A French delegation waited on the government today and asked a further subsidy for the Franco-Canadian line of steamers. The present subsidy offered is $50,000, but it has failed to have the desired effect.

Premier Laurier announced that John Bertram, Toronto; and W. O. Fry, Quebec, had accepted positions on the transportation commission. Sir Wm. Van Horse was asked to serve and had consented at first, but owing to calls of business he asked to be relieved from his pression. The government still hopes.
