Sterling, the winner of £6181.5.
Undoubtedly the best sporting paper in the United States is the Turf, Field and Farm. Always thoroughly reliable, it depends entirely on the amusements and recreation of the people for its popularity, allowing the field of sensationalism entirely to its neighbors. As regards horse racing the Turf, Field and Farm stands away over them all both for treatment and knowledge of the subject. And so itshould do with such a man as Col. Bruce at the helm, a gentleman who has probably spotted more good horses than any man living.

W. H. Vanderbilt and Frank Work owners. A Household Necessity. —She would not keep house without it, so says Mrs. McArthur of Hopeville regarding Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. This medicine is pleasant to take, and speedily cures coughs, bronchitis, asthma, weak lungs and all pectoral complaints.

W. H. Vanderbilt and Frank Work, owners of the fastest trotting teams in the world, never speak as they pass by. Vanderbilt recently found among some old papers of his father's an I.O.U. for $5000 signed by Frank Work. He at once gave orders for suit to be entered for principal and interest. Work found among his papers a check endorsed by the late commodore showing that the debt had been paid long ago, and he is now sueing Vanderbilt for attempting to extort money and to hurt his credit.

The deer seized at the express office, Hamilton, were addressed to W. H. Campbell, but no such person can be found. It was supposed it was really intended to ship the 16 deer to the States. There cannot be a doubt, as the Tribune says, if the express companies find they cannot carry, game out of season the law is much more likely to be observed. If, too, neither they nor the railway companies could carry any game in quantities without a special permit with each consignment from a justice of the peace or a magistrate, there would probably be less slaughter.

His Outspeken Opinion.

The very marked testimonials from College Professirs, respectable Physicians, and other gentlemen of intelligence and character to the value of Warner's SAFE Cure, published in the editorial columns of our best newspapers, have greatly surprised me. Many of these gentlemen I know, and reading their testimeny I was impelled to purchase some bottles of Warner's SAFE Cure and analyze it. Besides, I took some, swallowing three times the prescribed quantity. I am satisfied the medicine is not injurious, and will frankly add that if I found myself the victim of a serious kidney trouble I should use this preparation. The truth is, the medical profession stands dazed and helpless in the presence of more than one kidney malady, while the testimony of hundreds of intelligent and very reputable gentlemen hardly leaves room to doubt that Mr. H. Warner has fallen upon one of those happy discoveries which occasionally bring help to suffering humanity.

285 QUEEN ST. WEST, OPP. BEVERLEY. "She Does Not Know Chicken from Turkey."

Helene is the handsomest girl of her race, She's an elegant form and an exquisite face, And she dresses with perfectly consummate grace, But she doesn't know chicken from turkey; She knows many languages, living and dead;
In science and fiction is very well read,
But she cannot cook meat, and she cannot make bread,
And she doesn't know chicken from turkey.

And she doesn't know chloken from turkey.

She can play a "Fantasia or "Nocturne" with skill;
Can sing up to "B"—has a wonderful trill;
Can write a good story or sonnet, but still
She doesn't know chicken from turkey.

She's been up the Tiber, the Rhine and the Nile,
She's a painter in every popular style—
Can decorate china, a plaque or a tile,
But she doesn't know chicken from turkey.

She's always self-satisfied, graceful and cool; She's always self-satished, graceful and cool;
A critic, both just and correct as a rule;
And knows every stitch of the Kensington school,
But she doesn't know chicken from turkey.
She can work a design by Lansing or Burt;
But she cannot cut out for her children a skirt,
Or make for her husband a well-fitting shirt—
She doesn't know chicken from turkey.

I'm willing a girl should read Latin and Greek;
Should German and French and Italian speak;
And be "up" in the latest esthetical freak,
If she only knows chicken from turkey,
I'd like her in music and song to take part;
Read poetry, science and cultivate art,
If husband and children were first to her heart,
And if she knew chicken from turkey.

And if she knew cheese the trong a pie;
A boil from a stew, a broil from a from a fie;
And if she went into the market to buy,
Knew very well chicken from turkey.
For, to make a home happy, all knowledge must blend,
Art, science and service their benefits lend;
Then, ladies so clever and wise, condescend
To know about chicken or turkey. Now, here comes the moral of this little tale,

Which showed that Helene did not know the word "fail,"
For she went to where cookery books were for sale,
And made known her desire to the clerk. He. A copy of "Mrs. Clarke's Cookery Book,"
And said, "You'll soon know, if through this you will look,
What to do with a chicken or turkey."
