish to influence the minds or fetter the action of others. while there are many friends of the Irish Church who wish to amend and not reject the Bill; he was persuaded that its rejection was the only course, and he believed the bill would be rejected by a was large. The trial stakes were won large majority. That course was the by Vagabond; the Bieunical stakes, by believed the bill would be rejected by a safest; the bill was such a revolutionary Bencils Thormond; the Goodwood by step that he felt satisfied that the action of the Lords would receive the assent of the country, who would continue to increase their support if coercion was attempted. A meeting of Conservatives was held in London to-night, when resolutions were adopted condemning the Irish Church Bill.

It is understood Gladstone proposes in case the Lords reject the bill, to prorogue this Session of Parliament immediately and inagurate a new session. In order to insure the passage of the bill, it is proposed to create, a new batch of Peers including the Marquis of Har to Generals Gualmezeada, Buntita, and tington, Lord Amberly, and the eldest rons Bengose, and that quite reigns in Havana. of the most liberal peers now without the in . . . . . Whatever the relative strength of the parties may be in the Corps Legislatifi this is a significant result and universal suffrage is bound to influence the entire policy of the French Government. The Telegraph, referring to the attitude of the House of Lords, says the nation only must govern the nation. To this Lord Der-by and other peers assented, when last year they invited the judgment of the nation on the Suspensory Bill. The peers now may well accept the jurisdiction which they opposed. In the House of Lords this evening Earl Hormby, gave notice that he should move that the second reading of the Irish Church Bill be postponed for six months.

English Ministry being changed, Lord Clarendon wrote under date of December 24th, that the British Government was prepared to meet the wishes of the United States, and sent a draft of a convention, by which the negotiations were to be completed on the 4th of January. A second convention was drawn up by Lord Clarendon, that is the one which has been rejected by the Senate. It was in fact a proposal to cheat the public by a deceptive clause in regard to the recognition of belligerency, and it excited indignant comments here with all fair-minded men, and appears to have fully justified the action of the Senate.

New York presided. General Dis, in response to the tosst of his health, delivered an eloquent speech. Thanking the assembly for the compliments paid, he reviewed the past progress and referred to the future prospects of their com-mon coustry. Alluding to the completion of the Pacific Railrowd, he said it realized of the Pacific Railford, he said it realized the prophet's dream, and he thought of Celumbus; by opening up a western passage from Europe to the Indies in the present century, little more was needed to complete the work. After alluding to the ambition of the American people, the General said, we may trust to Povidence for the continuance of one patiently propagation if in our interof our national prosperity, if in our inter-course with foreign States we conform to those rules, international rights and obliga-tions which have received the sanction of the civilized world, demanding only that the same maxims of reciprocal justice shall be

Let it be proplaired from the bouse tops that the Honse of Lords is not a more logical, or desirable, or excusable in-stitution than the Irish Church, and we fear the heat that will follow the rejection of the Bill. A heat will be generated, such as has not been seen since the people of Bir-mingham threatened to march on London in the name of Reform, and cries will be heard calling for the downfall of an absolute ohamber that no longer disguises its anachohamber that no longer disguises its anach-rousm of existence by hereditary descent. The Times says we are on the eve of a coming crisis; nothing since the throes which preceded the passage of the Reform Bill can be compared to the consequences which will attend the threatened conduct of the Peers, and the result of the struggle is not at all doubtfol. Europe. NEW YORK, June 3.—The Herald's London special states that in an official correspondence between Eugland and America relative to the Alabama affairs, published in February, 1868, Seward expressed a plan for the settlement of the claims, suggesting an international conference. Subsequently Seward de-sired that the natural zation, and San on the 16th. London June 8. — The Standard (Tory) says the perils of the proposed action are too obvious. Gladstone ig-nored every thought or feeling for the claims for arbitration. The question of the alleged premature recognition by Her Majesty's Government of the belli-gerency of the Confederates, could not be taken up and thereby cause the Gobe taken up and thereby cause the Go-vernment to depart from the position already taken, but he saw no difficulty in so traming a reference that the diffi-culty might be avoided. The negotian-tions thereafter proceeded rapidly, on the basis of this agreement, by which accordance with the instructions of Minister Johnson, and the President and his colleagues could not approve certain stipulations which, in their present form, would not receive the sanction of the Senate. Seward informa ed Thornton that the United States would bring the matter to a satisfactory conclusion, and hoped that the importance of the subject would
