Col. Bain at the Pavilion Col. George W. Bain of Lexington, Kentucky, addressed a largely attended meeting in the Pavilion yesterday afternoon. The meeting was one of a series being held under the auspices of the Canadian Temperance League. a series being held under the auspices of the Canadian Temperance League. There were on the platform with the speaker the following gentlemen: Ala. Hallam, Prof. Burwash, Dr. Fisher, Ala. Jos. Oliver, Rechab Tandy, Conductor Snider, J. N. McKendry, W. H. Meredith, John Armstrong, George B. Sweetnam, J. S. Robertson, Rev. P. D. Will. J. D. Ferguson, Colin Skinner, George Wrigley, J. H. Conlan and W. H. Mitchell.

Col. Bain concluded a powerful address by exclaiming in emotional tores, "I pray heaven the day may never dawn whose peace will be broken by the guns of war bringing death and desolation because of feud between my own countrymen and the great English nation, but instead may they each continue to be like a tree planted where the waters meet!"

The Carlton-street Quartette enlivened the afternoon by giving with marked artistic effect and peculiar sweetness several selections which evidently delighted the large audience.

Instead of threatening war on Great Britain unfection for her, and that nowhere in accepting the method it proposes less the latter submit her dispute with the world is England loved. When they others should follow, the United States sserts its claim, and in the same treath demands its admission under threat of a declaration of war. Now the claim made by the United States is one that possesses many elements of weakness. The people and press of Great Britain are unanimous in declaring the claim to be invalid. The press of the United States is divided on the question of the validity of the United States' claim. Naturally enough nost of the papers defend the claim, but among the journals that oppose are found several of the foremost ex-
