your act was that of an irresponsible man. It would have left people the satisfactory belief that the crime of political assassination was something entirely foreign to our institu-tions and the civilization of the country, but the result denied them that comfort. The country will accept it as a fact that that crime can be committed, and the court will have to deal with it by inflicting the highest penalty known to the criminal code, to serve as an example to others. Your career has been so extraordinary that people might well at times have doubted your sanity, but one cannot but believe when the crime was committed you thoroughly understood its nature and its con-

"Truth-seeker" doubted the statement that the Queen and her family are of Israelitish origin, and gave as a reason the absence of Jewish features in the royal family. The doctor held that the Germanic relationship gave them the statement of the control o

DEATH DOES NOT DESTROY A MAN'S BEING, or imply that because we are without a body, we cease to exist. Angels and spirits existed in the time of our Saviour. There is a spiritual as well as a physical death. Some of you to night are spiritually dead. Some people are alive to gambling houses and dens of ill-fame. They lick their lips when, they swear and enjoy it hugely. They will go twenty miles through a rainstorm to see a horse race, but would not go twenty yards to a prayer meeting—spiritualtwenty yards to a prayer meeting—spiritual-ly dead. You that are dead in your sins are very lively, notwithstanding that idea of sleep, and while you think you will have a good, easy time of it hereafter. I very much doubt it.

man might as well deny consciousness here as consciousness hereafter. When we were born on the lap of time, we were born in a high state, but our birth in death will eleyate us still higher. The last words of my good old mother were, "Heaven opens; I am going home to heaven"—and I believe she is there. And as man is a progressive creature here, so he will be progressive in clarify.—moving in from cycle to gyale. eternity—moving in from cycle to cycle, and mounting higher and higher from glory to glory; a child here—a man there.

Glory to god! Thank god that when a man puts off this mortal clay he goes to Christ.

The doctor closed with a brilliant and The doctor closed with a brilliant and eliquent peroration which held the audience spellbound during its delivery, a number being visibly affected as he recited Montgomery's poem: "Friend after friend departs, who has not lost a friend?"
"The coming of Christ" will be the subject for next Sunday evening.
