

up in another parcel, and started off. Unluckily, however, the fellow made a mistake, and delivered the magnificent dress at Mr.
Thompson's, the tailor's, and the letter and pantaloons at the house of the offended lady.
Her indignation at this new affront may be imagined, and when at a later period of the day the lover appeared, the door was indignantly slammed in his face. All explanations and apologies were of no avail; the marriage was broken off, and the lady overthrew, to this day, an implacable hatred of the sex who wear pantaloons.

THE NOBLEMAN AND HIS VALET.

OR, TETOTALISM APPRECIATED.
The following pleasing incident was related by Mr. Bignall, Head Fisherman to FISHERY ALBERT, in the course of an address which he recently delivered at a Festival Meeting at Bingham Notes. A certain Nobleman, whose footman had performed his duties to the satisfaction of his master, raised him from that situation to be his private valet; took him out of livery and advanced his salary from thirty to fifty guineas per annum, with four suits of plain clothes per year.
The first time the noble Lord and his valet dined out, he unfortunately partook too much of the infuriating draught, so much so that he was obliged to be lifted upon the coach body by two policemen. My lord was very sorry to see it, but resolved next morning to give him his discharge forthwith. My lady, hearing of the circumstance, entreated his lordship for a month's warning, which was granted on condition the valet never came into his lordship's presence. My lady finding she had succeeded so far, and the young man being a very good servant, asked his lordship if he might stay in his service, provided he would sign the temperance pledge.
His lordship consented. The house porter was called to accompany the poor valet to the secretary of the temperance society, and subscribed his name and bring a certificate to that effect. Accordingly, away they went, and after the valet had signed, the secretary gave the certificate to the porter, who brought it to his lordship. He looked at it and said, "It is all right, and after giving him a faithful admonition, he stated, 'So long as you remain a teetotaler, and conduct yourself properly, you may continue in my service.'"

THE FIRST STRIKING CLOCK.

In the time of Alfred the great, the Persians imported into Europe a machine, which presented the first rudiments of a striking clock. It was bought as a present to Charlemagne from Abdallah, king of Persia, by two monks of Jerusalem in the year 800.
Among other presents, says Eginhart, was a horologe of brass wonderfully constructed by some mechanical artifice, in which the course of the twelve hours an elephant was represented, with as many little brzen balls which at the close of each hour, dropped down on a sort of bell underneath and sounded the end of the hour. There were also twelve figures of housemen, who in the two hours were completed, issued out at twelve windows, which till then stood open, and returned again, shut the windows after them. It is to be remembered that Eginhart was an eye witness of what is here described, at that he was an abbot, a skilful architect, and very learned in the sciences.—Warton's disquisition on the introduction of learning in England.

BY

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

FIFTY ULCERS CURED IN SIX WEEKS.

Extract of Letter from John Martin, Esq., "Chronicle" Office, Toledo, West Indies—

February 4th, 1845.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that the inhabitants of this island especially those who cannot afford to employ medical gentlemen, are very anxious of having your Ointment applied to their sores, from the benefit some of them have derived from their use, as they have been told here, in several cases, to cure Sores and Ulcers of the most malignant and desperate kind.
One gentleman, the Legation, who I believe about fifty running ulcers about his legs, arms, and body, who had tried all other Medicines before the arrival of yours, but all of which did him no good, but your Ointment in about six weeks, and he is now, by their means alone, quite restored to health and vigor.

(Signed) JOHN MARTIN.

PILES, FISTULAS, AND HEAVINGS-DOWN.

A Remarkable Cure by the use of Pills and Ointment.—A half-pay Lieutenant, lately residing at Hobbs, Jersey, whose name by request is communicated, has for three years suffered from piles and fistula, besides a general heaving down, of the most distressing nature. He had to undergo an operation, but to no purpose, and at last gave himself up to despair. Yet, notwithstanding this complication of complaints, together with a debilitated constitution, he was completely cured of all his infirmities and restored to the full enjoyment of health by these justly renowned medicines.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE IN THE WEST INDIES, OF TYPHOUS AND OTHER DIREFUL SKIN DISEASES.

June 3rd, 1841.

Mr. LEWIS FREEDON, of Georgetown, in the Western Indies, writes under the above date—that Holloway's Pills and Ointment, have cured bad legs that no doctor could manage, a cancer and sores that were of the most dreadful description, as likewise hypo-piles, blotches, scabies and other skin diseases of the most frightful nature, and that the cures effected thereon, astonish the whole population.

CANCERED URETHRA, AND WONDERFUL CIRCUMSTANCE.

Copy of a Letter from Richard Bull, Boatman, at Tulou, near Southampton.

February 9th, 1845.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—The Lord has permitted me to witness a wonderful cure of Cancer of the Urethra, (twelve years standing, in my wife's case) by the use of your Pills and Ointment, together with a disseminated of the time, eleven wounds were opened on the Urethra, and the cancer came away, and I expected that my poor wife would never recover, but by the use of your Pills and Ointment, which, to our astonishment, has cured her in three months, and she is now as well as ever.

I shall ever remain
Your most grateful and obedient servant,

(Signed) RICHARD BULL.

Wheezing on the Chest and Shortness of Breath.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. J. C. C. Esq., of London, dated 20th, 1845.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that I have been suffering for more than three years, of one of the greatest sufferings in the world with Chronic Asthma, for weeks together my breath was frequently short, and I was able to do very little, and I should be choked with phlegm. I never went into a bed very often, indeed, I have been obliged to pass the night without being able to recline sufficiently.
But when I used your Ointment, I should be choked with phlegm. I never went into a bed
the night without being able to recline sufficiently.
But when I used your Ointment, I should be
the night without being able to recline sufficiently.

No one thought I should live over the winter, but I expect it myself, but I am happy to say that I am now able to work from morning to night, and that I sleep as well as ever. I did not feel this miracle.—(I may say) was effected by rubbing your invaluable Ointment twice a day into my chest, and taking ten of your Pills at bed time, and ten again in the morning, for about three months.

(Signed) JEREMIAH CACEY.

IN ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

Bad Legs, Old Wounds, and Ulcers, Bad Breasts, Sore Nipples, Stoney and Operated Cancers, Tumors, Swellings, Gout, Rheumatism and Lumbago, likewise, in cases of Piles the Pills in all the above cases, ought to be used with the Ointment; as by this means cures will be effected with a much greater certainty and in half the time that it would require by using the Ointment alone. The Ointment is proved to be a certain remedy for the bite of Mosquitoes, Sand-flies, Chigoees, lows, and Coco-bay.

Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, and Lips, also Bunions and soft Corns, will be immediately cured by the use of the Ointment.
THE PILLS are not only the finest remedy known when used with the Ointment, but as a General Medicine there is nothing equal to them. In nervous affections, as well as in all cases of general debility, or where there is a want of purity in the blood and fluids, they will insure HEALTH TO ALL!

tients are affixed to each Pot.
