

HEAVY RAINFALL FLOODS LISBON

Transportation Interrupted and Houses Collapse

HEAVY TOLL FROM STORMS

Severe Gales and Torrential Rains In Northwest Europe

LISBON, Portugal, Nov. 29.—Enormous damage and at least some casualties have been caused by torrential rains, which fell in Portugal for 24 hours, beginning on Thursday night.

233 DUNDAS STREET, PHONE 2351, m.w.t.b.f.

By noon yesterday Lisbon was flooded; transportation was interrupted in several districts and many houses collapsed. Numbers of coastal vessels are reported missing and loss of life is feared.

Setubal, opposite Lisbon, was under water, and the only transportation was by boat.

The Lisbon floods come at the end of a week of storms all over Europe, claiming a heavy toll in lives and property.

At least 100 persons are believed to have died in a similar disaster at Athens on Tuesday, when a torrential rain flooded refuge settlements, causing many houses to collapse and washing up 28 ancient tombs.

Thursday heavy winter storms swept over Northwest Europe, causing snow as far south as the Apennines in Italy.
Mariners in the North Sea said the storm was the worst in their experience and at least 39 men in the English fleet were lost. English seaside towns suffered heavy damage. Snow fell in London during the funeral procession of Queen Mother Alexandra, bringing cold that sent the mercury to 11 above zero.

Palermo, Sicily, suffered a cyclonic storm on Thursday, in which many were injured.

DETROIT DRUGGIST IS SHOT IN BACK

Warren J. Cook, Victim of Unknown Assailant

DETROIT, Nov. 29.—Shot in the back by an unidentified assailant, Warren J. Cook, aged 45, is in a serious condition at the Receiving Hospital tonight. As the result of another shooting, one negro is dead, his wife is held by police as his slayer and a negro is in the hospital.

Cook, proprietor of a drug store at Crawford avenue and Market street, was shot as he stepped from a blind pig on High street, the bullet entering his left side below the heart.

Police are working on a theory that Cook was wounded by a business rival or a jealous husband. After questioning Cook Eugene A. Walling, assistant prosecutor, expressed an opinion the victim knows more about the attack than he has admitted.

Blanchard Meal, 35 years old, 1904 Hastings street, a negro, known to the police as "Humpty Dumpty," was shot and killed at Hastings street and Igfayette avenue and his companion, Lillian Glover, 632 Hastings street, was wounded in both legs by Catherine Thomas, who, police say, was Meal's common-law wife. The Thomas woman, who is held on a charge of murder, is said to have admitted she did the shooting because of jealousy.

NO MORE PRICE CUTTING

Western Tire Dealers Agree to Stop the Practice.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 29.—Stability of motor tire prices throughout Western Canada is assured for 1926.

At Saskatoon on Saturday, with delegates representing mostly wholesalers and manufacturing agents west of the lakes, it was agreed that no price cutting will be done next year. This year in some sections standard tires were cut as an inducement for other business in accessories to less than retail cost.
The Saskatoon meeting was the result of numerous preliminaries in all parts of the Dominion relating to rubber tires of all makes.

REV. C. A. DANTZER DIES SUDDENLY

Was Treasurer of St. Jerome's College, Kitchener

KITCHENER, Nov. 29.—Rev. Charles A. Dantzer, treasurer of St. Jerome's College here, died rather suddenly at the college yesterday just about noon after an illness that had extended over three years.

Father Dantzer was born on November 7, 1886, and was educated at St.
Jerome's College, taking his novitiate at the College of the Resurrection, at Chicago, in 1907. In the same year he entered the Gregorian University at Rome, where he stayed until 1914, being ordained priest on July 25, 1912.

In 1914 he returned to Canada and joined the staff of St. Jerome's, teaching until June, 1924. He had been treasurer of St. Jerome's since 1912.
Father Dantzer is survived by three brothers and two sisters, Pere and Henry, in Detroit; Herbert, in Rush-lake, Sask., and Rose and Emma, in Detroit.
Rt. Rev. Bishop John McNally, of Hamilton, will officiate at the funeral, which will be held on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, with interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

GIVE DELIGHTFUL CONCERT

HENSALL, Nov. 28.—The Sunbeam Trio gave a delightful concert in the town hall here last night before an audience that filled the hall to capacity and which expressed its appreciation of the various numbers in hearty applause. The members of the trio, who were introduced by Rev. A. Sinclair, are Miss Greta Lammie, of Hensall, Miss Catherine Sells, of London, and Miss Gladys Slay, of Sarnia. They gave an excellent program of trios, duets, solos, instrumentals and readings.
